AN INVITATION TO DINNER.—It was observed that a certain covetous rich man never invited one to dine with him. 'I'll lay a wager,' said a wag, 'I get an invitation from him.' The wager being accepted, he goes the next day to the rich man's house about the time he was to dine, and tells the servant he must speak with his master immediately, for he could save him a thousand pounds.

'Sir,' said the servant to his master, 'here is a man in a great hurry to speak with you, who says he can save you a thousand pounds.'

Out came the master.

'What is that, sir, that you can save me a thousand?'

'Yes, sir, I can, but I see you are at dinner, I will go myself and dine and call again.'

'O pray, sir, come and take dinner with me.'

'I shall be troublesome.'

'Not at all.'

The invitation was accepted. As soon as dinner was over the family retired.

'Well, sir,' said the man of the house, 'now to your business. Pray let me know how I am to save a thousand pounds?'

'Why, sir,' said the other, 'I hear you have a daughter to dispose of in marriage.'

'I have, sir,'

'And that you intend to portion her with ten thousand pounds.'

'I do, sir.'

'Why then, sir, let me have her and I will take her at nine thousand.'

The master of the house rose in a passion and kicked him out of doors.

A TRIP DOWN EAST.—Stranger—I expect you are about the tallest kind of a coon there is in these diggings. Your little Buffalonian walks straight into things, like a squash vine into a potato patch.

I come down the other day in the steamboat Cleaveland. She's pretty fixin, Golly! aint she a smasher? Once coming down, a streak of lightning followed three miles and better. The Captain seeing it was gaining on us a little, so he told the man to starboard the helm and let it go by. It did go like a horse, and we were so near it that the passengers smelt brimstone. Then the captain felt a little cheap, at first, about letting it beat him, and said the steam wasn't up, but I told him he did perfectly right to turn out, as there were so many women on board, and then there was so much iron, that it drew the lightning and helped it along, so it wasn't fair play. You should have heard the thunder that came along just after it. Perhaps you don't know where I came from. Give us your fist now and I'll tell you all about it. Where I'm at home I stops in Chuckahokee digging in the state of Indiana. We raised a mighty crop of wheat this year, I reckon upon nigh four thousand bushels, and a sprinkle of corn, oats, potatoes and garden sass. You could hear the earth groan all around our settlement, the crops were so heavy, and that's what gives rise to the stories about the earthquakes. It was near enough to make a young earthquake to hear the corn grow as it did, and as to the potatoes, I'll be skinned alive, if ever I saw any thing like it. Why any of them warm nights, you just go out into a little patch of fifty acres, close to the house, and hold your ear down, you could hear the young potatoes quarrelling, and the old ones grumbling at them because they didn't lay along and stop crowding. I calculate you didn't raise such crops in these parts. Why, one day one of our squash vines chased a drove of hogs better than half a mile, and they ran and squealed as if the old boy was after them. One little pig stubbed his toe and fell down and never was heard of afterwards. We got in pretty much all the crops, and I told the old man I would take a trip down east and see the old folks, grandfather and mother, aunts, and cousins, a pretty considerable heap of them I calculate down to old Vermont. So I packed up my plunder and started.

A GOOD STORY.—The Kilmarnock Journal, tells the following very amusing story of an amorous clerical adventurer:—

The assistant minister, in a not very distant parish, being violently smitten with the charms of a certain lady who resided in a pretty whitewashed two story house, within a gunshot of the manse, used, often, in the evenings, to hover around the dwelling of his enchantress, like some ghome over the spot where its treasure is concealed. One dark autumn night, he was perambulating as usual, "chewing the cud of sweet and bitter fancies," and gazing on the lighted window of his charmer's bed-room, but, contrary to usual custom, more than two hours passed away, and still the light was as bright as ever, shining "like a good deed in a naughty world." A twinge of jealousy came over his reverence's heart. What could be the cause of the fair one's long vigil? Could there be another lover in the case? This state of uncertainty was too dreadful to endure. Fortunately, as he thought, a ladder stood temptingly convenient at the end of the house; a few turns of it by his clerical fingers brought it opposite the lighted window; the preacher mounted his unusual rostrum, and climbed as far as to be opposite to the light, when, looking down into the courtyard, he spied the figure of a man moving along within a dozen yards of him.

