GENERAL HARRISON.

The Cincinnatti Republican of Saturday last

General Harrison arrived in this city this morn ing fron North Bend in excellent health. A little accident occurred to him yesterday, which shows that he is not quite so de screpit as his enemies represent him. He was riding over a part of his farm, through which the tunnel of the Whitewater Canal passes, in a place which seemed as smooth and as well covered with grass as any other part of the field; suddenly he felt his horse sinking, and thought he was about to fall; the General sprang from him and alighted upon the firm ground, and the horse fell | States "-Continued. from 14 to 20 feet into a kind of sink hole, caused by the tunnelling beneath. The General escaped without the slightest injury."

The Cincinnatti Gazette of Monday has the following:

"PRESIDENT HARRISON arrived in this city on Saturday last, in perfect health, in time to receive the congratulations of his friends in the evening."

The Judgment of the West .- The three adjoi ing states, Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana, the state of Gen. Harrison's residence, and the two neighboring at it is, will give an aggregate Harrison majority of sixty thousand votes. What an emphatic rebuke to the present administration, whose officers, high and low. have been exerting their utmost abilities to mystify public opinion, and make the worst appear the better cipse! What a commentary on the slanders and atrocious falsehoods, with which the administration press has for ten months grouned, against the character and services, the name and fame, of Gen. Harrison! What a thundering - certificate'2 is this of three mighty states, who know him best, and know him thoroughly of the exalted worth and high qualities, of the People's candidate for the Presidency! The noblest spirit which our country ever produced and honored, might well be proud of such a certificate.—Bult. Patriot.

REVERSES OF FORTUNE. The United States Marshall who has just completed the Census of Cincinnatti, mentions these incidents:

. I met a man who had ruined himself by intemperange, and was subsisting on charity, that I knew in Pittsburgh in the year 1815, owner of a fine proporty worth $50,000 at the time. The property alone, I have no doubt, would since have brought

I found in the person of a day laborer in one of our foundries, a man who had once owned a large iron establishment, in Scotland, on the Carron side. He had become involved with others, and rendered thereby insolvent. My sympathies were here the more strongly excited from the simple dignity which forbore repining or complaint the family manifested in the case.

I found also the widow of a distinguished professor in an Eastern College, who was at the time eating her humble supper with her daughter, under such circumstances of penury, that their very table was formed of a board laid across an old barrel!

I have found in the city two cases of disparity of age between the oldest and youngest brother of notice. In one instance the oldest brother was 69, the younger 25. The other when the father was living, and aged 73 years, one brother was 46 years of age, and the other 2.

October 10 ALDIE'S SELECT CIRCULATING LIBRA-RY AND MONTHLY JOURN ALOF POLITE LITERATURE—The proprietor of this popular and well known periodical has the gratification of replying to the many affectionate inquiries after its resumption, and announces to his kind friends and patrons—friends and patrons in the true meaning of the words—that he will resume the publication next January. Restored by a beneficent Providence once more to active life, he a beneficent Providence once more to active life, he hopes again to be able to give that superintendence to the publication which was his pride and pleasure for seven years. He anticipates, with inexpressible satisfaction, the renewal of associations with thousands of families, with either of which an acquaintance is an honor. During his protracted indisposition, the intensity of suffering was greatly mitigated by the generous expressions of sympathy and regard received from his kind hearted patrons; and the gloom and tedium of a sick room were much lightened by the rays of genuine friendship emitted from every quarter. This egotism he hopes will be judged of mildly—he certainly he is no wish to make a display—but the impulse of grateful acknowledgement for such disinterested kindness was irrepressible, and he could not announce the re-appearance of the beneficent Providence once more to active life, he ole, and he could not announce the re-appearance of the work without yielding to it.

To these friends he addr sees himself, solicitous for their continued support, and hopes to have the Library-once more introduced among their families, see it hon once more introduced among their families, see it hos ored again with a place on their centre tables, and become a welcome weekly visiter. He is at the same time very destrous to extend his acquaintance and form new friends.

From the arrangements made, dictated by experience, From the arrangements made, dictated by experience, the Library, at is believed, will in every respect be improved. The type will be more distinct, the monthly rheet continued and a weekly cover beside. The cover will be made so as to avoid the extra postage. The monthly Journal he hopes to make a shreet of abiding interest, so combining original and selected articles, of foreign and domestic literature, science and art, and from such a source of respectibility as to make it a work of such a source of respectability, as to make it a work of authority and reference.

The regularity of its former publication, not a failure in seven years, will be taken as a guarantee for the future punctuality of the Library; but there is only one way to make that permanent, viz. by paying in advance. This is an indespensable pre requisite from all at a distance. The losses by deviating from this rule formerly are too heavy to be forgotten soon, and a little reflection may satisfy any one of the responsableness of the request. The reasons are too obvious, indeed, to require much discussion. Five dollars are all that a subscriber risks but the publisher risks thousands by crediting. The publisher is in a city and can be reached without trouble. A subscriber lives perhaps a thousand miles off; and how is he to be reached? It might cost six times the amount to collect the trifle. Parment in advance, then, as may be perceived, is a reasonable request and sad exercises compels the proprietor to make it absolute. The few who paid in advance for 1840, will be supplied for 1841, unless otherwise ordered. for 1841, unless otherwise ordered.

e of names is respectfully urged so as to enable the proprietor to make proper calcula-tions about the quantity to be printed, as he will print very few over the number absolutely subscribed for To this he would call particular attention.

THIS well known Anti-Dysenteric and Worm Medicine has proved successfully these twelve years past, and is universally acknowledged by all who have tried it, to be far superior to any other medicine ever employed in the discases for which it is recommended. It is perfectly safe, and no child will refuse to take it.

Worms being especially apt to infest persons of debilitated digestive organs and emaciated constitutions, much muchief is often done by the ordinary worm medicines, which generally consists of the strongest purgetives, calomel, that destroyer of the constitution, bitters, pink root, spirits of, turpentine, wormssee oil dec. To Articles of this kird may destroy worms, but they debilitate the stomech, and o'ten materially injure the general health, without removing the cause. Swaim's Vermifuge has the peculiar advantage of removing the vermifuge has the peculiar advantage of removing the general health, without removing the cause. Swaim's Vermifuge has the peculiar advantage of removing the cause of the worms, by giving vigoriand healthy action to the stomach, bowels and organs of digestion, thereby relieving measure count. Th's medicin c, by invigorating the internal functions strengthening the organs of digestion, and removing the primary cause which creates merbid secretions, will relieve Bowel Complaints, Cholic, Dysentery, Despensia, and the whole train of billary affections, Sick Medadehe, Acidity of the Stomach, Foul Breath, Biceding Piles, &c. It is an antidote in the early stage of Fever and Cholera Morbus.

As ge teral Family Medicine, it stands unrivaled, as As general family Medicine, it stands unrivated, as the applicable to most of the diseases to which children are subject. Swam's Vermitage will be found of some utility to persons who accisionally indulge in the convivality of the table; a dose taken before dinner will anticipate the effects of acidity of the stomach, not unfrequently produced by wine. In the neglect of this however, a dose in the morning or the following morning will, in most instances, water at the past of Saint will, in most instances, restore the tone of the Families resident in the country, and insolated in a measure from medical advice, travellers journeying to the far west, or bound to distant ports, seminaries and all public institutions and charitable associations will find this remedy constantly at hand, of great utility.
