PROSPECTUS

OF THE

United States Mining Journal

AND

Register of the Iron Trade,

To be published in monthly numbers of 32 octavo pages, double columns, at

POTTSVILLE, SCHUYLKILL COUNTY, PA.

—+o+—

This work, as its title imports, will be devoted to the interests of the Coal and Iron trades, and such other mining operations, as are daily becoming of more importance in our country, and to the diffusion of general scientific improvements. The location of the seat of publication, situated in the very heart of a region, where nature has been most prolific of her gifts, points it out as the spot, from whence such a work should emanate. The importance of our Coal and Iron products, and the perfection of the experiments for smelting iron ore with anthracite coal, demand the commencement of a publication, which shall collect and disseminate in a permanent form, all the information necessary to perfection in the various mechanic branches dependant on them.

Scientific assistance will be engaged, and the history of the rise and progress of our national mineral business, will be given from authentic sources.—The iron and lead fields of the western states, the gold mining operations of the south, and the workings of copper, cobalt and other metals, and all the different manufactures dependent on them, will be embraced in the plan of publication. Statistical tables, and European improvements, will be laid before its readers, and every effort made to render it worthy the attention, not only of those directly connected with mining operations, but of all who feel pride in the advancement of our national resources, and the developement of its treasures. The latter class of expected patrons must be numerous, when it is considered of what vast importance to the welfare of a country are its mineral treasures. Great Britain owes to her inexhaustable supply of coal, iron and other metals, a large share of her immense national revenue and individual wealth; they are her protection in war, and her means of aggrandizement in peace.

Our United States is destined to occupy a pre-eminent station as a mining country, and but few years can elapse, before we will be independent of all foreign resources. England has an annual iron trade of about a million tons, and a coal trade, of probably twenty millions. Our country has in twenty years, acquired a trade of nearly one million tons of Anthracite Coal, independent of the Bituminous Coal trade, which supplies the South from the Virginia fields, and the vallies of the Ohio and Mississippi from the region of Pittsburg. The head waters of the great western rivers, are teeming with mineral wealth, and their products will soon enrich every portion of our land. From all these different regions, the Mining Journal, will receive accurate accounts of progressive improvements, and chronicle them at the earliest dates. In order to assist the dissemination of such information, drawings and wood, cuts will be used, whenever found necessary, and the opening number will be embellished with a correct design of the first Anthracite Furnace, now in most successful operation in the Borough of Pottsville, together with a minute and careful description of all its different parts—the proportion of the charges for burden, &c. &c. &c.

The commencement of such an undertaking as the one now suggested, involves in the very fact a determination to prosecute it with vigor, and untiring industry; and it is therefore deemed superfluous to offer any assurances of the intention to render it, as far as practicable, a useful and scientific work. It is therefore, with a simple promise to use every exertion to collate important mechanical truths, that the public are presented with the following Conditions.

THE MINING JOURNAL, AND REGISTER OF THE IRON TRADE, will be printed monthly, in octavo form, with double columns, on good paper: each number to contain 32 pages, with a printed cover.

The terms of subscription will be Three Dollars per annum, payable on the reception of the first number.

In places where no established agent is located, two copies of the work will be furnished for Five Dollars, if transmitted free of postage.

The first number, will be issued about the 1st of April next, or sooner, if a sufficient number of subscribers be obtained to warrant its publication.

☞ Post-masters will please act as agents in forwarding the names of subscribers.

☞ All persons holding subscription papers, will please remit the names obtained, early in February, 1840.

☞ Address Benjamin Bannan, Pottsville, Schuylkill Co. Pa.

☞ Editors throughout the country, who feel an interest in the establishment of a national work of this kind, will confer a favor by giving this prospectus a few insertions, and noticing the plan in their editorial columns. Where regular agencies are not established, any person wishing to subscribe may forward their names, free of postage, or leave them with Postmasters, who will oblige us by forwarding such as they obtain, at early a period as possible.

Jayne's Hair Tonic.

THE efficacy of this elegant preparation in restoring the growth of the hair in bald places, is wonderful. Where the hair has been worn off from the top of the head by the careless practice of carrying things in the crown of the hat, it is generally considered difficult if not impossible to restore it but it is found by numerous examples, that the Hair Tonic reaches these cases very promptly and effects a cure. Every gentleman—(we say nothing to the ladies, it being a fair presumption that their hair is always in full luxuriance; at least it always seem so,)—every gentleman who finds his hair growing too thin or becoming loose, should place a bottle of Jayne's Hair Tonic in his dressing case and apply it with a free use of the hair brush every morning. The result will be a full, strong and healthy head of hair. The cases that have fallen under our own observation warrant us fully in asserting this.—There is no mistake in Dr. Jayne.—Weekly Messenger.

Dr. Jayne's Expectorant.

