THE DRUMMER BOY OF LUNDY'S LANE .--Major General Winfield Scott, while on the frontier during the late border difficulties, at a complimentary dinner given him by the citizens of Cleveland, related the following characteristic anecdote that occurred during the battle of Lundy's Lane in the last war:

In the very midst of the battle, his attention was arrested by observing at a little distance, where a whole company of riflemen had just been cut down by the terrible fire of the enemy, three drummer boys quarreling for a single drum, all that mer left to them. Same the same left to them. that was left to them. Soon the too stronger ones went to "fisticuss," while the third quietly to ELENOR. WAGGONER, all of Norwegian Township. folded his arms, awaiting the issue of the contest At that moment a cannon ball struck the boys and killed them both. With one bound the little fellow caught the drum from between them, and with a shout of triumph, and a loud "tattoo" dashed forward to the thickest of the fight. Said the General, "I so admired the little soldier, that I rode after him and enquired his name, which was ----, and directed him to find me out at the close of the battle: but I never saw him afterwards."

At this moment, Mr. ____, one of the most respectable merchants in Cleveland, prose, and with a smile and bow, informed the company that he was the " Drummer Boy of Lundy's Lane."-Boston Transcript.

TERRIBLE DEATH OF THE HON. ROBERT Por- ing, April 7th, at 7 o'clock. TER .- From the Caddo Gazette of the 12th inst. we learn the frightful death of Col. Robert Potter He was beset in his house by an enemy named Rose. He sprung from his couch, seized his gun, and in his night clothes rushed from the house. --For about 200 yards his speed seemed to defy his pursuers, but, getting entangled in a thicket, he was captured. Rose told him he intended to act a generous part and give him a chance for his life. He then told Potter be might run, and he should not be interrupted till he reached a certain distance. Potter started at the word of command. and before a gun was fired he had-reached the lake. His first impulse was to jump in the water and dive for it, which he did, Rose was bank, ready to shoot him as he rose. In a few the weather is favorable, the committee will proseconds he came up to breathe, and scarce had his head reached the surface of the water, when it was completely riddled with the shot of their guns, and he sunk to rise no more .- N. O. Picayune.

Currence -- Ah! childhood-beautiful mysson of being whose flowers bring on the period of ripening, or bloom but to-wither and fade in their loviness—time of othick coming? joy and tears! that passed quickly away, as if they did not belong to the class of joys that linger and abide long, yet make the long day shorts—team of greek near the long day shorts—team of greek a power to chirm the eyes of sages from thier lore. Childhood! what a myetery art thou, and what mysteries dost thou deal with. What mystery is there in thy unfolding faculties, that call forth wonder from those that gaze upon thee, and seem to thyself at time almost as if they were strong reminiscences of an earlier being! What ministry is there in thoughts, when thou art first thou art told of immortal regions where thou shall wander onward for ever, and savest even to the teaching voice of authority, it cannot father! it cannot be."-Dewey.

regard to confidential debts. The law provides that no man shall be liberated from his debts under it, who has given any preference to one crediter over another. But mark the short vision of legislators. The way the thing is doing is this: nan fails: he gives no preference to any body But certain creditors among his friends immediately sue him, and hurry their suits to judgment and execution. The debtor makes no resistance and so the 'creditor attaches property and paye honsell, after which the debter applies for the benefit of the Bankrupt Act, and with clean hands too, for he has given no preferences, and in fact done nothing at all; and yet all his preferred cred itors are as snugly provided for as they would have been in the worst days of assignments. Here is a hole through which a bear or a bull may go without scretching his sides .- Jour. of Com.

THE TARIFE QUESTION .-- Protection and enconragement is all that is wanting to develope resources, and bring into action skill and ingenuity that cannot be surpassed by any other people. In spite of the want of fostering care, the American mechanic has been enabled to complete with the arrizons in foreign workshops, but when the compromise act takes full effect--when the cherishing and supporting hand of government is withdrawn, he will be obliged to closs his doors, and sonk in poverty and ruta. Then will no longer be heard. within our borders, the ring of the anvil, or the click of the shuttle-the grass will grow rankly before the doors of our workshops-the country will be drained of its last cent-and misery stare the starving population in the face. We hope that Congress will attend to this subject ere it is too late to remedy the evil--that the wishes and petitions of the different Home Leagues will be attended to-and a helping had extended towards the back bone of the nation -Phila. Chronicle.

NUMBER OF TRETOTALLERS IN IRELAND. -By the accidental omission of two ciphers in the figures given by Mr. O'Connel on Saturday, as the number of teetotallers in Ireland, the aggregate appeared to be thousands, whereas the Lord Mayor of Dublin said that the last ticket he saw Globe Artichoke signed by Father Matthew was marked five millions, two thousand, seven hundred and two. At least 10,000 more have taken the pledge since the date of that ticket.

