A rough son of Neptune who was walking beside her, was so much attracted by the beauty of her figure, that he was determined to ger a sight of that countenance which imagination told him must be heavenly. Walking quickly by her, he turned round to gaze. Almost horstruck at the change, he exclaimed with uplifted hands-"Madam, you are an angel to follow, but a devil to meet !

INSOLENCE REBUKED. - Beaumarchais, the author of the "Marriage of Figuro," was the son of a Parisian watch maker, but raised himself to fame, wealth, and rank, by the mere force of his talents. A young nobleman, envious of his reputation, once undertook to wound his vanity and pride by an allusion to his humble origin-handing him his watch and saying-Examine it, sir, it does not keep time well; pray ascertain the cause." Beaumarchais extended his hand awkwardly, as if to receive the watch, but contrived to let it fall on the pavement. "You see, my dear sir," replied he, "you have applied to the wrong person; my father always declared that I was too awkward to be a watch maker-

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. THE GREAT REMEDY,

FOR CONSUMPTION and LIVER CMPLAINTS,

ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, CROUP IN CHILDREN,
WHOOPING COUGH, PAINS OR WEAKNESS, OF THE BREAST, CHRONIC, COUGHS, and all diseases of the Culmonary Organs. READ WHAT IT HAS DONE. A Wonderful Recovery .- Mrs. S. E. Austin was attacked with this disease in the fall of 1838, originating from a violent cold which settled op-on her lungs. Various remedies were resorted to—the most skilful physicians were consulted ret step by step that fearful disease, consumption began to prey upon her. She became subject to rivlent fits of coughing, expectorated large quanities of matter and was evidently sinking very last. In this distressing squation, after all the various remedies had been tried in rain, and when naught but the grave seemed to afford her my prospect of relief, the invaluable Balsam restored her to health; and now, in the place of that emaciated form, withering to decay, she is mingling in society, in better health and spirits than she has enjoyed for years. IF See description of this interesting case in Dr. Wistar's Treatise on Consumption.

Disinterested Testimony... Having witnessed he surprising efficacy of Dr. Wistar's preparaon of Wild Cherry, in the case of Mrs. Austin, cheerfully recommend it as a valuable remedy, ind acknowledged his statement true and cor. J. H. WALTERS, M. D. New York, April 12, 1841.

A Surprising Cure—Mrs. Martha Wilson, a poor but highly respectable member of the Methodist church, was also afflicted with Consumption in its worst forms, and considered past re covery by all her friends. A bottle of this Balsal was presented to her, which relieved her immediately. This circumstance being made known to the members of the church, they purchased several bottles for her, which relieved her entirely. The same society have purchased over forty bottles, for persons in indiligent cir-cumstances, and positively assert it has not been ised in a single instance where it has not given surprising relief.

IF We, the undersigned, members of the Der in Benevolent Society of the Methodist church. aving examined the above statement of Mrs. Wilson's case, hereby certify it is in all respects true, and earnestly recommend Dr. Wistar's remedy to all who are offlicted.

Liver Complaint.—Mrs. Eliza Thompson we fflicted with this complaint for nearly five years uring which time she was under the most skil. ul physicians—had tried Mcreury. Botanic, and lomcopathic remedies, and every thing that affored her any hopes of relief. She had dull vandering pains in the side, sometimes in the shoulder and small of the back, a hacking cough requent pains in the breast, and has been unable to sleep on the right side for three years. By the use of this Balsam, she was cured in a few weeks, and remains well to this day. ELIZA THOMPSON.

Roxborough, September 12, 1841. Dear Sir-Please send me two bottles more of our Balsam of Wild Cherry, like that you sent ne before. I have taken nearly all of the first, and confidently believe this medicine will cure me. I have used a great many remedies within the last year, but have never found any thing that has relieved me so much. It has stopped my cough entirely, checked my night sweats, and I sleep better at night and feel better in every way han I have for many months.

Youst, respectfully, James Kelly,
Holmesburg, September 12, 1841. Friend Wister-I must again trouble thee to end me two bottles more of thy invaluable Bal. sam. I have now taken three bottles in all, and can assure thee that it has done me more good than all the medicine I have ever taken be fore. Send me by the stage as soon as possible, JACOB HOLLOWAY. and oblige thy friend. Bristol, September 8, 1841.

Dear Doctor,—Hearing so many people talk bout the wonderful cures your Balsam of Wild Dear Doctor,—Héaring so many people talk about the wonderful cures your Balsam of Wild Cherry has made in Consumption, I sent to one of your Agents the other day for a bottle, and have found it to relieve me so much, that I want three bottles more sert soon, as I believe it will cure me too. I have used a great many balsams of different kinds, have tried Jayne's Expectorant and other medicines besides, but nothing has a corner in a line of lind and the number sixtern, with the appurtenances.

Pains in the Breast, Debility, Weakness and. ough.-The Rev. Dr. Dunlap has addressed us a letter in which he says two of his daughters had suffered severely with an obstinate cough frequent pains in the breast, &c., and appeared be going into a rapid decline. By the use of few bottles of this medicine they have entirely ecovered and now enjoy excellent health.

Asthma Cured.—Mr. Jacob Enyder has au-horized us to say that he was afflicted with this annoying complaint for several years and had tried every thing in vain. He was subject to constant wheezing, a troublesome Cough, Spitting of Phlegm, Pain in the Chest, and sometimes in the region of the Heart, and nothing else ever gave him relief.