Ashamed of his position, he mounted beyond the whitewashed wall, thinking to conceal himself on the dark slates; but the lover of the maid (who was on a wooing visit himself) knew in a moment the reverend sweetheart of his mistress, and, with remorseless waggery, removing the ladder altogether, he left the victim of jealousy to spend the night on the old fashioned stair shaped gable of the house. "Long and dreary was the night," yet the daylight came unwished for, and there he was found, by all the laborers of the farm, perched on his "bad" eminence." He was taken down, amid the ill suppressed sneers of the men and the giggles of the women, looking dispirited, baffled, and ashamed, unwilling to give any rational account of his elevation, fully assured of his character becoming food for village gossip, and himself the laughing stock of the whole country side.—Nor was he long in finding, from the loud waggings of scandal's tongue, that he had made a hole in his manners which only wedlock could patch up; and a few months saw him legally entitled to enter the door of that room, for attempting to steal a peep into whose windows he had been forced to take upon himself, prematurely and without a kirk of his own, the hymeneal chain. Moral—Let no man, who would avoid scrapes, pry into the secrets of maid, wife, or widow.

WRIGHT'S
INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS,

Of the North American College of Health. As appears by the following circumstances, are fast superseding the use of all other Pills as a UNIVERSAL REMEDY, for the purification of the blood, and as a consequence, the eradication of DISEASE from the HUMAN SYSTEM.

THOMAS & JAMES BEATTY,

HAVING been duly appointed County Agent for the named article, suggest the following as strong presumptive proof, that the claim of this medicine to public confidence, is founded on unquestionable and we believe, unquestionable authority.

Letter from Mr. Camfield, Travelling Agent for the United States.

Messrs. T. & J. BEATTY.

I herewith enclose for your service in the way of advertising, the notice of Stichter & McKnight, successors to Keim & Stichter, Reading, who are agents for Brandreth Pills, and perhaps for others. You will perceive the form of their language, under these circumstances, and my business is to apprise you of the testimony which the gentemen to whom they refer have already given,—four of them prior to the reference, and one, Mr. G. H. Miller, since the reference, but without being informed of it by me, or in any manner alluding to it.

STICHTER & M'KNIGHT, (as successors to Keim & Stichter, Reading,) having been duly appointed county agents for the excellent and superior medicine above named, are now prepared to supply the demands of former agencies, and will be gratified by the appointment and supply to new ones, on the usual liberal terms.

"For the character of these pills, we refer with confidence, but without asked consent, to the following named gentlemen, who have sold them long enough to know their true value in comparison with any others now in market.—Their relative location gives every facility to the inquirer who desires to obtain, either for sale or use, a first rate article."

To take them in consecutive order, then Mr. C. W. Porter, P. M., Maiden Creek, Jan, 26, took of me on commission, 6 doz. Since that time, he purchased of K. & S, Reading 6 dozen, and on the 4th inst. took 6 dozen of me, stating that he never had a medicine which brought back so good a report, nor one which had so ready a sale. As he is Post Master, any person can easily and cheaply ascertain whether my veracity can be impeached and at the same time learn what other pills, he sells or has sold.

Mr. G. H. Miller, late of Brickensville, had requested me to appoint him an agent for Womelsdorf, because he well knew the value of the article; April 20th he took of me 4 dozen, and on the 24th inst. he had sold 26 boxes, it being in Womelsdorf, a new article, and bought 2 dozen more.

This statement is similar to the foregoing.

To Mr. M'Kinty, one dozen were sent at a venture, perhaps in December. Jan. 25, I left him 2 dozen on commission, and on the 11th inst. he paid me for 7 dozen, stating, as do the others, that no medicine with which he is acquainted has as good a name and so ready a sale.

