"Devil." "Your worship." "Stir the coals."

"Yer, yer 'oner, vot helse" "Bring us a box of Havennes, light a taper, drop the curtain, close the door, stick a hat through the broken pane, hand the spittoon and a pair of slippers, and now absquatulate."

"And took here-if any body calls to pay a bill show him up; but if any body calls to collect a bill -the heditor hant hat 'ome.' All right-an easy conscience is an agreeable master-so now carry your head out of the room and make your feet follow." "Yes, cir."

LEGACY TO THE DOKE OF RICHHOND.—The New Orleans Bulletin says: Some time ago we published a notice of a judgment of the Court of Probates of New Orleans, refusing to sanction the legacy of one hundred thou sand dellare, lest by our deceased fellow citizen, Alexander Milne, to the town of Lochabers in Scot land, of which the Duke of Richmond was the seignoral Lord. The decision was reviewed yesterday by our Spreme Court. The principles upon which the opinion of the Court below was based were ela borately investigated. The decision of the Cour of Probates was reversed, and the Duke of Richmond, as the legal representatives of the town of Luchabers, was declared capable of receiving the

January 2, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE The most useful Family Medicine ever of fered to the Public.

THIS well known Anti-Dysenteric and Worm Men icine has proved successfully these twelve year past, and is universally acknowledged by all who have ried it, to be far superior to any other medicine eve ployed in the diseases for which it is recommend is perfectly safe, and no child will refuse to take it. Worms being especially opt to infest persons of debil-ated digestive organs and emaciated constitutions, such mischief is often done by the ordinary worm medines, which generally consists of the strongest purga ves, calomel, that destroyer of the constitution, bitter nk root, spirits of turpentine, wormseed oil &c. &c. Articles of this kind may destroy worms, but they de-bilitate the stomoch, and o'ten materially injure the general health, without removing the cause. Swaim's vermifuge has the peculiar advantage of removing the general health, without removing the cause. Swaim's vermifuge has the peculiar advantage of removing the cause of the worms, by giving vigour and healthy action to the stomach, bowels and organs of digestion, thereby relieving measles crown, hopping cough, &c. The elieving measles, croup, hooping cough, &c. This nedicine, by invigorating the internal functions strenght-ming the organs of digestion, and removing the primary which creates morbid secretions, will reliev owel Complaints, Cholic, Dysentery, Despensia, and the whole train of biliary affections. Sick Headache, cidity of the Stomach, Foul Breath, Bleeding Piles, It is an antidotein the early stage of Fever and

As general Family Medicine, it stands unrivaled, as As general ramily Medicine, it signed universely, as applicable to most of the diseases to which children re subject. Swaim's Vermituge will be found of some tility to persons who occasionally indulge in the convention of the table; a dose taken before dinner will niticipate the effects of acidity of the stomach, not unequently produced by wine. Balsam of Wild-Cherry, THE CELEBRATED REMEDY FOR Diseases of the Lungs.

NUMEROS remedies have heen offered and puffed into notice for DISEASES OF THE LUNGS some of which has undoubtedly been found very usefu but of all that have hitherto been known, it must be but of all that have hitherto been known, it must be universally acknowledged there is none that has ever proved as successful as the "BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY" Such indeed are the astonishing restorative and healing properties of this BALSAM, that even in the worst forms of CONSUMPTION, when the patient has suffered the most distressing cough, violent pain in the chest, difficulty of breathing, night sweats, bleeding of the lungs, fic. at d when the most esteemed remedies of our Pharmacopias had failed to afford any relief, and when Botanic, Homepathic, and numerous other remedies, had been used for many months, in vain, this situaluable remedy has checked every symptom, and cotes, nad been used for many months in vain, this invaluable remedy has checked every symptom, and been productive of the most astonishing relief. In the early stages of the disease, proceeding from neglected colds, termed Catarrahl Consumption, it has been used with undeviating success, and in many instruces, when this disease seemed to have marked its victim for as early grave, the use of this medicine has reserved over early grave, the use of this medicine has arrested every om, and restored the lungs to a state of perfect

Or ASTHMA—In this complaint it also been used

n numerous instances with the most singular success. It opens the chest, rendering the breathing perfectly free, arrests the cough, and will seldom fail to give permanent selicit manent relief.

30 BRONCHITIS.—As a remedy in all Bronichial gaffections of the throat, attended with a hoarseness, cough for soar in the throat, it will also be found a very effectual remedy, and will mostly afford immediate relief if used at the commencement of the attack.

TO COUGHS AND COLDS—In common coughs and colds, that prevail so extensively throughout the winter, it will be found much more effectual than any remedy in use, and when colds settle upon the lungs, causing an inflamation with pains in the breast, difficulty or shortness of breathing, &c. the use of this Balsam will suppress such symptoms immediately, and at the same time prevent the lungs from becoming more seriously CROUP AND WHOOPING COUGH.—In these

CROUP AND WHOOPING COUGH.—In these complaints, so common to young children, this Balsam will be found much superior to the Paregoric Elizer Syrup of Squills, and the various COUGH MIXTURES in common use, as it is entirely free from any thing the least injurious, and may at all times be given to children with perfect safety, and with the certainty of its affording them speedy relief.

ILT AS A FAMILY MEDICINE for many other complaints, this Balsam will also be found particularly useful Besides having proved an invaluable remedy in all Pulmonary affections, it exerts a pt werful influence over many diseases depending on a depraved condition of the system, and those who have suffered from the indiscriminate use of Mercury, or other deleterious indiscriminate use of Mercury, or other deleterious drugs, that are often compounded in different quack nostrums, will find it a remedy of great value, possessing the power of strengthening and invigorating the whole system more effectual than any other medicine we possesses.

CAUTION TO PURCHASERS—As this medicine has already acquired great celebrity, there may prob-ably be some attempts to imitate it, and deceive the iblic with a spurious mixture, to prevent which I would wish all purchasers to observe the following marks of the genuine Balsam. It is put up in bottles of two sizes each, having the words WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, PHILADA, blown in the glass, and WISTAR, PHILADA, blown in the glass, and a label on the front with the signature of HENRY WISTAR, M. D., without which none are genuine.
