A Politician .- Peter Brush was in a dilapidated condition, out at the elbows, out at the knees, out of spirits, and leaning out of the window of a country grocery an 'out and outer" in every respect. For some time he had been silent and absorbed in deep thought, which he relieved at intervals by spitting through his teeth, and scratching his head. At length, heaving a deep sigh, he spoke : "They used to tell me, put not your trust in price ces-and I haven't. None of 'em ever wanted to borrow nothing from me. Princes! pooh! put not your trust in politicianers—them's my sentiments. There's no two mediums about that. Haven't I been serving my country these five years like a patriot; going to barbacues, and getting as blue as blazes; taking papers on both sides, and never paying for em: fighting at every election, and getting licked too can't I count fifteen broken noses, and heaps of black eyes, got for the good of our country and the popularity of our alleged rights, all for what? Why for nawthin. If any good has come out of it, the country has put the whole of it in her pocket, and swindled me out of my carnings! Republics is ungrateful. I did't want no reward for my services. I only wanted to be tonk care of, and have nothing. to do. Being took care of was the main thing: Republics is ungrateful, may I be awaggered if they "Oh, Pete, do shut up," said Jo Snubbs, his

Shamokin Coal Land

FOR SALE.

ONE undivided half part of two tracts of land, situate on Shamokin Creek, Northumberland county, State of Pennsylvania, in the warranted names of John Brady, and Robert Gray, containing eight hundred and sixty-eight acres and allowances; these lands are adjoining the flourishing town of Shamukin, (destined to become a second Pottsville) they abound with both the red ash and the white ash coal; and on the lower tract iron ore, of the kid. ney species, has been found in considerable quantities. The Pottsville and Danville railroads runs nearly through the middle of both tracts, and is in complete order from Sunbury to the centre of the gray tract, thus giving them the command of all the markets on the Susquehanna, (and now that the canal is finished to the tide water) of all the markets on the Chesapeake.

For Children, this Balsam is of inestimable value. It is a speedy remedy for the Whooping Cough and Croupt and affords certain relief in Bowel Complaints. Choir., Tething. &c. It is pleasant to the taste, and may be safely given to the tenderest infant and should be kept at all times in every family, as it is much better for the complaints incident to children than Paregoric, Godfrey's Cordial, or the Cordials so commonly used, as hundreds in this City bayetestified.

Cordial or the Cordials so commonly used, as hundreds in this City have testified.

It is now about five years since this medicine was extensively introduced in this City, and section of the cointry, since which time it has constantly increased in public favour, and it is at the present time the most popular Cough Medicine, in most of the Northern and Western States. More than Two Thousand Five Hundred Bottles have been retriled annually, at the subscribers counter, for the last two years, and although five other Druggistein the City, are constantly supplied with the article, his sales are daily increasing.
