A PLEASANT PLACE TO RESIDE IV .- The condition of Cairo, Ill., which some time since on the speculator's map was set down as a very large flourishing, and pleasantly situated town, is des cribed as follows:

"The water is about five feet all round the houses, and the frogs are so busy in trying to find logs to sit upon, that they have stopped croaking entirely. The boat on board which the writer was, hailed one of the houses in the evening, thinking it was a steamboat; the pilot took the windows for estern lights ! On finding that he was right in town, with his steamboat, and this house was a tavern, the captain pulled up, and every body "liquored." Cairo would make a good temperance town now, as there is plenty of wa-

- Who wants to emigrate?

H. J. Levis .- The Philadelphia correspondent of the Journal of Commerce says: I am informed that there is an affidavit in this city from Hosea. J. Levis, late cashier of the Schurikilly Bank, in which he charges against the President and Directors of the Schuylkill Bank a full knowledge of his frauds upon the Kentucky, Bank; and that the money thus fraudulently obtained was approprinted to the Schuvlkill Bank.

QUESTION FOR DEBATING SOCIETIES .- If a good sized cart will hold thirty bushels of potatoes, how much will a prime, fat, Berkshire grunter weigh?

Anoruen.-If a pound of butter costs six cents, how many wheel barrow loads of sunshine will it take to dry a load of hav?

Pentic Opinion.—Public opinion is perhaps the only unerring guide from whose decision there is no appeal; and was there ever such a manifestation of its approval as there is with Brandretti's Vegeta-net Universal Pills? Step by step has this medi-cine worned itself into favor, in spite of e vy. decis-un and a orn. Triumphant has been its progress to is present sphere of extensive usefulners. It has surmounted obstacles before which quackery sinks paralysed, and had gained for itself a reputation which neither Physicians for flippant, sordid, counterfeiting Apothecaries can ever injure. They can no more injure the reputation of Braudreth's Pills, than they can lay their hands upon the son. These Pills are known, where represence of thousands to perfectly cleans. by the experience of thousands, to perfectly, cleans by the experience of incusands, to perfectly, cleause the blood from all foulness, remove every morbid of tection, and removate weak and enfected constitutions to perfect health and vigor. Their acknowledged innocence makes them safe through every perfect the safe through every perfect that the safe through every perfect throug riod of existence from inlancy to old age.

From the Courier and Enquirer.

It would be proposterous in a writer for the read-ers of such a Journal as the Courier, to address their prejudices, passions or superstitions. Good common tense should at least be possessed by the readers of eense should at least be possessed by the readers of this paper, and those possessed of such, and those on-ly, do we care to attract. We will now assert, in the most unqualified terms, that an innocent remetity has been found, that will absolutely cure Rheumatiam, and stiffness of joints, if of twenty years standing. The assertion is so broad that it will hardly obtain redence, we are aware, unless supported by uncommon textimony. Now the testimony given to so nany worthless quackeries is so abundant, that to dismany worthless quackeries is so abundant, that to dis-criminate between such, and real matter of fact ins-timony, is very difficult. To come at once at a point that can at once be apprepriated, the proprietors have resolved to give this remedy to the poor, and to cure those able to pay for it, before they ask pay, and then leave it to the sufferer to pay what he chooses. We entreat, therefore, sufferers to call at 71 Maiden Lane, for some drojes (Indian Elixir) to be taken, and a Nerve and Bone, Liniment to use outwardly; and if they will not by one week's use become thore surthey will not, by one week's use, become more sur-prised and delighted than they ever expected, we will newer again make such an assertion. Will invaluds now suffer for the want of this mild, innotent, and all potent remedy! If they refuse it, we pity them in-deed.—[A. Y. Cour. & Enq., Feb. 19, 1842. For sale by John S. C. Martin, Wm. T.