Peter Kline, Post Master, has sold to a man who has the white swelling, probably near 60, whom I seen, and who states, that no other remedy has rendered him any service, but that this has, and now that he is persuaded to persevere, I am fully persuaded he will entirely recover.

Samuel Heckler, Post Master, sells the other pills, but states, that he finds 4 of these equal to 8 or 9 of them—that tho' he had these less than 4 months, and the others several years, of these he now sells about 10 boxes where he has a call for one of the other sort. He mentioned a woman who has during several years suffered by the rheumatism, and though other remedies had been invoked, she has not found any benefit, save in the use of these pills.

"I would add much general and particular information, but shall defer to a more convenient opportunity an exposition which must be interesting to all who are liable to diseases. To the business in hand, the reference, I have paid the attention it seems to merit, and I thus leave it with the earnest desire that it may be read with candor, and produce the effect to which truth is always entitled. Respectfully,

R. CAMFIELD,
Travelling Agt. United States.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

THE GREAT REMEDY.

FOR CONSUMPTION and LIVER COMPLAINTS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, CROUP in CHILDREN, WHOOPING COUGH, PAINS on WEAKNESS OF THE BREAST, CHRONIC, COUGHS, and all diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

READ WHAT IT HAS DONE.

A Wonderful Recovery.—Mrs. S. E. Austin was attacked with this disease in the fall of 1838, originating from a violent cold which settled upon her lungs. Various remedies were resorted to—the most skilful physicians were consulted—yet step by step that fearful disease, consumption began to prey upon her. She became subject to violent fits of coughing, expectorated large quantities of matter and was evidently sinking very fast. In this distressing situation, after all the various remedies had been tried in vain, and when naught but the grave seemed to afford her any prospect of relief, the invaluable Balsam restored her to health; and now, in the place of that emaciated form, withering to decay, she is mingling in society, in better health and spirits than she has enjoyed for years. ☞ See description of this interesting case in Dr. Wistar's Treatise on Consumption.

Disinterested Testimony.—Having witnessed the surprising efficacy of Dr. Wistar's preparation of Wild Cherry, in the case of Mrs. Austin, I cheerfully recommend it as a valuable remedy, and acknowledged his statement true and correct. J. H. WALTERS, M. D.

New York, April 12, 1841.

A Surprising Cure.—Mrs. Martha Wilson, a poor but highly respectable member of the Methodist church, was also afflicted with Consumption in its worst forms, and considered past recovery by all her friends. A bottle of this Balsam was presented to her, which relieved her immediately. This circumstance being made known to the members of the church, they purchased several bottles for her, which relieved her entirely. The same society have purchased over forty bottles, for persons in indifigent circumstances, and positively assert it has not been used in a single instance where it has not given surprising relief.

☞ We, the undersigned, members of the Derbin Benevolent Society of the Methodist church, having examined the above statement of Mrs. Wilson's case, hereby certify it is in all respects true, and earnestly recommend Dr. Wistar's remedy to all who are afflicted.

GEORGE MILLER, MARY GARDNER,
THOMAS COOMBS, ELIZABETH JACOBS.

Liver Complaint.—Mrs. Eliza Thompson was afflicted with this complaint for nearly five years, during which time she was under the most skilful physicians—had tried Mercury, Botanic, and Homœopathic remedies, and every thing that afforded her any hopes of relief. She had dull, wandering pains in the side, sometimes in the shoulder and small of the back, a hacking cough, frequent pains in the breast, and has been unable to sleep on the right side for three years. By the use of this Balsam, she was cured in a few weeks, and remains well to this day.

ELIZA THOMPSON.
Roxborough, September 12, 1841.