Duries on Ice .- We have noticed the arrival at this port of one or two cargoes of ice from Nova Scotia, and other cargoes were about being shipped As our own fice crop" tell short we are habpy to receive supplies of so desirable an article from our neighbors. Some of them, however, we imagine, will be surprised to learn that their cargoes of ice are subject by the new tariff to an import duty of twenty per cent. ad valorem. We do not know whether this duty was levied for purposes of revenue or for the protection of the home manufacture .- U. S. Gazette.

LEGALIZING THE MARRIAGES .- On the 24th ult., in the British Parliament, Lord Elliot brought in a bill to legalize those marriages in Ireland, which had been declared illegal by the Irish judges-between Presbyterians and Episcopalians, the ceremony performed by Presbyterian clergy-

UNIVERSAL REMEDY, for the particultion of the blood, and as a consequence, the eradicultion of DISEASE from the HUMAN SYSTEM THOMAS & JAMES BEATTY; AVING been duly appointed County Agent, or the sale, in large or small quantities, of the named article, suggest the following as strong presumptive proof, that the claim of this medicine to public confidence, is founded on unquestionable and we believe, unquestionable au-Letter from Mr. Camfield, Travelling Agent for the United States.

Messrs. T & J. BEATTY. I herewith enclose for your service in the ray of advertising, the notice of Stichter & Mc-Knight, successors to Keim & Stichter. Reading, who are agents for Brandreth Pills, and perhaps for others. You will perceive the form of their language, under these circumstances, and my business is to apprise you of the testimo-ny which the genlemen to whom they refer have already given, four of them prior to the in-terence, and one, Mr. G. H. Miller, since the eference, but without being informed of it by me, or in any manner alluding to it.

STICHTER & M'KNGHT, (as successors to Keim'

& Stichter, Reading.) having been duly appoint. d county agents for the excellent and superior medicine above named, are now prepared to supply the demands of former agencies, and wil gratified by the appointment and supply to new ones, on the usual liberal terms. "For the character of these pills, we refer" with confidence, but without asked consent, to the following named gentlemen, who have sold them long enough to know their true value in comparison with any others now in market .-Their relative location gives every facility to the inquirer who desires to abtain, either for sale use a first rate article." To take them in consecutive order, then Mr. C. W. Poster, P. M., Maiden Creek, Jan, 26, took of me on commission, 6 doz. Since that time, he purchased of K. & S. Reading 6 dozen, and on the 4th inst. took 6 dozen of me, stating, that he never had a medicine which brought back so good a report, nor one which had so ready a sale. As he is Post Master, any person can easily and cheaply ascertain whe her my veracity can be impeached and at the same time learn what other pills, he sells or has seld. Mr. G. H. Miller, late of Brickensville, had equested me to appoint him on agent for Womelsdorf, because he well knew the value of the neticle: April 20th he took of me 4 dozer, and on the 24th inst. he had sold 26 boxes, it being in Womelsdorf, a new article, and bought 2 dozen-

This statement is similar to the foregoing. To Mr. M'Kinty, one dozen were sent at a venture, perhaps in December. Jan. 25, I left him 2 dozen on commission, and on the 11th inst. he paid me for 7 dozen, stating, as do the others, that no medicine with which he is acquainted has as good a name and so ready a rale. Peter Kline, Post Master, has sold to a man who has the white swelling, probably near 60, thom I seen, and who states, that no edy has rendered him any service, but that this has, and now that he is personded to persevere, I am fully persuaded he will entirely recover. Samuel Heckler, Post Maste pills, but states, that he finds 4 of these equal to 8 or 9 of them-that the' he had these less than months, and the others several years, of these he now sells about 10 bozes where he has a call for one of the other sort. He mentioned a woman who has during several years suffered by the rheumatism, and though other remedies had been invoked, she has not found any benefit, save in the use of these pills.

I would add much general and particular information, but shall defer to a more convenient pportunity an exposition which must be interesting to all who are liable to diseases. To the buness in hand, the reference. I have paid the atlention it seems to merit, and I thus leave it with he earnest desire that it may be read with candor, and produce the effect to which truth is always entitled. Respectfully, R. CAMFIELD, Travelling Agt. United States. Pottsville, May 29 22-tt The following named gentlemen compose the last of agents for this county and vicinity, so far as they are at present received. Other names will be added as agents shall be appointed. T. & J. BEATTY, Pottsville. Daniel Saylor, Schuylkill Haven, Caleb Wheeler, Pinegrove, John Snyder, P. M.
