PROSPECTUS OF THE COLD WATER MAGAZINE.

THIS work is to be, as it title indicates, devoted to the cause of Temperance; and it is fully hoped and confidently anticipated, that our exertions, through the medium of its pages, will be productive of much good, especially to the young and riving generation, for whom it is more particularly designed. It will be our aim to inculcate, by statements of facts, by illustrations, interesting narratives, sketches and tales, the principles of Total Austrakas and sound morality; to give to the young a just abhorence of the use ty; to give to the young a just abhorence of the use of intoxicating drinks, and cause them to shun every temptation which may lead to so baneful a practice; to incine in them a just and landable desire to benefit their fellow men, by adding their mite of influence to the moral power which is now at work, and which promises to wipe away this blot upon the fair fame of our country; to aid the reformer, and encourage the reformed in the praiseworthy efforts to conquer the easlaving passion for drink, which has debased so many of the noblest hearts and proudest intellects; to speak the words of hope and encouragement to the drunkard, and of soher truth and remonstrance to those who still persist in the unholy, unchristian and unmanly practice of dealing in that which is blighting the fairest flowers, poisoning the holiest affections, severing the fondest use, and filling the land with crime, misery and wo.

To aid us in the undertaking, we have secured the services of Messrs. N. Moore and A. Friz, gentlemen warmly devoted to, and actively engage cause, as editors; and a host of contributors cause, as editors: and a host of contributors of stering merit, whose productions cannot fail of being the instrument of much good, if widely disseminated.