Dear Sir—Please send me two bottles more of your Balsam of Wild Cherry, like that you sent me before. I have taken nearly all of the first, and confidently believe this medicine will cure me. I have used a great many remedies within the last year, but have never found any thing that has relieved me so much. It has stopped my cough entirely, checked my night sweats, and I sleep better at night and feel better in every way than I have for many months.

Yours, respectfully, JAMES KELLY.
Holmesburg, September 12, 1841.

Friend Wistar—I must again trouble thee to send me two bottles more of thy invaluable Balsam. I have now taken three bottles in all, and can assure thee that it has done me more good than all the medicine I have ever taken before. Send me by the stage as soon as possible, and oblige thy friend. JACOB HOLLOWAY.
Bristol, September 8, 1841.

Dear Doctor,—Hearing so many people talk about the wonderful cures your Balsam of Wild Cherry has made in Consumption, I sent to one of your Agents the other day for a bottle, and have found it to relieve me so much, that I want three bottles more sent soon, as I believe it will cure me too. I have used a great many balsams of different kinds, have tried Jayne's Expectorant and other medicines besides, but nothing has ever done me as much good as yours has. Send by the steamboat Bolivar. Yours truly,
WILLIAM THOMAS.

PAINS IN THE BREAST, DEBILITY, WEAKNESS AND COUGH.—The Rev. Dr. Dunlap has addressed us a letter in which he says two of his daughters had suffered severely with an obstinate cough frequent pains in the breast, &c., and appeared to be going into a rapid decline. By the use of a few bottles of this medicine they have entirely recovered and now enjoy excellent health.

Asthma Cured.—Mr. Jacob Snyder has authorized us to say that he was afflicted with this annoying complaint for several years and had tried every thing in vain. He was subject to constant wheezing, a troublesome Cough, Spitting of Phlegm, Pain in the Chest, and sometimes in the region of the Heart, and nothing else ever gave him relief.

Chronic Cough.—Mr. Isaac Rogora was also afflicted with an obstinate Cough, originating from a disease of the Lungs and Chest, and never found any thing to give him relief but this Balsam.

Such in fact is the nature and simplicity of this medicine, and so extraordinary have been many of the cures it has performed, that it has already attained the highest reputation, and although scarce two years have elapsed since it was first made public, we can proudly say, its fame has spread in every direction, and it is rapidly acquiring a celebrity unequalled by any medicine ever offered to public notice.

DRUGGISTS AND DEALERS

In every section of the country, will find this medicine an important and valuable addition to their stock, and should

ALWAYS KEEP IT ON HAND,

As it is not in our power to place it within the reach of all those afflicted, and there are doubtless; thousand suffering who would resort to it for relief if they could obtain it conveniently.

☞ Be particular when you purchase, to ask for DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, as there is an article called the "SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY," advertised, which is entirely a different medicine.

NATURE'S OWN PRESCRIPTION.

A purely vegetable and highly approved Compound preparation of the Prunus Virginiana, or "Wild Cherry Bark"—approved by the College of Pharmacy, recommended by the medical faculty, and universally acknowledged the most valuable 'Family Medicine' ever discovered.

No Quackery! No Deception.

The physician may boast of his skill in many diseases—the quack may puff his wonderful cures, but of all the remedies ever discovered for diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is universally admitted nothing has ever proved as success ful as that unrivalled medicine, Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which has effected some of the most astonishing cures ever recorded in the history of medicine.

Such indeed are the astonishing healing and restorative properties of this Balsam, that even in the advanced stages of consumption, and in Liver Complaints, diseases which have baffled the skill of the most distinguished physicians, when patients have suffered with the most distressing cough, great difficulty in breathing, night sweats, bleeding of the lungs, &c. after the most esteemed remedies of our Pharmacopias have failed, this invaluable remedy has not only given surprising relief but actually effected cures, after all hopes of a recovery had been entirely despaired of.

Besides its surprising efficacy in these formidable complaints, it has proved a very superior remedy for diseases of children, such as Croup, Whooping Cough, &c, and in those disorders that prevail so extensively throughout the winter season, such as Coughs, Colds, Pleurisy, Influenza, and Pains in the Breast, proceeding from neglected Colds, it stands unrivalled.

