

A HARVEST HYMN, IN A WET SEASON BY JAMES MUNTGOMERY. We lift up our eyes, our hearts to Th

Our knees, our souls to Thee we bend; Father of all earth's family! The appointed weeks of harvest send. The ground, thy table, is full spread With food to nourish man and beast;
Hast Thou prepared the children's bread,
And wilt Thou now torbid the feast?

Summer and winter, day and night, Seed time and harvest, Thou hast will'd; And dow, and rain, and warmth and light, Have each their gracious task fulfill'd.

Shall whelming floods the hopes destroy, Of those who on thy promise trust? Shall storms prevent the reaper's joy, And lay his confidence in dust!

O bid the winds and waters cease, The lowering firmament unshroud; Think on the coverant of peace, Look on thy try bow—'tis in the cloud!

We fall adoring at thy feet,
Our prayer is heard—the veil is riven;
With deep thanksgiving let us eat
The bread that cometh down from Heaven.

A Dear Jest.— A pannero, or cloth dealer, when travelling through La Mancha, with his mule laden with goods, was attacked by a robber, who leaped with goods, was attacked by a robber, who lesped out on him, and presenting a musket at his head, demanded his purse. *Du not kill me, Sir Cavalier. I pray you, for the love of God! by the good Jesus! and the pangs of his most holy mother!' cried the terrified panners, with his soul between his teeth. I have no money; this cloth is all I possess in the world, and I was grained actility at Toleda, but any world, and I was going to sell it at Toledo: but ay de mi!-alas me! God knows if ever I shall reach that place. I am a poor man-very poor-and work baid, travelling up and down, running through the world to gain my livelihood! Said the robber, finding he had no money, and somewhat pitying the poor devil—said he, 'Vames hombre! since there no cash I'll take cloth enough to make me a pair of cabrones.' The dealer then loosened the burden or caoranes. The dealer then loosened the burden from his mule, and cut a piece of cloth large enough for a pair of breeches. Remain with God, triend "said the robber, as he put the cloth into his manta. Go away with God, Sir Thief!" replied the paane ro, and laughing under his cloak that he had escaped so cheaply, he added, as the robber was walking away dand that will send mant the hill. Oh! "and ed so cheapiy, he added, as the roble, '.Oh!' said the robber, returning, 'God is to send me the bill, is he? He is a kind creditor, it may as well be a large one; come, cut me cloth enough for a cloak ! The desier, who now discovered his mistake, obey d in silence, resolving never again to jest with Bowel Complaint Cured.

AVNE'S CARMINATIVE BALSAM is a certam, safe, and effectual remedy for dysentery, distribution openess; cholera morbus, summer complimit, choler, ping pains, sour stomach, flatulency, &c. &c., and all smodic and nervous diseases, as sick and nervous Baltimore, March 27, 1833.

Da. JAYNE—Dear Sir: You ask me what proof I meet with of the efficacy of your medicine. I can safely say that I never prescribed any medicine for Bowel Complaint that has given me so much satisfaction, and my patients so speedy and perfect relief as this. Whenever introduced into a family, it becomes a standing remidy for those ailments, and is called for again and, again, which I think a pretty good proof of its efficacy and usefolness. In the Summer Complaint of Children it has frequently appeared to snatch the little victum, as it frequently appeared to snatch the little victims, as it were, from the grave. "It saved the life of my child, and of such and such a child," I have repeatedly heard said. In dysinteric inflectious of adults, I have time and again seen it act, like a charm, and give permanent relief in a few hou's, I may say in a few minutes. In fine, it is a valuable medicine, and no family should be without it. Respectfully."

perfectly cured by using this Expectorant. Mrs. Delks, of Salem, New Jersey, was cured of Asthma, of twenty

Mrs. Ward, also of Salem was cured of the same complaint by one bottle. A young lady, also of Salem, who

Mr. Tinson. of the Island of Jamaica. For all cases of cough, inflammation of the chest, lungs, and threat, I do most unbesitatingly recommend this as the best medicine I have ever tried. My earnest wish is that others afflicted as I have been may experience the same relief, which I am persuaded they will, by using your Expection.

THE CAUSE OF BILLIOUS COMPLAINTS AND A MODE OF CURE—A well regulated and pros-portionate quantity of bile upon the stomach is alway-requisite for the promotion of sound health—it simurequisite for the promotion of sound health—it stimulates digestion, and keeps the intestinal canal free from all obstruction. On the interior surface of the liver is a peculiar bladder, in which the bile is first preserved, being formed by the liver from the blood. Thence it passes into the stomach and intestines, and regulates the indigestioh. Thus we see when there is a deficiency of bile, the bory is constantly contive. On the other hand

Thus we see when there is a deficiency of bile, the bory is constantly constitute on the other hand, an overabandance of bile, causes frequent nausea in the stomach; and often promotes very severe attacks of disease, which sometimes end in death.

Fevers are silways precede thy symptoms of a disordered stomach; as are side scrofulous disorders, and all sympathetic, functional, organic or febrile diseases. From the same cause, the natural and healthy action of the heart, and the whole viscular system is impaired and reduced below its intural standard; as exhibited in palpitations, languid puise, torpors of the limbs, syncope, and even death itself, in consequence of an overabundance of a peculiar offensive substance to the digestive organs. The approach of billious diseases, is at all times attended by decided symptoms of an existing diseased state of the stomach and bowels; i.e. with those signs which are known to point out their contents to be of a morbid tritating, nature: but whenever the allimentary canal happens to be loaded with irritating matter, some derangents.

The progress of organic obstruction is often so rapid as acreely to admit of time for the application of such aid as is to be offered by article, in general, the premonitory symptoms of gas ric load are perceptible for a day or two previous to the feverish paraysem, a period, when the most officacious assistance may be given, by unloading the stomach and alimentary canal of its irritating contents, and thus reducing the susceptibility of disease.

entibility of disease. MOFFAT'S LIFE MEDICINES, should always be taken in the early stages of billious complaints; and if persevered in strictly according to the directions, will positively effect a cure.

THE LIFE PILLS and PHENIX BITTERS have proved to be the most happy in their effects in cases of billious diseases, of any purely vegetable preparation ever offered to the public. If the stomach is foot, they cleanse it by exciting it to throw off its content; if not, they pass to the duodenum without exciting, vomiting or nauses in the stomach; stimulating the neighboring vicera, as the liver and paneras, so as to produce a more copious four of their secretions into the intestines; stimulating the exhaltent capillaries, terminating in the inner coat, which an in creased flow of the inseless particles of the body, foreign matters, or retained secretions, are completely disscharged.
