Oh! life is like the wide, wide sea, And hope is like a wave, Which daslies on with noticy glee, Some sunny share to lave.

'And gaily flingeth up the spray, Which sparkles in the sun, And dropeth jewels all the way Its merry footsteps run.

The skies bend down to meet the sea, And gently seem to rest, As if in loving harmony, Upon the dark wave's breast.

Yet yonder bark may find, ere night, That peaceful sea a tomb; And such is life-to day how bright, To-morrow wrapped in gloom!

The propes which in life's morning wake, Before that morn was o'er. May like those bounding billows, break, And perish on the shore.

PHILADELPHIA, Saturday, Nov. 81 1837, D. D. R. W.M. EVNS .- D'ar Sir: It is with peasure I take this opportunity of returning you my sincere thanks for the benefit of your in valuable medicine, the Camounile Pilis. Having been afflicted for several years with dispepsia, my very being became almost loathsome to me. I suffered severe pains in the side, was afflicted with fainting spells, great debility, want of appetite, ina bility to rest at night, frequent sickness, and in short all the symptoms of that distressing disease. I had tried several skilful physicians, but with no success, my imbeculity of mind and body gradually increaed, still I strictly abstained from using any of the nostriums and 'certain remedies' with which our newspapers daily abound, and for which I enter tained a horror and contempt. At length through carnest entreaty of my friends, and especiatly my wife, I with great reluctance consented to try your celebrated pills. The effect was wonderful, and as tonished even my most sanguine friends. I had used them but a short-time before I rapidly recovered, and I now enjoy excellent health, to which I have been a stranger for more than two years. I cannot sufficiently express my heartfelt gratitude to you for the advantage I derived from your meet cines, and I earliestly and concientiously recom-ment all suffering under similar complaints to use your C MOMILE PHAS. Although with some diffidence. I checrfully dewire that you publish this testimony, if you see proper, and remain WILLIAM T. TAYLOR. Yours, &c. WILLIAM 1. 14Y LOR.

If you wish to make use of Sarsapanila, be advised to try DR LEIDY'S MEDICATED EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA.—It is positively the strongest preparation in existence, one bottle of it (which costs but one dollar) being equal to one gallon of Syrup, as it is usually prepared in the shops, and equal to two bottle; of any other extract. Dr. Leidy begs leave to state this he himself prepares it, and can consequently wouch for its strength. Numerous Physicians throughout the United States must lithe preference over all other prepared States must be preference over all other prepared States must lithe preference over all other prepared. nted States, give it the preference over all other prepa-tions of Sarsaparilla, both from the fact of its superior strength (consequently efficacious when employed) and from the circumstance of its being prepared by a regular Apothecary and Physician, attested by Drs. Chapman Jackson, Horner, Gloson, Dewess, James, Coxe, &c. &c.
It is useless here to name the numerous affections wherein Saranparilla is considered the sole specific.—
Suffice it to say, it is recommended by all Physicians throughout the world, in diseases of the Skin, Bones Liv throughout the world, in diseases of the Skin, Bones Liver &c., and particularly all diseases produced by impurities of the blood and animal fluids. As a purifier of the blood, it is at all times (and particularly in the Spring and Fall) invaluable. In warm chiractes, throughout the Summer Season, no person should neglect using it occasionally.
