The Drunkard's Farewell to his Folly.

Farewell, landlords! farewell, Jerry!
Farewell, brandy, wine, and Sherry;
Farewell, horrors, and blue devils;
Farewell, fume of midnight revels;
Farewell, shoes that have no soles on;
Farewell, fires that have no coals on;
Farewell, sots, and all sot feeders;
Farewell, rogues, and all thief-breeders;
Farewell, cupboards that have no meat in;
Farewell, chairs that have no seats in;
Farewell, children with dry faces,
Farewell, to those grog-shop races:
Farewell, landlords and your spouses;
Farewell, spiders, and your houses,
Farewell, to your noise and rabble;
Farewell, to your foolish gabble;
Farewell, awash, and all awash venders;
Farewell, barn, and all buur senders;
Farewell, pockets that are empty;
Farewell, landlords, you have plenty.

CLIPPINGS.

"Take care of the pain," as the gall said when Bill was kissing her.

Were we to point out a person as he passed, and say, "There goes a man, one who has not a vice"—he would scarcely be noticed; but exclaim, "That man is worth $500,000," and he will be stared at till out of sight.

"You don't mean to say nothing friendly, you don't," as the rat said to the cat ven she bit him in the back.

Dow, Jr.—In Dow's last sermon, preached in New York, we find the following rich morsel:—

"Man looks upon life just as he does upon the women—there is no living with them, and he cant live without them. He will run after them, and rather than be held, he will loose his coat-tail and character—kisses them for love, and then kicks them for leading him into trouble. So with life, it say—he partakes of its pleasures and then thanks it for its pains—gathers boquets of bliss, and when their blossoms have faded, he finds himself in possession of a bush of briars—which is all owing to a little incident that occurred in Paradise when man was as green as a tobacco worm, and as unsuspicious as a tree toad in a thunder storm. He was then told to increase and multiply, and so he accordingly increased and multiplied his miseries, and peopled the world with a parcel of candidates for perdition!—and I am one of 'em."

A Beautiful Girl.—We use that word beautiful in a moral sense, though it may be equally applicable in any other. When great efforts were making in Baltimore to relieve the destitute situation of the Orphan boys in the Asylum, a beautiful and interesting little girl, hearing of the destitute situation of the orphan boys, insisted upon disposing of her little pets, the proceeds of which, together with other sums collected through her unremitting exertions, amounting in all to $65, were presented in person to the treasurer of the Asylum. Her pure and infant feeling led her to pursue the course recommended by our Saviour to the young man who, having kept all the commandments, asked—"What lack I yet?" Jesus said unto him—"If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast and give to the poor, and thou shall have treasure in heaven."

Postcript from a boy in Indiana to his father in New Orleans:

"Dear Daddy—Corn is dull and brother John is dead likewise. Excuse haste, (in a bad pain.)
—Your Omnipotent. J. P. C."

A man in Ohio was pursued lately by a black snake. All at once it occurred to him, just as the reptile was preparing to jump at his throat, to run round a small birch tree, which stood in his path, as tight as he could spring. He did so, until he got the creature in a snarl, when stopping suddenly, he threw a back somerset, and the snake trying to follow him, tied himself in a hard knot!

Can you swallow that?

"Make way, gentlemen," once cried a New Hampshire Representative, to the populace who were crowding him out of his place in the procession on election day, "Make way, we are the Representatives of the People."

"Make way, yourself," replied a sturdy member of the throng, "we are the people themselves."

Ready.—A young man stepped into a book store, and said he wanted to get 'A Young Man's Companion.' 'Well, sir,' said the bookseller, 'Here's my Daughter.'

Equivocal.—"Boy, who do you belong to?" asked a gentleman, the other day, as he stepped on board of a steamboat and saw a darkey listlessly leaning on the guards. "I did blong to Massa William, sir, when I come aboard; but he's been in de cabin playing poker wid de captain 'bove a hour; I don't know who I blong to now!"

Imaginary Wants.—If we create imaginary wants, why do we not create imaginary satisfactions? It is the happiest phrenzy of the two to be like the o...l Athenian, who thought all the ships that came into the harbor to be his own, than to be still tormenting ourselves with insatiate desire.

