CONSUMPTION

DR. WISTAR'S Batsam of Wild-Cherry, THE CELEBRATED REMEDT FOR Diseases of the Lungs.

NUMEROS remedies have been offered and puffed into notice for DISEASES OF THE LUNGS some of which has and onlytedily been found very useful but of all that have hitherto been known, it must be universally acknowledged there is none that has overproved as successful as the "BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY" Such indeed are the as onishing restorative and healing properties of this BALSAM, that even in the warst forms of CONSUMPTION. when the patient has suffered the most distressing cough wident pain in the chest, difficulty of breathing, night sweats, bleeding of the lungs, &c and when the most esteemed remedies of our Pharmacopias had falled to afford any telief, and when Botanic, Homopathic, and numerous other runwhen Botanic, Honicepathic, and numerous other rum-edies, had been used for many months in vain, this invaluable remedy has checked every symptom, and been productive of the most astonishing relief. In the early stages of the disease, proceeding from neglected colds, termed Catarraht Consumption, it has been used with understaling success, and in many instances, when this disease, seemed to have marked its victim for an early grave, the use of this medicine has arrested every in, and restored the lungs to a state of perfect

In that form of CONSUMPTION, so prevalent amongst delicate young females, commonly termed debil-ity or 'going into a decline,' a complaint with which thousands are lingering, it has also been used with sur-prising success, and not only possesses the power of checking the progress of this alarming disease, but at the same time strengthens and invigorates the whole system more effectually than any remedy we have ever

ETLIVER COMPLAINT-In diseases of the Liver. particularly when attended with a cough, indigestion or wandering pains in the side, it has also proved very efficacious, and cured many cases of this kind after the nost powerful remedies had failed.

SO ASTHMA—In this complaint it also been used. in numerous instances with the most singular success. It opens the chest, rendering the breathing perfectly free, arrests the cough, and will seldom fait to give per-remedy, and will mostly afford immediate relief if used at the commencement of the attack.

IF COUGHS AND COLDS—In common coughs and colds, that prevail so extensively throughout the winter, it will be found much more effectual than any remedy in use, and when colds settle upon the lungs, causing an inflamation with pains in the breast, difficulty or shortness of breathing, &c. the use of this Balann will suppress such symptoms immediately, and at the same me prevent the lungs from becoming more seriously

II CROUP AND WHOOPING COUGH In these complaints, so common to young children, this Balsam will be found much superior to the Paregoric Eliker Syrup of Squills, and the various COUGH MIXTURES n common use, as it is entirely free from any thing the least injurious, and may at all times be given to children with perfect safety, and with the certainty of itsalfording them speedy relief

IF AS A FAMILY MEDICINE for many other complaints, this Balsam will also be found particularly useful Besides having proved an invaluable remedy in all Pulmonary affections, it exerts a newerful influence over many discasses depending on a depraved condition of the system, and those who have suffered from the indiscriminate use of Mercury. or other deleterious drugs, that are often compounded in different quack non-trums, will find it a remedy of great value, pressessing the power of strengthening and invigorating the whole system more effectual than any other medicine we pos-

CAUTION TO PURCHASERS—As this medicine has already acquired great celebrity, there may probably be some attempts to imitate it, and deceive the public with a spurious mixture, to prevent which I wor wish all purchasers to observe the following marks of the genuine Balsam. It is put up in bottles of two sizes each, having the words WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, PHILADA, blown in the glass, and a label on the front with the signature of HENRY WISTAR, M. D. without which none are genuine.