THIS invaluable medicine is daily effecting some of the most astonishing cures that have ever been known. All who have ever used it for Asthma, Cough, Spitting of Blood, Hooping Cough, Croup or Hives, Consumption, Chronic Pleurisy, Hoarseness, Pain and Soarness of the Breast, Difficulty of Breathing, and every other disease of the lungs and and breast, can and do attest to its usefulness.—Bronchitis, a disease which is annually sweeping thousands upon thousands to a premature grave, underthe mistaken name of consumption, is always cured by it. The usual symptoms of this disease (Bronchitis) are cough, sorenes of the lungs and throat, hoarseness, difficulty of breathing, asthma, hectic fever, a spitting up of phlegm or matter, and sometimes blood. It is an inflammation of the fine skin which lines the inside of the whole of the wind tubes or air vessels, which runs through every part of the lungs. The expectorant immediately suppresses the cough, pain, inflamation, fever and difficulty of breathing, and produces a free and easy Expectoration, and cure a is soon effected

It always cures asthma—two or three large doses will cure the croup or hives of children, in from fifteen minutes to an hour's time. It immediately subdues the violence of hooping cough, and effects a speedy cure. Hundreds who have been given up by their physicians as incureable with "consumption," have been restored to perfect health by it.

Dr. Jonathan Going, President of the Granville College, Ohio, (late of New York) in a letter to Dr. Jayne, dated New York, December, 1836, says—"He was laboring under a severe cold, cough and hoarseness, and that his difficulty of breathing was so great that he felt himself in imminent danger of immediate suffocation, but was peefectly cured by using this Expectorant." Mrs Delke, of Salem, New Jersey, was cured of Asthma, of twenty years standing, by using two bottles of this medicine.—Mrs. Ward, also of Salem, was cured of the same complaint by one bottle. A young lady, also of Salem, who was believed by her friends to be far gone with consumption was perfectly restored by three bottles. Dr. Hamilton, of St James, South Carolina, was greatly affected by a cough, hoarseness, and sorcness of the lungs, and on using a bottle of this medicine found permanent relief.

Extract of a Certificate from the Rev. Dr. Babcock, late President of the Waterville College, Maine.

"From intimate personal acquaintance with Dr. D. Jayne, a regular student of the Medical University of Pennsylvania, and an experienced, successful practitioner of medicine, I was prepared to appreciate the numerous testimonials in favor of his different medical preparations, much more highly than the great majority of those which are extensively eulogised. On trial of them in my own family, and some of them personally, I have more than realized their favorable anticipations. They are what they profess to be—not quack nostrums—but skilfully prepared antidotes for some of the most afflictive of human diseases. I know that they are highly esteemed, and frequently prescribed, by some of the most respectable of the regular practitioners of medicine in this city and elsewhere, and I do not hesitate to commend them as a valuable addition to our materia medica, and a safe, as well as eminently useful remedy for the diseased."

RUFUS BADCOCK, Jr.

Philadelphia, 7th June, 1838.

The Rev. C. C. P. Crosby, late Editor of the American Baptist, writes as follows:

NEW YORK, June 15, 1838.

To Dr. Jayne—Dear Sir: I have made use of your Expectorant, personally and in my family, for the last six years with great benefit. Indeed I may consider my life prolonged by the use of this valuable medicine, under the blessing of God, for several years. I may say almost as much in the case of my wife, and also of the Rev. Mr. Tinson, of the Island of Jamaica. For all cases of cough, inflamation of the chest, lungs, and throat, I do most unhesitatingly recommend this as the best medicine I have ever tried. My earnest wish is, that others afflicted as I have been, may experience the same relief, which I am persuaded they will, by using your Expectorant.

Extract of a certificate from the Rev. Mr. Bradford.

Dr. Jayne—Dear Sir—My child, owing to exposure, when recently coming up the Ohio, was attacked by that horrible malady, croup. We landed in the night at Beaver Point, and when our fears were alarmed, least the hoarse, sepulchral cough was the forerunner of death, we gave him a teaspoonful of the "Expectorant" (a bottle of which you presented me with when in Philadelphia) and applied some liniment to the throat and breast; and before many minutes the hoarseness was gone, the child breathed freely and slept sweetly. Owing to these circumstances it cannot be wondered at why I have so high an opinion of Dr. Jayne's medicine, and why I advise every family to keep it on hand ready for any emergency.

ARTHUR B BRADFORD,

Pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Darlington, Pa.

June 9th, 1839.

Numerous other certificates might be added, but the above are considered sufficient evidence of its great usefulness.

Dr. Jayne's office is No. 20 South Third street, Philadelphia, where all orders will be promptly attended to. Price $1.

Orwigsburg Academy.

THE Trustees of this Institution, respectfully informs their neighbours and the public generally that the Academy is now open for the reception of Pupils from all parts of the country. Its situation is one of the most healthful and pleasant in the state—there is nothing within its vicinity to draw youth from the path of Morality—every thing is calculated to entice Pupils from abroad.

The principal instructor is Mr. P. B. CARTER, late of Dickinson College, and they feel assured that he may be able to give general satisfaction to those who may be disposed to patronize the Institution.—In consequence of receiving the state annuity, the price of Tuition has been much reduced, and no pains have been spared in providing every thing which may add to the comfort and advancement of the scholar.

The course of study and the plan of instruction, are the same with those of the older Academies of our state; but studies immediately connected with the business of life, and the intercourse of society, will constitute a prominent department.

Application for admission may be made to either of the subscribers, Trustees of the Institution.
