Read the following letter from Pattsford, Monroe co. Nov. 9, 1839. Mr. John M Winslow, Druggist.

Dear Sir : I have been for a series of years afflict ed with an affection of the Lungs, and a hard cough, and have many times arose in the morning as com pletely exhausted by excessive coughing during the night as a person would be by a hard days' labor I have tried most of the popular remedies of the day, but never found relief until 1 met with your Bal-am of Horehound. All the other remedies or paltatives that I have used, leave the bowels in a congested state, while yours leave them soluble and free. This I consider a great desideratum. On taking a dose of your Balsain when going to bed, I rest quietly through the night, and my sleep is retreshing. I take great pleasure in recommending your Balsam of Horehound to all those afflicted with pulmonary complaints or any disease appertaining to the lungs, and I take this opportunity to thank you for the great relief and beacht I have experienced through your instrumentality. SOOTHINC SYRUP, FOR CHILDREN.

To Mothers and Nurses

THE passage of the teeth through the gums produces its sleep, sud spasnes in peculiar parts; the child shricke Philadelphia. with extreme violence, and thiusts its fingers into its mouths' If these precursary symptoms are not speedily alleviated, spasmodic convulsions universally supervents and soon cause the dissolution of the infant. If mothers who have their hitle babes afflicted with these distress-ing symptons, would apply the celebrated American Soothing Syrup, which has preserved hundreds of iofants when thought pust recovery. from being suddenly attack-when thought past recovery, from being suddenly attack-ed with that stall malady convulsions. This infallible remedy has preserved hundreds when thought past recovery, from convulsions. As soon as the Syrup is rubbed on the gums, the child will recover. This preparation is so innocent, so efficacious, and so pleasant, that no child will refuse to lettis gums be rubbed with it. When infants are at the age of four months, though there is no appearance of teeth, one bottle of the Syrup should never be without the Syrup in the nursery where there are young children, for if a child wakes in where there are young children, for if a child wakes in the night with the pain in the gums, the Syrop immediately gives case, by opening the pores and healing the gums; thereby preventing Convulsions, Feyers, &c. bEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.
