Anoruen Parnon .- Solomon Hower was par doned by Governor Porter on the 5th inst. He arrived in our borough yesterday on his way to his famity, who reside in Columbia county.

NEWS OF THE WEEK .- Our columns are so crow ded with political articles that we are compelled to give merely a brief summary of the news of the week. We are indebted to the Philadelphia Ledger for extras containing the proceedings up to the latest date in the trial of McLeod. The Court has been organised, jury impanelled, the case opened by the Prosecuting Attorney, Mr. Hall, and a number of important witnesses examined. A number of days - perhaps weeks-must necessarily elapse before the trial will be concluded.

The steamship Acadia has arrived at Bostonbringing fifteen days later intelligence from England, The Hurvest in England is not so favorable as was expected. Sir Robert Peel says that the relations between Great Britain and the United States are in a ticklish state. An attempt has been made to assassinate one of King Lewis Philippr's sons-the Duke d' Aumale. The assessin has been arrested. A row, rebellion, or revolution may shortly be ex pected in France. Particulars next week.

Caldwell, the great Forger, has been arrested i Philadelphia.

John C. Spencer, of New York, is the new Secre tary of wor. The President could not have made better selection.

Some of Ex-Attorney General Crittenden's admirers in Kentucky have purchased a farm in that state and made it a present to him.

Two democratic deputy-postmasters have been r moved, for interference in elections. Right. A destructive storm this week in the neghbor hood of Boston. Great damage done. THE FLAG OF TRIUMPH:

"One fire more and the day is ours!" The banner of Democracy, borne onward and upwards by Honest John Banks, is inscribed with letters of light, with Economy, Retrenchment and Re-Protection to American Industry. No increase of the State Debt. No Treasury Shinplasters. No Previous Pardons.

No Taxation. No Bringing the Patronage of the state govern ment in conflict with the freedom of elections.

A sound, constitutional currency. One Term. The safety of the Public money. Honest men for public office. Equal and exact justice unto all men. The will of the People. Freedom of Opinion. Independence in Legislation.

Liberty, Law and the Constitution.

PENNSTLVANIA HALL .- The Pennsylvania Hall has changed hands, and Col. Johnson, of the Exchange, is now the host, and he is a host in himself. We can confidently, consistently, and conscientiously recommend the Colonel to the patronage of our C. Ashley, & Co. friends, for a more gentlemanly, attentive and oblig- F J Parvin, ing landlord is not to be found in the State. His R. Adams house islarge and commodious rooms light and com. Sundry Shippers, fortable-table supplied with all the delicacies of the season, and cooked, too, in a style that would suit even, the fastidiousness of a professioned epicureand last, but not least, his bar is stocked with the best liquors. With such a host and with such a house, what more can a reasonable man desire?

The former landlord of the Hall, Mr. D'Estimauville, has our best wishes for success in whatever business his interests in future may prompt him to en-

THE THEATRE.—The Theatre closes this evening, and the entertainments provided for the occasion are of such an attractive nature as cannot fail to draw a crowded house. During the week, the pantomine of "Don Juan," has been produced. The principle characters were sustained by Messrs. Powell, Eberle, and Mesdens. Powell and Eberle. The piece was entirely successful, and what with good acting and beautiful scenery, was received with " thunders of applause."

Since the above was in type we understand that the theatre will not close until Monday evening, the entertainments that night being for the benefit of Mr. Benjamin Lafevre.

DIGUERREOTYPE MINIATURES.-Mr. J. H. Scott, of Philadelphia, is now in our horough, and is prepared to take miniatures by the Daguerrentype process. It is almost superfluous to say, that a ministure by this process can be taken in a few seconds, and as a matter of course must be a perfect likeness. Mr. Scott's rooms are over Messrs. Lippencott & Taylor's Clothing store, corper of Centre and Mahantango street. His charges are extremely moderate.

View or Portsville Mr. Benade has arriwed and is now taking a sketch of our borough, preparatory to its being transferred on stone. The view is taken from that eminence known as " I aw ton's Hill." From the specimens which Mr. Benade has shown us, we should say that he was eminently qualified for the task he has undertaken.

ORPHAN ASSELUM.—In gives us much pleasure to state, that the members of St. Patrick's Church have purchased a lot on Mahantango street, for the purpose of erecting thereon a suitable building for an Orphan Assylum.

Vote for no man, no matter what his politics mey be, who is not honest, capable, and willing to carry out those principles which you believe to be inseperably connected with your best interests.

VALLEY FURNACE -The Valley Furnace still continues to work well; and yields, we understand, upwards of thirty-five tons of pure metal every mcek.

Friends of good order! can you vote for a man who has let loose upon the community the inmates of prisons and Penitentiaries

Kerp it before the people that while our pubimprovements have been a TAX to the State, our public officers have suddenly amassed large fortunes.

THE TARIFF. Estract from a speech of JOHN RANKS in

"I occupy my clace here us an avowed friend of powerric and American industry. I am prepared to go, in legislation, every just and reasonable rgih to protect the labor of our citizens against the labor of foreigners, and the influence of foreign governments." "PENNSYLVANIA, the state from which I come, and which I have the honor to represent, in part, on this floor, has at all times been the firm and steady friend of this PROTECTIVE POLI-Cy. That state looks upon this policy as being essential to her prosperity and welfare. It is to that policy that she is mainly indebted for her present highly improved condition. That policy has contributed largely to bestow upon the people of that State the many blessings and rich advantages which they now so eminently enjoy. That policy is well suited to the industrious and virtuous habits of the people of that State. Her local advantages are great; her agricultural resources are inexhaus-tible; her mineral wealth is not inferior to that of tible; her mineral wealth is not inferior to that of any State in the Union. That policy brings into requisition all the energies of her industrious people. It draws largely upon all her advantages and resources; in assument that they cannot fail to impact to the people comforts, wealth, and independent of the people comforts of the last dend of seventy five cents per share, for the last dend of seventy five cents per share, for the last dend of seventy five cents per share, for the last dend of seventy five cents per share, for the last dend of seventy five cents per share, for the last dend of seventy five cents per share, for the last dend of seventy five cents per cent per share, for the last dend of seventy five cents per share, for the last dend of seventy five cents per cent per share, for the last dend of seventy five cents per cent per share, for the last dend of seventy five cents per cent per share, for the last dend of seventy five cents per cent per share, for the last dend of seventy five cents per cent per share, for the last dend of seventy five cents per cent per share, for the last dend of seventy five cents per cent per share, for the last dend of seventy five cents per cent pe any State in the Union. MINIATURES. " SECURE THE CHADOW ERE THE CUBSTANCE PADER."

J. H. Scott, ATE of Philadelphia, respectfully announces toothe inhabitants of Pottsvillethat he has taken the 2nd Story of the building at the Corner or Centre and Mahantango streets, and will remain but one week longer where he is prepared to take MINIATURES, By the process discovered by the celebrated French Chemist DAGUERRE, This process occupies but a few seconds of time, whereby the bad effects and inconvenience of a lengthened sitting are obviated; and being the reflection of the person sitting only, it is needless to add that the likeness must be perfect. He desires Ladies and Gentlemen to call at his noom where specimens may be seen.

A word to a Wiseacre. THE individual who, to gratify a puerile feeling of personal malice, concocted the ungentlemanly and unjustifiable inuendo published in last Saturday's Emporium, signed "An Observer," had better be wary how he proceeds in such an accusation. An explanation may come torth, and should it, it will tell but little for his magnanimity. As an "observer" he may receive the same reward for his observations two of his "responsibilities" received a short period since.
