A RECOMMENDATION. When a Christian People feel themselves to be overtaken by a great public calemity, it becomes them to humble themselves under the dispensation of Divine Providence, to recognize His rightcous government over the children of men, to acknowl-odge His goodness in the past, as well as their own unworthiness, and to supplicate His merciful protection for the figure.

President of the United States, so soon after his elevation to that high office, is a bereavement peculiarly calculated to be regarded as a heavy afflic-tion, and to impress all minds with a sense of the uncertainty of human things, and of the depen-dence of Nations, as well as of individuals, upon our Iteavenly Parent.

I have thought, therefore, that I should be acting in conformity with the general expectation and feelings of the community, in recommending, as I now do, to the People of the United States, of evenow do, to the People of the United States, of every religious denomination, that, according to their several mode and forms of worship, they observe a day of Fasting and Prayer, by such religious services as may be suitable on the occasion, and I recommend Friday, the fourteenth day of May root, for that warness, to this and that on that next, for that purpose, to the end that, on that day, we may all, with one accord, join humble and reverential approach to Him, in whose hands we are, invoking him to inspire us with a proper spirit and temper of heart and mind under these frowns of His providence, and still to bestow. His gracious benedictions upon our government and our country JOHN TYLER.

WASHINGTON, April 13, 1841. CIRCULAR.

To the Episcopalians in Pennsylvania and Delaware.

The President of the United States having recommended that Friday, May 14th, be observed as a day of Fasting and Prayer, for the heavy affliction brought on this nation by the death of William Henry Harrison, late President of the United States, so soon after his elevation to that high office: I carnestly request all persons belonging to the Protestant Episcopal Church in Pennsylvania and in Delaware, to comply with the said Recommendation. Anil, in conformity with Canon 47 of the General Convention, I hereby set forth the following services for that occasion.

Phila. April 15th, 1841.

The Morning and Evening Prayer to be as usual, except as follows: MORNING PRAYER.

Proper Psalms-to be the Anthem in the Burial Service, taken from Psalms XXXIX. and XC. First Lesson. Job Xiv. Second Lesson. Rom. xi

Before the two final prayers in the Litany, the Special Prayer given below to be used. After the Collect for the fourth Sunday after Easter, the Special Collect printed below (from the Litdrgy of the Church of England) to be used. EVENING PRAYER. The third Selection of Palms.

First Lesson. Daniel it, 3 to 14 inclusive. Second Lesson. 1 Peter, ii, 13 to the end. The Special Collect to be used after the Collect for the day.

The Special Prayer to be used before the two finul prayers of Evening Service. SPECIAL PRAYER.

O Lord our God, who art the refuge of thy people, and the only support of nations, we acknowledge thy supreme dominion in all the blessings, and in all the sorrows, wherewith thou hast visited our country. Thy sovereign bounty gave us national existence and has in many ways exalted us. Thy sovereign correction hath often overshadowed us with public gloom, and taught us that our only dependence is on thee. And now, O rightcous God, thou hast again hid thyself, and covered our whole land mourning, in removing from us the late President of the United States, him whom thy providence had recently set over us, as thy chief minister for our civil welfare. We confess that thine hand has brought this evil upon us. We confess that our sins have deserved this our bereavement of the common Fath- sons having claims against the said Thomas Ireer of the people. And we bow to thy judgment in land are requested to present them to the Dideep humiliation and reverence, with weeping hearts, rectors of the Poor for settlement, on or before the and contrite spirits; praying thee to sanctify our chastisement by the Holy Ghost, that it may yield in us the fruit of right-business, to thy glory, and our everlasting good.

Give thy benign and tender protection, O Lord, and thy eternal blessing, to the widow and all the family of the late President of the United States; and be to them their perpetual stay and comfort. Give thine especial protection, O Lord, and thy eternal blessing, to the President of the United States, and vouchsafe to uphold him in health, in strength, in wisdom, and in thy holy fear. Give thy protection, O Lord, and thy eternal blessing, to the Governor of this State, to the Governors of other States in this Union, and to all in civil au thority; and grant that they may rule faithfully over those committed to their charge. Give thy protection, O Lord, and thy eternal blessing, to the People of the United States; and make them always obedient to the spirit of order, unity and concord. And vouchsafe to give peace in our land and in all the earth, O Gracious God. We ask these things in the name and for the merits, of thy Son Jesus Christ, our blessed Lord and Columbine

Saviour .- Amen. SPECIAL COLLECT. O God, whose nature and property is ever to have mercy and to forgive receive our humble petitions; and though we be tied and bound with the chain of our sins, yet let the pitifulness of thy great mercy looses us, for the honour of Jesus Christ our Media tor and Advocate. Amen. N. B .- The Recommendation of the President may be read publicly in each of the churches, by the officiating minister, on Sunday, May 9th.

VOTE ON THE REVENUE BILL. The members of the House of Representatives voted as follows on the final passage of the Revenue Bill. The names of

A locolocos voting for the bill are in italics :-YEAS-Messrs. Andrews, Banks, Bard, Bell, Boal, Brummer, Chrisman, Church, Clark, Correy, Cortright, Cox, Cummina, Darsie, Dilworth. Douglas.