Awaggar Extra.—A Wall street wag, says the New York Courier, handed us yesterday, the following anagram. It is as the theatre folks and dry goods dealers say, "appropriate to the season."

Thomas Wilcox Darr. His mortal sword on.

The colored people of Rhoda Island deserve the good opinion and kind feelings of every citizen of the State, for their conduct during the recent troubles in Providence. They promptly volunteered their services for any duty in which they might be useful in maintaining law and order. Upwards of a hundred of them organized themselves for the purpose of acting as a city guard to extinguish fires, and for the protection of fires in case of their occurrence while the citizens were absent on military duty.—The fathers of these people were distinguished for their patriotism and bravery in the war of the revolution, and the Rhode Island colored regiment fought on one occasion until half their numbers were slain. There was not a regiment in the service which did more soldierly duty, or showed itself more devotedly patriotic.—N. Y. Courier.

A Good Rebuke.—Judge B——, had agreed to an arrangement for marrying his daughter to a blacksmith. His son, who entertained ideas more elevated than any of his ancestors, and was somewhat haughty in his general manner withal, when this astounding information first reached him, sought an immediate interview with his father, whom he found in company with several others. "Sir," said he to his father, "is that true which I hear, that you intend to marry my sister to a blacksmith?" "And pray, who are you, sir—and who are your ancestors?" "That, sir," replied the son, "I should expect to learn from you." "Oh, sir, you shall be gratified—your grandfathers were both weavers," and then, to the infinite enjoyment of the son, he amused him and the company with anecdotes of their exploits on the loom.

A blacksmith brought up his son, to whom he was very severe, to his own trade. One day the old vulcan was attempting to harden a cold chisel, but could not succeed. "Horsewhip it father," exclaimed the youth.—"If that will not harden it, nothing will."

Verdict.—In the great cloth case, which has excited so much attention in New York, the jury on Saturday, after an absence of 16 minutes, returned a verdict against Jesse Hoyt.

Remarkable Cure of Consumption.

I have been an invalid for three years, and have suffered every torture from confirmed consumption. But Dr. Taylor has wholly cured me. The large quantities of matters he used to raise has subsided, my cough has ceased, and I am fleshy again, my health being wholly restored by using three bottles of his celebrated Balsam. M. E. WINDLEY,
No. 139, Maides Lane, New York.

Shortness of Breath.

For this disease Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort has no equal. Having the Asthma, a severe pain in my left side, and some cough; I was induced to try the above medicine, and great was my joy to find it cured me in about two weeks. It also cured my mother of a severe attack of the Liver complaint, with which she had suffered two years. J. C. STONE.
23 Hall Place, New York.

Surprising Cure of Consumption.

Mr. R. Gladdin of Delhi New York, of a natural consumptuous constitution, has been saved from an untimely end by the use of Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort. A severe cold brought on an attack of Pleurisy, and thus ended in general debility and consumption. A constant cough, hectic flush, restless nights, quick pulse, and continued loss of flesh, augured a speedy death; but as soon as he commenced the use of this Balsam, he grew better, and is now fully restored to health. AGENT.

The composition of Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort is only known by the Proprietor, therefore it is dangerous using any but that from 375 Bowery.

TO THE PUBLIC.

We hereby certify that our son 6 years of age, was suddenly taken with a fever, and after a severe sickness a violent cough ensued.

He was blosted; his skin was filled, and his physician said there was no favorite symptom about him, that he had a confirmed consumption. At that time, we procured a bottle of that valuable medicine, Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort. After taking one bottle we began to have hopes of his recovery. He continued until he had used five bottles. It is now a year from that time, and his health is better than it has been since an infant.

DAVID & HANNAH ROGERS,
Granville, Washington co., N. Y.

For proof of the above statement, I refer to the subscriber above people of high respectability.
GEORGE TAYLOR.

Violent cough and cold cured.—The severe change of weather having given me a most violent cold, also expectoration and difficulty of breathing; I was much distressed until I took Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort. I found this medicine to suit my case and cured me at once which causes me to recommend it to others. J. FISHER, 17 Barrow st. N. Y.

