CURIOUS MARRIAGE CUSTOM AMONG THE COSBACES. There are said to be no old maids among the Cossacks of Urkanine, since the custom allows the vottag women to choose their husbands. When a woman in the Urkaine feels a tender passion for a young man, she goes to his parent's house and says to him, 'be blessed of God.'. She then sits down, and addresses herself to the object of her affections in the following terms : Iran. Theodore, (or whatever else may be his name) the goodness I see written in your countenance is a sufficient assurance to me that you are capable of loving and ruling a wife : and excellent qualities encourage me to hope that you will make a good husband. It is the belief, that I have taken the resolution to come and beg of you with all due humility to necept me for your spoase.' She afterwards addresses the father and mother in words to the same effect, and solicits them earnestly to consent to the marriage. If she meets with a refusal, she answers, ' that she will not quit the house till she has married the object of her love.' If she be sufficiently persevering, and have patience to stay a 'ew days or weeks in their house, the parents are not only forced to give their consent, but frequently persuade their son to marry her. The young man, likewise, is generally moved by her perseverance and affection, and gradually accustoms himself to the idea of making her his wife, and at length consents. It is said that the parents never employ any force to compel her to leave their house, because they believe that by so doing they should draw down the vengeance of heaven upon their heads; and the girl's family would not fail to resent such an action as a grevious af. front.

FEMALE DUELIST .- The most celebrated female duelist was the actress Maupin, one of the performers at the Opera Serane, the famous fencing master, was one of her lovers, and from him she received many valuable lessons. Being insulted one day by an actor by the name of Dumeny, she called his out; but as he refused to give her satisfaction, she carried away his watch and his snuff-box as trophies of her victory. Another performer having presumed to effend her, on his declining a meeting, was obliged to kneel down before her and implore forgiveness. One evening at a ball, having behav. ed in a very rude manner to a lady, she was reques. ted to leave the room, which she did on the condi-tion that those gentlemen who had warmly espoused the offended lady's cause should accompany her. To this proposal they agreed : when, after a hard combat, she killed them all, and quistly returned to the ball-room. Lous XIV, granted her a pardon, and she withdrew to Brussels, where she became the mistress of the Elector of Bavarin. However, she soon after returned to the Parisan Opera, and died in 1707, at the age of thirty seven. Under the regency, a pistol meeting took place between the Marquis de Nesle and the Countess Polignac for the procession of the Due de Richelieu : and in more modern time, so late, indeed, as 1827. a Mad nme A-at St. Rambert, received a challenge to fight with pistols; and about the same period, a la day of Chateauroux, whose husband had received a in the face without resenting the insult, called out the offender, and fighting him with swords, sc. verily wounded him. EXTRAORDINARY GA-E OF SUICIDE.-Col. Pratt was callen yesterday to hold an inquest on the body of Daniel Savage, carpenter. Early in the morn-ing, yesterday, he purchased some arsenic, carried it hove, and exhibited it to his wife, telling her that he was going to take it, and asked for a tum-bler to mix it in. It's wife did not oppose his purpose, but ran up stairs to inform her neighbor, a Mrs. Lovett, that her " husband was going to take They both came down before he had prevo:son." pared the fatal draught, and looked on while he mixed and drank it. fla took the poison between six and seven o'clock in the morning, and atter suffering great and irremediable agony, died beeween twelve and one o'clack. He was fifty years of age. In reply to the natural question, by the coronor, why she did not prevent him from taking the poison, has wife said she "dared not oppose him "--meaning that she was so much afraid of his violence. He did not vomit from the effects of the arsenic until an hour after he drank it, when Dr. H. G. Clark was called to him. Six years ago, the deceased took a similar dose, but Dr. Clark was call ed immediately, and by prompt remedies succeed td in saving his life.

SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE The most useful Family Medicine ever of fered to the Public.

THIS well known Anti-Dysenteric and Worm Mcd-icine has proved successfully these twelve years past, and is universally acknowledged by all who have tried it, to be far superior to any other midicine ever employed in the diseases for which it is recommended It is perfectly safe, and no child will refuse to take it. Worms being especially apt to infest persons of debil-tated digestive organs and emaciated constitutions, much mischief is often done by the ordinary worm med-icines. Which generally consists of the strongest purgaicines, which generally consists of the strongest purga-tives, colomel, that destroyer of the constitution, bitters pink root, spirits of turpentine, wormseed oil &c. &c Articles of this kind may destroy worms, but they de-bilitate the stomach, and over materially injure the general health, without removing the cause. Swaim's Vermifuge has the peculiar advantage of removing the general health, without removing the cause. Swaim's Vermifuge has the peculiar advantage of removing the cause of the worms, by giving vigour and healthy action to the stomach, bowels and organs of digestion, thereby atliciting manales croup honning cough. Ac. This to the stomach, bowels and organs of digestion, thereby relieving measles, croup, hooping cough, &c. This medicine, by invigorating the internal functions strengh-ening the organs of digestion, and removing the primary cause which creates morbid secretions, will relieve Bowel Complaints, Cholic, Dysettery, Despepsia, and the whole train of biliary affections, Sick Headache, Acidity of the Stomach, Foul Breath, Bleeding Piles, &c. It is an antidotein the early stage of Fever and Cholers Morbus. Cholera Morbus.

As general/Family Medicine, it stands unrivaled, as As general Family Medicine, it stands unrivaled, as the applicable to most of the diseases to which children are subject. Swaim's Vermitage will be lound of some utility to persons who occasionally indulge in the con-vivality of the table; a dose taken before dinner will anticipate the effects of acidity of the stomach, not un-frequently produced by wine. In the neglect of this however, a dose in the morning or the following morning will, in most instances, restore the tone of the Stom-ach

ach. Families resident in the country, and insolated in a measure from medical advice, travellers journeying to the far west, or bound to distant ports, seminaries and all public institutions and charitable associations will find this remedy, constantly at hand, of great utility. Syphilis, and the host of painful, disagreeable, and hitherto incurable affections resulting therefrom, Rheumatism, Ulcerous Sores, White Swellings, Diseases of the Liver and Skin General Debility, Gc. and all Diseases arising from Impurity of Blood. this season of the year, as an alterative and a purifier of the blood. It gives a tone and vigor to debilitated constitutions, which invalids are unconcious of until they have experienced its effects. It is also recommended in Diseases where the lungs and breast are supposed to be affected, and also where the constitution is broken down by the use of Mercury or Quinine; THIS MEDICINE has the singular fortune a just tribute to its great merit, of being reccommend. ed by the most celebrated Practitioners of Mcdicine in the United States and Europe; whereas not one of the spurious mixtures, made in imitation of it, has the least support from the Medical Faculty. This intended to disabuse the public mind, in regard to fact offers an argument so plain and conclusive, that the many inisrepresentations so industriously cir. It needs only to be mentioned to enforce conviction. Swaim's Panacea is recommended to all those invalids for whom Physicians prescribe Sarsaparilla Syrups, Extracts, &c.
