. A Valuable Receipt .- At a meeting of the London Medical Society, Dr. Blake stated that he was able to cure the most desperate cases of toothache, (unless the disease was connected with theumattem) by the application of the following remedy to the decayed tooth : alum reduced to an impainable powder, 2 drachms; nitrous spirits of ether, 7 drachms. Mix and apply them to the tooth.

The Patriot Son of a large family.—The Elec. toral Messenger from Indiana is Col. M. G.C. Clark Col. C. was with Harrison at the Maumee and Tip pecanoe, and has been a resident of Indiana, since the period when there were but six inhabitants within its territorial boundary. But what is most remarkable, he is one of twenty-nine sons and two daughters by the same father and mother? This we reckon, will be hard to beat .- Detroit Daily Advertiser.

Da. WISTAR'S Balsam of Wild-Cherry, THE CELEBRATED REMEDT FOR Diseases of the Lungs.

NUMEROS remedies have been offered and puffed into notice for DISEASES OF THE LUNGS, some of which has undoubtedly been found very useful but of all that have hitherto been known, it must be universally acknowledged there is none that has ever proved as successful as the "BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY" Such indeed are the astonishing restorative and healing properties of this BALSAM, that even in the worst forms of CONSUMPTION, when the patient has suffered the most distressing cough, violent topic. tient has suffered the most distressing cough, violent pain them has somered the most distressing cough. violent pain in the chest, difficulty of breathing, night sweats, bleeding of the lungs, &c and when the most esteemed remedies of our Pharmacopias had failed to afford any relief, and when Botanic, Homepathic, and numerous other remwhen Botanic, Homepatanic, and numerous other remedies, had been used for many months in vain, this invaluable remedy has checked every symptom, and been productive of the most astonishing relief. In the early stages of the disease, proceeding from neglected colds, termed Catarrahl Consumption, it has been used with undeviating success, and in many instances, when this disease segmed to have marked its victim for an this disease seemed to have marked its victim for ar early grave, the use of this medicine has arrested every symptom, and restored the lungs to a state of perfec-

In that form of CONSUMPTION, so prevalent amongst delicate young females, commonly termed debil-ity or 'going into a decline,' a complaint with which thousands are lingering, it has also been used with sur-prising success, and not only possesses the power of checking the progress of this alarming disease, but at the same time strengthens and invigorates the whole system more effectually than any remedy we have ever

DTLIVER COMPLAINT-In diseases of the Liver, particularly when attended with a cough, indigestion or wandering pains in the side, it has also proved very efficacious, and cured many cases of this kind after the most powerful remedies had failed.

On ASTHMA—In this complaint it also been used in numerous instances with the most singular success. It opens the chest, rendering the breathing perfectly free, arrests the cough, and will seldom fail to give permanent relief.

BRONCHITIS -- As a remedy in all Bronichial affections of the throat, attended with a hoarseness, cough or sear in the throat, it will also be found a very effectual

COUGHS AND COLDS—In common coughs and colds, that prevail so extensively throughout the winter, it will be found much more effectual than any remedy in use, and when colds settle upon the lungs. causing an inflamation with pains in the breast, difficulty or shortness of breathing, &c. the use of this Balsam will suppress such symptoms immediately, and at the same e prevent the lungs from becoming more seriously

CROUP AND WHOOPING COUGH.—In these complaints, so common to young children, this Balsam will be found much superior to the Paregoric Elixer Syrup of Squills, and the various COUGII MIXTURES n common use, as it is entirely free from any thing the least injurious, and may at all times be given to children with perfect safety, and with the certainty of its affording hem speedy relief.

IT AS A FAMILY MEDICINE for many other complaints, this Balsam will also be found particularly useful Besides having proved an invaluable remedy in all Pulmonary affections, it exerts a powerful influence over many diseases depending on a deprayed condition of the system, and those who have suffered from the indiscriminate use of Mercury, or other deleterious drugs, that are often compounded in different quack nostrums, will find it a remedy of great value, presessing the power of strengthening and invigorating the whole system more effectual than any other medicine we pos-

CAUTION TO PURCHASERS—As this medicine has already acquired great celebrity, there may probably be some attempts to imitate it, and deceive the public with a spurious mixture, to prevent which I would wish all purchasers to observe the following marks of the genuing Balsam. It is put up in bottles of two sizes each, having the words WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, PHILADA, blown in the glass, and a label on the front with the signature of HENRY WISTAR M. ## Dr. Leidy's Medicated Extract of Sarsaparilla.

To the World. F you wish to make use of Sarsaparilla, be advised to try DR. LEIDY'S MEDICATED EXTRACT OF A try DR. LEICY'S MEDICATED EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA. It is positively the strongest preparation in existence, one bottle of it (which costs but one dollar) being equal to one gallon of Syrup, as it is usually prepared in the shops, and equal to two bottles of any other extract. Dr. Leidy begs leave to state that he himself prepares it, and can consequently vouch for its grand of the propagate. The strong bout the H. its strength. Numerous Physicians throughout the United States, give it the preference over all other preparations of Sarsaparilla, both from the fact of its superior strength (consequently efficacious when employed) and from the circumstance of its being prepared by a regular Apothecary and Physician, attested by Dr. Physic, Chapman, Jackson, Horner, Gibson, Dewees, James,

It is useless here to name the numerous affections wherein Sarsaparilla is considered the sole Specific.— Suffice it to say, it is recommended by all Physicians throughout the world, in diseases of Skin, Bones, Liver, &c , and particularly all diseases produced by impurities of the blood and animal fluids. As a purifier of the blood, it is at all times (and particularly in the Spring and Fall) invaluable. In warm chmates, throughout the Summer Season no person should neglect using itocca-sionally Numerous certificates and recommendations from Physicians, and others accompany the directions
