Tis the last piece of Silver. A PARODY. Ain-" The last Rose of Summer." Tis the last piece of Silver

Left gleaming alone— All its glittering companions Bave vanished and gone; No fip of us kindred, No levy is nigh, To reflect back its brightness,

. Or give due for due! They have left me-a lone one-The last silver gent -Each bright piece is spended, Go spend me with them,

And kindly, O, spend me, With those that have fied-Where my mates of the pocket, Are hoarded and dead!

O, soon may I follow-When partners won't stay!
And from cash's shining circle, The gems drop away! When good fips have vanished And quarters have flown ! Ob! who would inhabit This pocket alone?

- From an old paper, THE MONTHLY ROSE. Sweet visiter of Beauty's sphere. Oh, how I love thy chrystal tear, Thy cheek of blossom'd hue admire; Lis love's most delicate attire, The breeze, that o'er thy bosom sighs, Bears up thy fragrance towards the skies; The drops, that washing tiny leaves, Form nectar for the humming bees. Tell me, little, tender flower, Who gave to thee that secret power That calls the blushes to thy face With such inimitable grace, And gives a sweetness to thy breath That scents thy leaves when pale in death

CLIPPINGS.

NICHOLSON says, "The quantity of motion which is obtained by taking the sum of the motions made in the same direction, or the difference of thuse made in the contrary directions, is not changed by the mutual action of the bodies. Illustration :- A cat chases a mouse across the room; the motions are in the same direction; there is 'mutual action' on the part of both; the equantity of motion' is as three to one. Now, it the quantity of motion is not changed,' how soon will the cat catch the mouse !

The crazy habitation of the body will decay; you may repair the broken tiles and damaged roof; you may rub up the dim window lights, and oil the rusty hinges of the doors; you may patch up and plaster over the shattered walls, and paint the outside of the tenement, till the passer by wonders at its fresh appearance; but, for all this, the old house must come down at last!

In Chatham churchyard is a stone with this inscription upon it. A man had burried two wives: after stating the name and age of the first, was the following:--- The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord." In a few years his second wife died, and following her name and age is-" I called upon the Lord and he heard me, and he delivered me out of all

THE UNION -A correspondent of the New York American has written an excellent article on the Union, from which we copy this peasage : a Dissolve this Union! what arrogant nonsense You might as well attempt to dissolve the Christian religion-change the love of a mother for her child-call virtue, vice-call truth, falsehood-and say that happiness is misery, and potatoes are paving stones. Dissolve the Union!!! And why, and for what object? Can you form "a more perfect union?"—can you frame a better more perfect union? "—can you frame a better county, so that they spear before our Judges, counting the west by property of Samuel Sillymau, and on the west by property of John C. Offerman, being the west by property of John C. Offerma are paving stones. Dissoire the Union !!! And why, and for what object? Can you form " a Read it and understand it, and see now in every line it tells of perfect security to the humblest citizen, and guerantees his rights with the proudest and greatest."

BACON BAVED .- The Legislature of Maine have granted a divorce to Col. Ebenezer Cobb and wife, Sarah Bacon. The wrong side of fifty caught the husband, while the bride had just passed the age of blooming seventeen.

For this divorce the only course That wisely could be taken, Fair Sarah sued—the case was proved, And thus she saved her bacon ! Can any blame the youthful dame, Inisa Conning.-We learn from the Detroit Post, that a volunteer in Victoria's service, finding a canoe upon the beach, near Malden, got into it, and started on a voyage of discovery. When he had got some distance from the shore, he was discovered by the officer of the day, who ordered six men in a boat to give chase. He pursued the voyager to the American shore, and in his ardor he forgot that he was out of the British territory, and seized the deserter. A citizen told the man that he was free and need not go back unless he wished; one of the officer's men, an Irishman, hearing this, exclaimed : olf this spalpeen be free, so is every mother's son of us! So you may jist go home, my jewel; (addressing his of-ficer,) and tell the Kurnel that you left us to take care of the prisoner. The officer had to hire ments fow him back, and reposit seven men de-

READ WHAT IT HAS DONE. A Wonderful Recovery .- Mrs. S. E. Austin as attacked with this divease in the fall of 1838, originating from a violent cold which settled upher lunge. Various remedies were resorted on her take the consulted to the most skilful physicians were consulted yet step by step that fearful disease, consumption began to prey upon her. She became subject to violent fits of coughing, expectorated large quantitles of matter and was evidently sinking very last. In this distressing situation, after all the various remedies had been tried in vain, and when naught but the grave seemed to afford her any prospect of relief, the invaluable liaisava restored her to health; and now, in the place of that emaciated form, withering to decay, she is mingling in society, in better health and spirits than she bas enjoyed for years. If See description of this internal of the second tion of this interesting case in Dr. Wistat's Tre-

A Surprising Cure—Mrs. Martha Wilson. poor but highly respectable member of the Meth odist church, was also afflicted with Consumption in its worst forms, and considered past re-covery by all her friends. A bottle of this Balsal was presented to her, which relieved her immediately. This circumstance being made known to the members of the church, they purhased several bottles for her, which relieved her entirely. The same society have purchased over forty bottles, for persons in indiligent cir-cumstances, and positively assert it has not been used in a single instance where it has not given urprising relief.

We, the undersigned, members of the Der in Benevolent Society of the Methodist churc having examined the above statement of Mrs. Wilson's case, hereby certify it is in all respecte true, and earnestly recommend Dr. Wistar's remedy to all who are offlicted.

Liver Complaint.—Mrs. Eliza Thompson wa flicted with this complaint for nearly five years luring which time she was under the most skill ful physicians-had tried Mercury, Botanic, and conthic remedies, and every thing that at fored her any hopes of relief. She had dull, wandering pains in the side, sometimes in the shoulder and small of the back, a backing cough, frequent pains in the breast, and has been una ble to sleep on the right side for three years. By the use of this Balsam, she was cured in a few weeks, and remains well to this day. ELIZA THOMPSON.

I have used a great many remedies within the last year, but have never found any thing that as relieved me so much. It has stopped my rough entirely, checked my night sweats, and I sleep better at night and feel better in every way than I have for many months.

Yours, respectfully, JAMES KELLY. Holmesburg, September 12, 1841. JAMES KELLY. Friend Wistar-I must again trouble thee to send me two bottles more of thy invaluable Bal sam. I have now taken three bottles in all, and can assure thee that it has done me more good than all the medicine I have ever taken before. Send me by the stage as soon as possible, and oblige thy friend. JACOB HOLLOWAY.

In retiring from business as a Bookseller, in which I have been liberally sustained for forty years. I would return my grateful thanks for the support steadily given me, especially to my German friends in the country. Age and bodily infirmities have induced me to withdraw, and I would respectfully recommend my son (late partner) and Wm. Rowould as my successors, who will continue the business as my successors, who will continue the business as herestore, hoping they may receive that patronage so liberally bestowed on me.
