The design of the work is to do good : to aid in the formation of character ; to estab-lish good principles : to cultivate right feelings : to furnish innocent amusement: to promote correct habits of thought and sentiment. Nor is the plan confined to these hmits: it is the purpose of the Editor to make the work useful in storing the mind with knowledge; in teaching the rules of behavior, and in pointing out the highways and by ways to success in life. In such a design, the religious and How dear to the taste are the nice, mellow peaches noral duties will not be overlooked.

To carry out the plan, it is deemed essential that the work should be interesting—that it should be a favorite with those for whose benefit it is designed. Accordingly, it will embrace a great variety of top-ratives, Anecdotes, Fables, and Allegories-nor will Poetry or Music be forgotten. Every available means of rendering the work useful, lively, and en-tertaining will be resorted to, and numerous embellishments and illustrations will be inserted. As a specimen of the work will be offered to the public in the first number, it is needless to say more than ample arrangements are made to bring out the work with punctuality, and in the best mechanical style. The editorial charge of it is to be committed to the Author of leter Parley's Tales, whose reputation is a sofficient pledge to the public that the present undertaking will be conducted in a Jonathan, did you read that are story about the manner to claim a share of patronage, especially at the hands of parents, teachers, guardians, and all purifier of the blood. It gives a tone and vigor to lebilitated constitutions, which invalids are unconcious of until they have experienced its effects. It is also-recommended in Diseases where the lungs and breast are supposed to be affected, and also where the constitution is broken down by the use of

THIS Medicine is particularly recommended at this season of the year, as an alterative and a purifier of the blood.

Mercury or Qainine; THIS MEDICINE has the singular fortune s just tribute to its great merit, of being reccommend. ed by the most celebrated Practitioners of Medicine in the United States and Europe ; whereas not one of the spurious mixtures, made in imitation of it, has the least support from the Medical Faculty. This fact offers an argument so plain and conclusive, that it needs only to be mentioned to enforce conviction. Swaim's Panacea is recommended to all those invalids for whom Physicians prescribe Sarsapatilla Syrops, Extracts, &c. Prepared at Swaim's Labaratory, Philadelphia. Sold by 8. Bannan, Agent for Schuylkill Coun-ty, and John S. C. Martin, Druggist, Centre Street Pottsville. September 12, 37-16
