CIRCUS. Those genilemanly and indefatigable esterers for the public amusement, Mesars - Welsh & Mann, of the New York Circus, have commenced a short engagement of four performances, with the whole of their untivalled Equestrians and splendid steeds. The first was given on Thursday c vening : and, notwithstanding the wetness of the evening, the spacious amphitheatro was well filled by a highly respectable assemblage of the Ladies and Gentlemen of our borough. The Entertainand dientlemen of our borouga. The Entertaine ments were varied and beautiful; and gave great delight to those winessing it. We have not space to particularize, excepting to maik the efforts of the Risley's, Rogers and Cadawallader. The first took as by surprise, as the poetry of grace, and among the most delicate exhibitions of inven tions in Equipoise. The boy will surpage even Dracow himself in the precision and confidence of his performances. A glance at the bills shows that a rich treat is in store for each evening--And, although, " the times are hard," we attick pate a hearty welcome and patronage for these in-present and industry, or down with those web aid in withhol ding it from a suffering and prostrated nation." - pate a hearty welcome and patronage for these innocent and delightful amusements, combining as they do, the during invention of man, with the intelligence of the noble horse.

A performance will take place this ofternoon, at 21 o'clock, to accommodate families, and the last exhibition will be given this evening.

MASS MEETING, IN FAVOR OF A PROTECTIVE TARIFF

Several addresses will be delivered. THE PEOPLE.

TREMONT HOUSE, CHESNET STREET, Between Third and Fourth, Philadelphia.

THE Subscriber having taken the above House, lately in the occupancy of Capt. Martin, respectfully informs this friends, and the travelling public, that he is now prepared to furnish comforts and accommodations unrivalled by any establishment in the country. The Apartments of the TREMONT are large and airy, furnished with new bedding, and atten-ded by the most carcial servants. The proprietor flatters himself that he will not lose any of that repitation so cheerfully accorded him, whilst in possession of the "Indian Queen." The Larder hall be kept constantly supplied with all the choice productions of the market, together with regetables grown open his own farm, in the viinity of the city. The Wines, (many of which have been above 32 years in bottles,) are of the proprietor's own sclection, or were imported by him from the oldest and most celebrated houses in the various parts of Europe. The Cooks in the Tremont House are among the most skilfal and celebrated n their line; and the other servants careful, attenobedient. The whole establishment, being under the immediate superintendence o John Ford Whitney, he progrietor himself, which, with his long and Godfrey B.Zuileb, Farmer. well known experience in Hotel keeping, will and Tuesday the 30th day of August next, at 1 ensure to his guests all that their every want will'require. The location of the house being in the immedite vicinity of the Exchange and Post Office, and the various Steamboat laudings and Railroad beots, the Theatres, and other places of amusement, offer to the man of business or of leisure, singularly great facilities for the prosecution of their designs in visiting the city. For the better accommodation of Lacies, a private entrance relatiached to the house, opening on Chesnut Street. Regular Boannens will be taken on the most accommodating terms. BERNARD DUKE.
