A stream kept ever green : While a small strip of faded grass Show'd where a awing had been-Ah, many a merry hearted boy Had frolick'd there, I ween.

My heart grew sad; the walls were bare, No breathing thing was near, And fancy sicken'd at the thought That death had revell'd here. On the green sod we pitying dropped A sympathetic tear,

To mourn the happy group that once

Had congregated here. There was a wild rose trained with care, A mark of woman's laste, A drawing rudely acratched with chalk Some childish hand had traced; And every where the next white walls, With pictures rade defaced; Oh, what had made this humble home,

So pleasant once, a waste? New was the ruin, yet I found A mark of man's decay : A broken crutch upon the floor,

In one dark corner lay, Which once methought might have sustain'd A dume or gransire grey ; 1 called about—the echoing bills Repeated "Where are they?"

We left with hearts oppressed and and And saw a stordy rustic lad Come whistling down the road : We asked what caused that ruined scene And begged him to direct us -Why, stranger, that was Brown's old place Who broke and went to Texas."

MY DEAR SALLY'S NOSE. O'er the evils of life 'tis a folly to fret. Despondence and grief never lessened them yell Then a fig for the world, let it come as it goes, 'Il sing to the praise of my dear Sally's nose. My dear Sally's nose is in noble condition,

For longitude, latitude, shape and position ; 'Tis as round as a horn, and red as a rose, Success to the bulk of my dear Sally's nose. To writing poetry let poets repair,

And of whining and prozing give us a share: Here an essa-like carbunkle in brilliancy glow On the big massy tip of my dear Sally's nose. My dear Sally's nose unto me is a treasure-A care killing nostrum—a fountain of pleasure, If I want for a laugh to dispel all my wors, I only look up to my dear Sally's nosc.

TO OLD BACHELORS. Good sire, your conduct I admire; But give me leave to mention, You'll never set the hill on Sre By your devout attention-But should you e'er a lassie find,

And have no ready pelf, If she to wed be inclined, I'll pay the fees myself. Still, should it be your firm tesolve, Alone through life to mope,
I would advise you as a friend,
To haste and buy a rope.

PRILOSOPHICAL ANALYSIS OF DANCING .- The sum and substance of the matter seems to be only this :-A party of ladies and gentlemen (who elsewhere pass for intelligent and rational beings) assemble at the ball room. They soon array themselves in opposing lines. Presently a young lady jumps up from the floor, shakes one foet and comes down again. Again she springs up and the other loo quivers. Then she jurns round in her place springs up, and shakes both her feet, Her intelligent partner opposite performs the same operations. Then both rosh forward and seize each other's hand, jump up again, shake their feet and stand still. The next lady and gentleman very rationally and soberly follow the example just set them, jump ing shaking and turning, and so on to the end and for no other reason than because black Cuffee sits in the corner yonder, drawing a horse-hair across a calgul.

A Double Bull -- An Irish officer, just returned from the West Indies, was invited to dine with Dr. Hervey, at Dublin, when several of the faculty were present. The conversation turned upon Tropical climates, and the officer, whose opinion was asked about that of the West Indies, said,—! It was an internal place, and that if he had lived there until that time, he would have been dead of the yellow fever two years ago." A physician, without observing the bull, gravely milded, "that the climate was certainly very unwholesome, and that vast numbers died there." "Very true," said a Dr. O'Donnel, but if you'll tell me where people do not die, I'll go and end my days there."

The lawyer, after patiently listening to his case, advised him to

A gentleman belonging to one of the most ancient and wealthy families of this city, who must be well known to numerous friends, having since the year 1818 up to recently, been bent nearly double, and for several years confined to his bed, has been restored to good health—has regained his natural erect position—and has quitted his carriage, and how, walks with ease!! We believe this is the gentleman's own description as near as possible, and there is exaggeration in it. We will give inquirers his address, and doubt not his humane feelings will excuse the liberty; that any one doubling, may know these facts—though he requests his rame may not appear in print. HUMAN HAIR.

CLEANLINESS OF THE HEAD AND HAIR Strange it is that persons who attend strictly to personal cleanliness, baths, &c. should neglect the flead—the flair the most essential—the most exposed—and the most beautiful when properly cared for, of all the gitts of the Creatur, Perfectly free may it be kept of dandruff or scurf with a certainty that the hair cannot fall out, by the use of the Balm that the hair cannot fall out, by the use of the Balm confidently recommends it as superior to any other of Columbia. Ladies, will you make your toilet temedy for the Tetter and Itch. Prepared and without this article? I answer fearlessly, No, if you have once tried and experienced its parifying effects-its sweet perfume.

A hundred articles have been put forth on the credit of this-the only first-the only really valuable article. A mass of testimony from all classes to these facts.

From the Boston Chronicle, June 10. WEE see by an advertisement in another col-umn that Messrs. Comstock & Co., the Agents for Oldridge's Balm of Columbia, have doputies to sell that article in Boston and elsewhere .-We know a lady of this city whose hair was so nearly gone as to expose entirely her phrenological developements, which, considering that they betokened a most amiable disposition, was not in reality very unfortunate. Nevertheless she mourned the loss of locks that she had worn, and, after a year's truitless resort to miscalled restoratives, purchased some months ago, a bottle or two of Oldridge's Balm and she has now ringlets in rich profusion, glossy, and of raven blackness. We are not puffing—none of the commodity has been sent to us, and, indeed, we do not want any, for though we were obliged to wear a wig a year ago, we have now, through its virtue, hair enough, and of a passable quality, of our own.

The most useful Family Medicine ever of fered to the Public.

THIS well known Anti-Dysentericand Worm Medicine has proved successfully these twelve years past, and is universally acknowledged by all who have tried it; to be far superior to any other medicine ever employed in the diseases for which it is recommended It is perfectly safe, and no child will refuse to take it. Worms being especially apt to inlest persons of debilitated digestive organs and emaciated constitutions, much mischief is often done by the ordinary worm medicines, which generally consists of the strongest purgatives, calomel, that destroyer of the constitution, bitters, pink root, spirits of torpentine, wormseed oil &c. &c. Articles of this kind may destroy worms, but they debilitate the stomoch, and o'len materially injure the general health, without removing the cause. Swaim's Vermifuge has the peculiar advantage of removing the general health, without removing the cause. Swaim's Vermifuge has the peculiar advantage of removing the nuse of the worms, by giving vigour and healthy action of the stomach, bowels and organs of digestion, thereby relieving measles, croup, hooping cough, &c. This medicine, by invigorating the internal functions strengthening the organs of digestion, and removing the primary cause which creates morbid secretions, will relieve Bowel Complaints, Cholic, Dyscotery, Despensia, and the whole train of biliary affections, Sick Headache, Acidity of the Stomach, Foul Breath, Bleeding Piles, &c. It is an antidotein the early stage of Fever and Cholera Morbas.

Swaim's Verminge will be found of some utility to persons who occasionally indulge in the convivality of the table; a dose inken before dinner will anticipate the effects of acidity of the stomach, not unfrequently produced by wins. In the neglect of this however, a dose in the morning or the following morning will, in most instances, restore the tone of the Stomach.

Families resident in the country, and insolated in a measure from medical advice, travellers journeying to the far west, or bound to distant ports, seminaries and all public institutions and charitable associations will be adverted to the control of the control and public institutions and charitable associations will find this remedy, constantly at hand, of great utility.