Pain in the side and breast.—These diseases have caused me much trouble, and often prevented my attending to business. Every medicine I heard of I tried, but found no relief. As a last resource I concluded to try Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort. As soon as I did, I grew better, and have been gaining ever since; am now in good health, and can truly recommend this Balsam as being far superior to any thing else. A. L. GREEN, 2 Pitt st. N. Y.

Spitting of Blood Cured.—For four months I have had a discharge of blood from the lungs, almost daily. Also a dry hard cough, some pain, great weakness. After trying the doctors in vain for 3 months, I concluded to use Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort, of which three bottles have made an entire cure.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.
The great remedy.

FOR Consumptions and Liver Complaints, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup in Children, Whooping Cough, Pains or Weakness of the Breast, Chronic, Chronic, Coughs, and all diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

READ WHAT IT HAS DONE.

A Wonderful Recovery.—Mrs. S. E. Austin was attacked with this disease in the fall of 1838, originating from a violent cold which settled upon her lungs. Various remedies were resorted to—the most skilful physicians were consulted—yet step by step that fearful disease, consumption began to prey upon her. She became subject to violent fits of coughing, expectorated large quantities of matter and was evidently sinking very fast. In this distressing situation, after all the various remedies had been tried in vain, and when naught but the grave seemed to afford her any prospect of relief, the invaluable Balsam restored her to health; and now, in the place of that emaciated form, withering to decay, she is mingling in society, in better health and spirits than she has enjoyed for years. ☞ See description of this interesting case in Dr. Wistar's Treatise on Consumption.

Disinterested Testimony.—Having witnessed the surprising efficacy of Dr. Wistar's preparation of Wild Cherry, in the case of Mrs. Austin, I cheerfully recommend it as a valuable remedy, and acknowledged his statement true and correct.
J. H. WALTERS, M. D.
New York, April 19, 1841.

A Surprising Cure.—Mrs. Martha Wilson, a poor but highly respectable member of the Methodist church, was also afflicted with Consumption in its worst forms, and considered past recovery by all her friends. A bottle of this Balsam was presented to her, which relieved her immediately. This circumstance being made known to the members of the church, they purchased several bottles for her, which relieved her entirely. The same society have purchased over forty bottles, for persons in indilligent circumstances, and positively assert it has not been used in a single instance where it has not given surprising relief.

☞ We, the undersigned, members of the Dorbin Benevolent Society of the Methodist church, having examined the above statement of Mrs. Wilson's case, hereby certify it is in all respects true, and earnestly recommend Dr. Wistar's remedy to all who are afflicted.
George Miller, Mary Gardner,
Thomas Coombs, Elizabeth Jacobs.

Liver Complaint.—Mrs. Eliza Thompson was afflicted with this complaint for nearly five years, during which time she was under the most skilful physicians—had tried Mercury, Botanic, and Homœopathic remedies, and every thing that affored her any hopes of relief. She had dull, wandering pains in the side, sometimes in the shoulder and small of the back, a hacking cough, frequent pains in the breast, and has been unable to sleep on the right side for three years. By the use of this Balsam, she was cured in a few weeks, and remains well to this day.
ELIZA THOMPSON.
Roxborough, September 12, 1841.

Dear Sir—Please send me two bottles more of your Balsam of Wild Cherry, like that you sent me before. I have taken nearly all of the first, and confidently believe this medicine will cure me. I have used a great many remedies within the last year, but have never found any thing that has relieved me so much. It has stopped my cough entirely, checked my night sweats, and I sleep better at night and feel better in every way than I have for many months.
Your, respectfully, James Kelly.
Holmesburg, September 12, 1841.

Friend Wistar—I must again trouble thee to send me two bottles more of thy invaluable Balsam. I have now taken three bottles in all, and can assure thee that it has done me more good than all the medicine I have ever taken before. Send me by the stage as soon as possible, and oblige thy friend. Jacob Holloway.
Bristol, September 8, 1841.

