Ma. Cusuing's Distaicr .- We see it stated in the Boston papers that the Apportionment Committe of the Massachusetts Legislature, have, in their arrangement of Congressional Districts, included Newburyport, the residence of Mr. Cushiug, in the 2nd District, now represented by Mr. Saltonstall. This would exclude Mr. C. from a re-election, if he were a candidate.

The St. Louis Bulletin, of last Thursday says: "We understand that forty Mormons arrived in this city yesterday on board the Rosalie, from Nauvoo. The absurdities or villanies of Joe Smith are getting too outrageous for even his misled followers."

COMMON SENSE .- No one is so foolish as to supboss for a moment that we can live without cating any poss for a moment that we can live without cating any more than a tree can derive nutriment from the air a-lone, without the soil. Chameleons may live on air, though it is well known that such air is full of living insects. All, therefore, know that it is what we put into the stomach which causes us to live. We make over our bodies from the stomach. In from three to Not over our our the standard in the interest of the standard is a part of us to-day is absolutely not a part of us to-morrow. The secretion, such as perspiration and other eracutations, continually make our bodies waste, and it is from the stomach that we supply this waste; all we have to do to make our bodies ultimate-by healthy is to program unbedies and bodies of the store to be the store to do to make our bodies. wate; all we have to do to make our bodies ultimate-ly healthy, is to prevent unhealthy particles from mix-ing with the blood. Purgation does this for us, pro-vided the purgative we employ contains in it nothing which will weaken or do us injury. Brandreth's Vegelable Universal Pills, for this pur-pose, will be found all that is required; because they purge from the stomach and bowels the superabun-dance of humors that may have accumulated in the system, before they have time to produce partifica-tion, and its natural consequences - death.
