Long life to Father Mathew. That noble priest of Cork May God preserve him stout and strong, And speed his glorious work ! For Ireland, old Ireland, this is a happy day, Huzza for Father Mathew now! Huzza! my boys

Let Bonaparte and Captain Rock Their deeds of blood display; But Father Mathew's victorie Are nobler for than they; He glories not in dead men's bones, In orphan's sighs or wi low's grouns

But Temporance, spreading fir and near, Throughout his native isl 'Pis this that glads his patries heart," This makes the angels shile; And all the saints in heaved above Pour blessings on his work of love.

The new Police may go to Poor fellows! what a pile They'll be a set of gentleme Parading through the cit; For not a drunken fight of row Will keep their fingers buff now.

The peclers they now shuf up shop: Our faction fight are o'es All Irishmen are brothers how, Weil squabble never mere. The lawyers may being up their wige; Their practice won't be worth two figs.

The surgeons, and the doctors, too, Are tender-bearted men But now that Father Mathew's come, We'll have no work for them; For brokon skulls and whiskey fever We banish from the landsfor ever.

The publican may close his trap, For whiskey there's no sale; -No more our brains and ignest gains We spend on beer and alo: No more our cash, like Cols we'll shower. To buy a coach for Johnhy Power.

Tru Dolla kept a publickhouse, He had a nice young flaughter; She dealt the glass with such a grace, A new plan! he bought her; And muffs and falls, and boas, too, Made her look bright while we looked blue.

At was the money that he spent That bought her new plan'; But mulls and fulls we'll buy no more For nice Miss Mady Anne; Nor waste our health on Ireland's curse Nor keep our bank in Dolin's purse;

The man that takes his honest gains, And throws them in the sea, We call him blockhead for his pains And say a fool is he But sure that fool is twice as bad Who drinks his eash to make him mad,

Good beef, and mutton becon, pork, Our hunger will distrm; Good linen, cloth, and calico Will keep our bodief warm; With joy our tra lesmen will look up, We've tossed away the poison cup.

'O'r li irvesta' woulth if i-more shall gild The brewer and disfiller; The baker is the man for us, And the jolly dusty findler . The nasty stuff we skilled of old Made us thin, has gry poor and cold,

We'll have good witches in our lobs, Good clicks behindrout doors; Lashings of good making my Good carpets on ouf illusts. Plenty of christening will be seen But funerals few and flar between!

Ye chandlers, glaziere carpenters -All men of hones: frade--It Father Matthew goes on thus, Your fortunes will be made. We'll be so tidy, snug and neat, When we the whiskey do defeat

For each shebeen we'll have a school, For each grim gail a college: Where the fell hangman plied his trade, We'll plant the tree of knowledge; And with the cash that made us brutes, We'll found mechanics' institutes.

Let all the staunch old temperance men Join the tectotal hand . From north to south from east to west, We'll conquer all the land. For Ireland, old Ireland, this is the happy day ! Huzza for Pather Mathew now! Huzza my boys!

buzza! To Cork, from Limerick and Conmel, Tralco and Herryfiane, Have thousands come to take the pledge. From drinking to abstain, Five and a half million Irishmen. Have vowed they thinc'er get drunk again From Galway's majurtains dark and high,

From Conemara & shore, From Arran's islessand Achill's cliffs. The Connaught people pour, Kilkenny's marble-streeted town Sends thousands upon thousands down

From Wexford's grey time-honoured walls, From "Bannows banks so fair," By steamer, coach, and Bian's car-From Waterfordfund Clare, From Holy Cross and wild Cloheen, From Bantry Bayland Skibbereen.

From Shannon's waves, Killarney's lakes, All take the road to Cork;
They come to Father Mathew's call, To speed his glirious work. For Ireland, old Ireland, this is the happy day ! Huzza for Father Mathew now! Huzza! my boys

"Why Bob! what's the matter ?" "Don't bother-celestial enjoyment's heavenly

" Enjoyment and delight !-celestial and heavenly !-why you're alrunk as David's sow, and you promised to reform !!" "So I did - so I did! - So I have - so I have! I'm drunk now with delight, to think what a glonous day the 4th ic !"

Dr. WISTAR'S Basam of Wild-Cherry, THE CELEBRATED REMEDY FOR Diseases of the Lungs.

NUMEROS remedies have been offered and ruffi d into notice for DISEASES OF THE LUNGS some of which has undoubtedly been found very usefu but of all that have hitherto been known, it must be universally acknowledged there is none that has ever proved as successful as the "BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY" Such indeed are the astonishing restorative and healing properties of this BALSAM, that even in the worst forms of CONSUMPTION, when the patient has suffered the most distressing cough, violent pain in the chest, difficulty of breathing, night sureats, bleeding of the lungs, &c and when the most esteemed remedies of our Pharmacopias had failed to afford any relief, and when Botanic, Homepathic, and numerous other remedies, had been used for many months in vain, this invaluable remedy has checked every symptom, and been productive of the most astonishing relief. In the been productive of the most astonishing relief. In the early stages of the disease, proceeding from neglected colds, termed Catarrahl Consumption, it has been used with undeviating success; and in many instances, when this disease seemed to have marked its victim for an early grave, the use of this medicine has arrested every symptom, and restored (he lungs to a state of perfect system more effectually than any remedy we have ever particularly when attended with a cough, indigestion or wandering pains in the side, it has also proved very efficacious, and cured many cases of this kind after the most powerful remedies had failed.

in numerous instances; with the most singular success. It opens the chest, rendering the breathing perfectly free, arrests the cough, and will seldom fail to give permagent relies.

BC BRONCHITIS.—As a remedy in all Bronichial affections of the throat attended with a hourseness, cough or soar in the throat, it will also be found a very effectual remedy, and will mostly afford immediate relief if used temedy, and will mostly address management of the attack.

RCOUGHS AND COLDS—In common coughs and colds, that prevail so extensively throughout the winter, it will be found much more effectual than any remedy in use, and when colds settle upon the lungs causing an infirmation with pains in the breast, difficulty or shortness of breathing, &c., the use of this Balsam will suppress such symptoms immediately, and at the same time prevent the lungs from becoming more scriously discovered. TE CROUP AND WHOOPING COUGH,—In these complaints, so common to young children, this Balsam will be found much superior to the Paregoric Elixer Syrup of Squills, and the various COUGH MIXTURES in common use, as it is entirely free from any thing the left in unique of the common way that the common way the state of the common way that the common way the state of the common way that the common way the common way that the common way the common way the common way that the common way the common way that was the common way the common way the common way the common way that was the common way the common way the common way the common way that was the common way that was the common way the c least injurious, and may at all times be given to children with perfect safety, and with the certainty of its affording IFAS A FAMILY MEDICINE for many other complaints, this Balsam will also be found particularly complaints, this Batsan will also be found particularly useful. Besides having proved an invaluable remedy in all Pulmonary affections, it exerts a powerful influence over many diseases depending on a deprayed condition of the system, and those who have suffered from the indiscriminate use of Mercury, or other deleterious drugs, that are often compounded in different quark nostrums, will find it a remedy of great value, possessing the power of strengthening and invigorating the whole system more effectual than any other medicine we pos-

CAUTION TO PURCHASERS -As this medicine has already acquired great celebrity, there may probably be some attempts to impact, and deceive the public with a spurious mixture, to prevent which I would wish all purchasers to observe the following marks of the genuine Balsam. It is put up in bottles of two sizes each, having the words WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, PHILADA, blown in the glass, and a label on the front with the gianters of WENDY. at with the signature of HENR!
