THE NEW TABLES. - The British and French press do not generally relish our Tariff. It is amusing to see how they lavish their advice pon with two highly finished Sicel Engravines, and a us, how they, in one breath, speak of the injury colored plate of the Fashions. The contents are the Tariff is to inflict upon their trade, and in the of a high order from the pens of some of the first port profess indifference, so far as they are con- writers of the day-and is decidedly the best period cerned. The Courier Français indulges much lamentation and menace on the subject, and concludes ber contains 13 pieces of choice Music, among one of its articles thus; "Let us wait a little; there | which is the Bugle Quick Step by Fronk Johnswill soon be fatal discord between the Southern and Northern States on this subject." We are most roughly and anguly handled by La Presse. The official organs, according to Mr. Walsh, have endeavored to soften the case, and the Journal des Debats has labored prodigiously to invest M. de Bacourt with the brightest honors for the moddeclaring that it was necessary for him to exert an indefatigable activity with regard to French wines | advance. that on the very eve of the definite vote, he made a personal appeal to Mr. Senator Rives, who La Presse says, "is justly held in great estimation." .. But for the skilful management of our representative at Washington," says that paper. the issue of the projects and discussions would have been much more inauspicious for France."

It is instructive to note how the press of two nations that have pursued the restrictive system, as England and France have, thus deplore, and denounce, and protest against our revenue tariff, which embraces the principle of protection, incidentally, to a very moderate extent. There is one thing certain, and that is, that it is, least of all our interest to be guided by their counsels.-Rather let us take the opposite course to that they dictate, which we may be assured will be devised so as best to promote their advantages, regardless of our own interests .- Richmond Compiler.

TENNESSEE. The Nashville Banner in commenting on the result of the Ohio election, thus expresses the spirit of the gallant Whigs of Tennessee :- Let each Whig keep his colors s'reaming to the wind, and even in defeat, let him fall " with his flag flying and his face to the enemy." This is bur resolve and our determined purpose is, by all honorable means, to aid in prostrating the party which has inflicted so wide-spread and fatal a blight upon our beloved country. In Tennessee, thanks to the stern and unsleeping republicanism of the people, ALL 18 RIGHT. The re cent special elections - the tone of the public press - the thousand unequivocal signs of popular sentiment floating on the current of events, plainly show that here all is right. Then let our friends press on in the great work of securing the success of our revered principles-let it not be said that Tennessee falters when the despoilers of our national prosperity triumph-but if others give way, let the watchword be more enthusiastic -" Push on that column !"

Mr. Jony Know, one of the Loco Foco Representatives in Congress from this city, has written a letter to the N. Y. Free Trade A-sociation, denouncing the new Tariff and ridiculing the idea of protection to Home Industry, Among other characteristic expressions.

"Is not the labor of the American sailor, navigating the most distant parts of the Pacific. as much home industry as that of the loom at Low-'ell?' Is not the labor of the farmer in the far west as much entitled to the epubet of home industry as that of the manufacturer here at thesesboard ! Yet neither from that farmer or that saifor do we hear the cry every year in Congress to save them from foreign competition, or to tax their fellow citizens to enrich themselves."

Upon the strength of this letter, the Locofoces of New York have nominated John McKeon for re-election to Congress.

HARD MEN -The Spartan band of New York, according to the Boston Uncle Sam, recently sat down to a supper, at which they had a cake of peculiar character. The floor of which it was composed was iron filings-grape shot for plums, and baked in the crater of Vesuvius. They wash ed it down with a drink composed of melted lead, sweetened with copperas. Mike Walsh, however. reproving his compatriots for their effeminacy and luxuriousness, ate apart from the rest, contenting himself with a couple of fried thunder-bolts and a roasted lion's heart!

The Whigs of Maury county, Tennessee held a large and enthusiastic CLAY and BANK meeting at Columbia on Monday last. The effect upon to cofocoism is said to be ominous. The leaders have determined to get up a counter meeting .-The Observer says, in presenting a paper for signatures they have been met by several of the honest youmanry with the expression, "I am for the man who is for a national bank."-Banner.

The loco members of the Tennessee legislature have moved in favor of a national convention, to he held in Baltimore on the fourth Monday in November, 1843, and recommended the appointthent of delegates in the several states. We much doubt whether Mr. Calhonn will submit his claims to the decision of a convention-and we also doubt whether Mr. Van Buren will ever be nominated in any other way .-- N. Y. Aurora.

Geonora Election .- By the official returns, it appears that the average locofoco majority this year, in 2200; last year, 4186.
