

MEMORIES.

Stand with the cypress shade, With the blue bright sky above thee, With thy hopes all lowly laid, And the heart cold that could love thee; And think, as the warm tears start, And addend thoughts come o'er thee, Of that cold, yet changeless heart, And the bitter world before thee.

The Blood has hitherto been considered by Empirics and others, as the great regulator of the human system, and such is the devotedness of the adherents to that erroneous doctrine, that they content themselves with the simple possession of this fallacious opinion, without enquiring into the primary sources from whence Life, Health, and Vigor emanate, and which are the true regulators of the system, and the cause of all diseases, and the cause of all the ravages of death-rooted maladies. Under these convictions, at the expense of years of close application, the doctor has discovered a medicine whose searching powers are irresistible, and in prescribing it is with a knowledge of its being a radical cure in the various diseases already mentioned, and which is applied in the most critical cases, but he does not intend to prescribe to a supernatural agency, although from positive proofs within the knowledge of hundreds, he is prepared to show, that when every other earthly remedy has been given up.

HUNT'S BOTANIC PILLS. The extraordinary success which has attended the use of HUNT'S BOTANIC PILLS, is the best evidence of their superior virtues. They have been the means of raising a host of languishing patients from the bed of affliction, as is clearly evinced in the following CERTIFICATES.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion Effectually Cured. Mr. Wm. Tucker, having lately been restored to a sound state of health, through the efficacy of DR. HUNT'S BOTANIC PILLS, writes the following certificate, which he had so long suffered. The symptoms were—a painful obstruction, with constant rejection of food, head ache, palpitation of the heart, loss of spirits, a troublesome dry cough, dizziness, tightness at the chest, and a general debility, and a sense of pain in the side, loins, and shoulders, accompanied with much languor and debility. These affections, together with an unusual degree of flatulence, brought on such a state of extreme weakness, as to prevent him from attending to his business, and his health appeared lost beyond recovery. His friends and relatives became alarmed at the melancholy prospect, and strongly recommended HUNT'S BOTANIC PILLS—they were administered, and in a few days produced astonishing relief, and finally realized a perfect restoration to sound health. WILLIAM TUCKER.
