MATRIMONIAL EXCHANGES -A London pa per gives the following review of the matrimo market:

The demand for hands has been flat. Rings have been heavy, and so were not fingered. Acceptances were at a discount-offers fluctuating. a Yes's" were in plenty, but no takers. Kisses were literally showered on new visiters. Hearts that were to be had for love went off unsteadily, and, in some cases at considerable risk; those with high interest engerly sought for, though in many cases, at a great risk to happiness.

who speculated boldly in toot touches, met with favorable returns. Sighs latterly were heavy, but small talk continued brisk throughout the season. Bright eyes looked up eccasionally, but soon fell again; though business continued to be done in blushes, silly looks were not in demand; but free and-easies rose to a high premium, and drove genuine modesty almost out of market.

The fat Ropes for raising weights up shafts and incline planes by steam power. The fat Rope is every much used in the mines of Europe, and for the purpose to which it is applied it has many and great advantages over the common round rope or chain.

T. J. will insure his flat Ropes to be made of the very best material, in the most careful and experienuine modesty almost out of market.

Maternal frowns were in considerable quanti ties, and prevented, it is thought, many imprudent bargains from being finally settled. Scandal kept its usual high ground; and more transactions occurred in that line, than in the three others put together. Serenades-particularly of wind instruments, were in great demand-during the equinox.

Shights were complained of by many dealers. On the whole, at the close of the season and markets, the single per cents were not much reduced, as compared with proceedings of former years; and there was a sluggishness in even improper flirtations, which had no doubt its share in casting a gloom and monotony over the general course of Exchange.

An old paster once stated that in the whole course of fifty years' peeaching, he never laughed but three times in the pulpit during the exercises of the Sabbath. One of these three times was on the following occasion:

The pews of the church were those old fashioned square once, so that people in different pews often est back to back, merely separated by a low railing or division. Now, it fell out one Sabbath that two old deacons, in two contiguous pows, had fallen in profound meditations, and closed their twice two eyes, and thrown their two my feet, not having for the last fourteen and a half heads back, until their two occiputs, with their two long queues dangling therefrom, had met together; and were quietly reposing for the benefit of the aforesaid internal meditations. There were some wicked people present, who scandalously insinuated that the two deacons were asleep, but I look upon it as a mere precaution for righteousness sake. However, there was an awfully depraved soung man in a third pew, that cornered ppon the two where the deacons were meditating; and what does this sacrilegious sinner do ? Why, he takes the two dangling queues aforesaid, and softly ties them firmly and closely together. And then, as if that were not enough to send him to perdition, he takes a pin and cruelly sticks it into one of the descons. Well, the descond jumped, of course, like a stuck pig, and the jump gave a horrid twich spon the two queues of both heads. "Let go my hair!" cried deacon number one.-"Let go my hair!" cried deacon number two .--'Twas now twitch and twitch-hit and hit-but the donouement must be left to the reader's imagination.

A school mistress advertised lately for an assistant accustomed to confinement. She received an answer from the mother of twelve children. Jane, what does snoze mean? don't blush my dear, kold up your head, and tell what snooze means.

· Please, Miss Splitzfiddle, I dont know." Don't know child-very strange-very. Can't you guess?' No ma'am I can't'

« Well what do you like to do after supper La! what does the child hold down her head for! here, Jane, look up and tell me what you love after supper. You are a great girl, almost eighteen now, and your clucation has been shockingly neglected. What is it you like after supper. O! Miss Splitzfiddle, I don't like to tell!'

Don't like to tell! nonsense out with it." Well, ma'am if I must tell Lloves Joe Snob, the miller to kiss me!"

O-o-o-o-o my gracious!" There is one debt, the debt of nature, which can never be repudiated. We should therefore be always ready to pay it. Why are ladies gowns about the waist like a camp meeting? Because there is a great gathering there! Why is a young lady like a careful house-wife Because her waist is as small as she can make it. · You are always in a bustle, Mary, said an old woman to her daughter. 'It's the fashion Ma.'

THE CANADIAN RIOTS .- We learn from the St. Catharine's Journal of the 1st 1st., that the vigorous military demonstration made against the rioters has been entirely successful in procuring the suspension of hostilities on all the several jobs, and that the contractors have again resumed operation. They have now determined for the future not to yield to the threats or violence of any gang of risters, but to employ and discharge as they think proper. The numerous arrests made of the tingleaders of the mob have caused a great number of others to leave the vicinity-some having recrossed the river, and others gone West. EXTRAORDINARY CASE. QUESEC, May 8, 1837. DEAR SIR:—An article called Dr. Hewes "Nerve and Rone Liniment," came to my knowledge about two months since, through our friend Mr. Campbell, and I procured a boutle and had used it for about years ever even made the attempt to stand: but my years ever even made the attempt to stand: but my confidence was so great that they consented to assist me from my bed. I found I could use my legs with apparent ease, but could not bear my weight on my feet. With support, however, I could place one foot before the other with a facility that astonished me and all around me. They led mo twice across the room; I sat down with feelings of happiness that I around the country before expectations. room; i sat down with leelings of happiness that I was once again to be restored to the world ran through my framelike an electric shock. My family, surrounded me in tears of joy, and the excitement so completely overcome me that I fainted. The same day I walked three time across the floor, again bearing a little weight at each time on my feet. I then used crutches for a few days, when my strength had become so far re-established, that I could cross the thier without the least aid. My advancement, from floo time has been almost incredible. I can walk two hundred yards and back with ease, and my children, (the bed-rid are often blessed, like me, with near a dozen,) have been so overjoyed that they could scarcely eat or sleep, and Mrs. Corning seems to feel balf a score of years younger herself. You will recollect how much bent together I was when you were last here. I have entirely overcome this. If I looked a sodd as I felt when I began to walk. I would ed as odd as I felt when I began to walk, I would have been gazed at in astonishment. I have seen ma-ny of my old acquaintances, some of whom dd not know me at all, and others would scarcely credit their senses, and would hardly have been more astonished, though one had "risen from the dead." I have now every confidence that I am a well man. I think this article is the most extraordinary of any I ever heard. of, and if it is not extensively made known to the pub-lic, I think the proprietors are very culpable. If you know the persons in New York selling it, you had bet-ter show them this letter, and let them refer to you.

MERRICK'S VERMIFUGE.

TillE best medical writers of the present age; agree in the opinion, that worms are the cause of many serious and many fatal diseases in children. Their presence may be suspected where the patient has a dry cough, a pale countenance, fout dreath, found lip, livid circle around the eyes, disturbed sleep, variable appente, alternate Diarhaz; Costiveness, enlouged stomach, &c.

These symptoms unless relleved; frequently produce epilepsy, apoplexy, maniac, dropsy of the brain, inflammation of the eyes, palsy, hiccup, dry cough, consumption, croup, dysentary; convulsions, fevers, &c., which terminate in death.

From the above, parents and others having the care of children, will see the propriety of being in possession of a suitible remedy, against the deleterious effects of these enimies to the health and happiness of children. Metrick's Vermituge has proved a certain, safe and pleasant care, as will be shown by numerous certificates shortly to be published, and is regarded by those that have tried it, as superior to all others in use. It is so pleasent that it may be given to the most delicate child, without inconvenience.

Also, the Pocahantas or Ledian Pills, for the care of all bilous diseases: this pill has proved to be decidedly the best purging pill ever offered to the public. It has permanently cured the most obstinate cases of dyspepsia, sick headache, jaundice, costiveness, bilious cholic, &c., and will prove servachle in all cases while the pulse is full and hard, the skin dry and hot, and the tongue coated. Full directions accompany the Vermituge and Indian Fill.