The above medicine has proved itself one of the most efficatious ever employed in the above affections. Throughout Germany it is used and employed more than any other preparation for Colds, &c., and there so well known for its efficacy, that they call it the "LIFE PRESERVER."

Price 50 cents a bottle, (half pint.)

Extract from a letter from Nathaniel Atwood, Esq. of Easton, Pennsylvania.

Dear Sir:—I should consider it ungrateful, if did not inform you (and with my consent allow you to publish this,) that after having tried by the recommendation of my friends, almost every kind of medicine for coughs, colds, &c., I never found relief until lately having used Dr. Bechter's Pulmonary Preservative, recommended to me by your agent in this place, and which cured me of a violent cough, spitting of blood, pain in my breast, and shortness of breath, with all of which I have been afflicted for two years past. I am now however enjoying as good health as ever, and owe my recovery to the above valuable medicine.

Extract of a letter from the Rev. Israel Hopkins of Baltimore.

On your recommendation, I made use of Dr. Bechter's Pulmonary Preservative," and although I tried all other remedies for my cough, I never found relief except from the above medicine. Hendrick Hudson,	Gladiator,

In connection with the above, and for the purpose of affording still greater facilities to passengers, the subscribers have established the

Star line of Liverpool Packets,

To sail from Liverpool, on the 7th and 19th of every month, comprising the following very superior fast sailing ships, viz:—

Russell Glover,	Capt. Howes,	1000 tons
Echo,	Sill,	850
St. Mark,	Alexander,	750
Windsor Castle,	Glover,	1060

All of which are nearly new, first class, coppered and copper fastened. The last four are owned exclusively by the subscribers, a fact which, independent or their long standing in their business, it is presumed is a sufficient guarantee to the public which no other house in their line can present. The above ships will be succeeded by vessels of the same class, in regular succession, thereby affording passengers an opportunity of embarking at Liverpool weekly so that there will be no possible detention. Passengers who wish will be found with an abundant supply of suitable provision for the voyage, at the low rate of ten dollars. In all cases where the parties decline coming out, the money paid for their passage will be promptly returned.

HUMAN HAIR.

CLEANLINESS OF THE HEAD AND HAIR.

STRANGE it is that persons who attend strictly to personal cleanliness, baths, &c. should neglect the Head—the Hair the most essential—the most exposed—and the most beautiful when properly cared for, of all the gifts of the Creator. Perfectly free may it be kept of dandruff or scurf with a certainty that the hair cannot fall out, by the use of the Balm of Columbia. Ladies, will you make your toilet without this article? I answer fearlessly, No, if you have once tried and experienced its purifying effects—its sweet perfume.

A hundred articles have been put forth on the credit of this—the only first—the only really valuable article. mass of testimony from all classes to these facts.

From the Boston Chronicle, June 10.

We see by an advertisement in another column that Messrs. Comstock & Co., the Agents for Oldridge's Balm of Columbia, have deputies to sell that article in Boston and elsewhere.—We know a lady of this city whose hair was so nearly gone as to expose entirely her phrenological developements, which, considering that they betokened a most amiable disposition, was not in reality very unfortunate. Nevertheless she mourned the loss of locks that she had worn, and, after a year's fruitless resort to miscalled restoratives, purchased, some months ago, a bottle or two of Oldridge's Balm, and she has now ringlets in rich profusion, glossy, and of raven blackness. We are not puffing—none of the commodity has been sent to us, and, indeed, we do not want any, for though we were obliged to wear a wig a year ago, we have now, through its virtue, hair enough, and of a passable quality, of our own.

DARING FRAUD.

The Balm of Columbia has been imitated by a notorious counterfeiter. Let it never be purchased or used unless it have the signature o COMSTOCK & CO. on a splendid wrapper. This is the only external test that will secure the public from deception.