Dear Doctor,—Hearing so many people talk about the wonderful cures your Balsam of Wild Cherry has made in Consumption, I sent to one of your Agents the other day for a bottle, and have found it to relieve me so much, that I want three bottles more sent soon, as I believe it will cure me too. I have used a great many balsams of different kinds, have tried Jayne's Expectorant and other medicines besides, but nothing has ever done me as much good as yours has. Send by the steamboat Bolivar. Yours truly,
William Thomas.

Pains in the Breast, Debility, Weakness and Cough.—The Rev. Dr. Dunlap has addressed us a letter in which he says two of his daughters had suffered severely with an obstinate cough frequent pains in the breast, &c., and appeared to be going into a rapid decline. By the use of a few bottles of this medicine they have entirely recovered and now enjoy excellent health.

Asthma Cured.—Mr. Jacob Snyder has authorized us to say that he was afflicted with this annoying complaint for several years and had tried every thing in vain. He was subject to constant wheezing, a troublesome Cough, Spitting of Phlegm, Pain in the Chest, and sometimes in the region of the Heart, and nothing else ever gave him relief.

Chronic Cough.—Mr. Isaac Rogers was also afflicted with an obstinate Cough, originating from a disease of the Lungs and Chest, and never found any thing to give him relief but this Balsam.

Such in fact is the nature and simplicity of this medicine, and so extraordinary have been many of the cures it has performed, that it has already attained the highest reputation, and although scarce two years have elapsed since it was first made public, we can proudly say, its fame has spread in every direction, and it is rapidly acquiring a celebrity unequalled by any medicine ever offered to public notice.

DRUGGISTS AND DEALERS

In every section of the country, will find this medicine an important and valuable addition to their stock, and should

ALWAYS KEEP IT ON HAND,

As it is not in our power to place it within the reach of all those afflicted, and there are doubtless; thousand suffering who would resort to it for relief if they could obtain it conveniently.

☞ Be particular when you purchase, to ask for Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, as there is an article called the "Syrup of Wild Cherry," advertised, which is entirely a different medicine.

NATURE'S OWN PRESCRIPTION.

A purely vegetable and highly approved Compound preparation of the Prunus Virginiana, or "Wild Cherry Bark"—approved by the College of Pharmacy, recommended by the medical faculty, and universally acknowledged the most valuable 'Family Medicine' ever discovered.

No Quackery! No Deception.

The physician may boast of his skill in many diseases—the quack may puff his wonderful cures, but of all the remedies ever discovered for diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is universally admitted nothing has ever proved as successful as that unrivalled medicine, Dr. Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which has effected some of the most astonishing cures ever recorded in the history of medicine.

Such indeed are the astonishing healing and restorative properties of this Balsam, that even in the advanced stages of consumption, and in Liver Complaints, diseases which have baffled the skill of the most distinguished physicians, when patients have suffered with the most distressing cough, great difficulty in breathing, night sweats, bleeding of the lungs, &c. after the most esteemed remedies of our Pharmacopeias have failed, this invaluable remedy has not only given surprising relief but actually effected cures after all hopes of a recovery had been entirely despaired of.

Besides its surprising efficacy in these formidable complaints, it has proved a very superior remedy for diseases of children, such as Croup, Whooping Cough, &c., and in those disorders that prevail so extensively throughout the winter season, such as Coughs, Colds, Pleurisy, Influenza, and Pains in the Breast, proceeding from neglected Colds, it stands unrivalled.

Extract from a letter from Nathaniel Atwood, Esq. of Easton, Pennsylvania.

Dear Sir:—I should consider it ungrateful, if did not inform you (and with my consent allow you to publish this,) that after having tried by the recommendation of my friends, almost every kind of medicine for coughs, colds, &c. I never found relief until lately having used Dr. Bechter's Pulmonary Preservative, recommended to me by your agent in this place, and which cured me of a violent cough, spitting of blood, pain in my breast, and shortness of breath, with all of which I have been afflicted for two years past. I am now however enjoying as good health as ever, and owe my recovery to the above valuable medicine.

Extract of a letter from the Rev. Israel Hopkins of Baltimore.

On your recommendation, I made use of Dr. Bechter's Pulmonary Preservative," and although I tried all other remedies for my cough, I never found relief except from the above medicine.
