O, the givis are the fairest of posies that bloom In the world's weedy garden, this side of the tomb! But like the bright rose that soon withers and failes. They must either get married, or be dried up old maids

They are lovely, they're charming-they're fair and they're frail, As the sweet summer lillies that garnish the vale; In Fashion's gay temple they'll flutter and flirt,
And barter their beauty for a fool or a squirt.

The delicate creatures! they sweeten life's tea, And cause our dull moments with sadness to fice: They see gustier us honey from poisenous things— But the darn'd little insects are furnished with stings! t love them, though, still—and wherever I go I care not for trouble, nor sorrow, nor wo, So long as bright roses are sent from above For the girls to bind up in a bundle of love!

Mossat's Life Pills, and Phœnix Bitters. HE perfectly safe, uncrring, and successful treat ment of almost every species of disease by the use of MOFFAT'S LIFE MEDICINES, is no longer a patter of doubt, as a reference to the experience of many thousand patients will satisfactorily prove. Dur-ing the present month alone, nearly one hundred cases have come to the knowledge of Mr. Moffat, where the patient has, to all appearance, effected a permaneat cure by the exclusive and judicious use of the Life Me-dicines—some eight or ten of these had been consider-ed beyond all hope by their medical attendants. Such happy results are a source of great pleasure to Mr. M.

and inspire him with new confidence to recommend the use of his medicines to his fellow-citizens. The LIFE MEDICINES are a purely VEGETABLE preparation. They are mild and pleasant in their operation, and at the same time thorough—acting rapidl upon the secretions of the system—carrying off all acri-monious humors, and assimilating with and purifying the blood. For this reason, in aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, the Life Medicines will give relief in a shor ter space of time than any other prescription.
