Sweet words, God bless thee, Mother dear!
My own fond one, thou art to me A hope, a blessing and a guide— No more shall doubt and fear abide, I'll meekly learn my faith of thee.

"God bless thee! gentle words and kind, The offspring of a trusting mind—
They bear a pledge, when lips like thine Forgetting childhood's random speech, Do thus a higher lesson teach, And mystic words like these combine.

God shield thee, for a heart like thine; Where truth and tenderness combine, Alas! is doomed too much to know Of sympathies all vainly spent-Of love to blinding worship lent-And alklife's strange and hidden wo.

God shield thee, my poor, my gentle boy! Would that the cup of life and joy, Dashed from thy mother's lips away; Might with thine own of fate be blended. And all the ill for thee intended, Upon her bosom only prey. New York, July 20, 1812.

OLIPPINGS.

A GENUINE JEREMY DIDDLER .- Not long since, a fine specimon of the Diddler genus walked into a fine fushionable eating house in Baltimore, and saluting the host with that easy nonchalence peculiar to the tribe, called for dinner. drank a capital bottle of wine, a tumbler full of apple jack, and laid back to enjoy his Principe for a full hour by Shrewsbury's clock. After which he arose, buttoned up his surtout, and leisurely walked to the bar, said to the host, well, here I am, I'm ready.'
Ready for what, sir?'

. Ready to receive my kick. sir, that's all.' Kick! what do you mean! said the surpris ed host.

· Why, I have got no money, sir." . Why did you not say so in the first place ! Ah my dear fellow, I've tried that ouce too of

The excessive impudence so pleased mine host, that Jeremy was easily let off, A STORY THAT MADE US LAUGH .- Coming down the river on that pleasant and well-officered boat, the Pathfluder, we were told an excellent story-at least so it seemed to-us. Joel Green, when commanding another boat, had on board a dry, humorous pilot, named Pennington. A deck passenger, having drowned his cares, if he had amy to drown, in 'bald-face' whiskey, quietly laid down to sleep, and as quietly died. An hour or talked thickly and stommeringly. Having made his way to the hurricane deck, Pennington, who was at the wheel, for some time narrowly observed him, and at length thus accosted him.

Oh no, only slightly interrogated, was somewhere about the terif.

Halto, stranger, you're drunk!'

. Well. said Pennington. . let me give you a bit of advice. Don't go to eleep on this boat, for if they don't bury you may I be shot. Why, there was a chap yesterd ty got drunk and went to sleep, and in two hours they buried him. The man was no more dead, than I am. They serve all drunken men so on this foat. Why, I drink myself, and darsen't go to sleep on the bost. I haven't slept for two weeks, for if I close my eyes I know they'll bury me.'

Pennington's story so alarmed the passenger, that it perfectly sobered him, and he did not drink another draw on the boat .- Nat. Cour.

Bounowine Basins .-- Borrowing babies, says a Boston journal, is not so rare as Mrs. Clavers seems to imagine. In a house not a hundred miles from S atteet, boarded a man and his wife, who were the owners of a beautiful child, of about a year old, which attracted so much attention from the neighbors, that the young ladies opposite, frequently sent over to 'borrow the baby.' After being obliged to send for the child several times. Mr. ----, on coming home to dinner, got out of temper on finding it gone, as usual-Here, Jane,' said he, 'go over to the Misses ----, and get the baby! and give them my compliments, and tell them I wish they'd get a baby of their own, and not be obliged to borrow.

A WITT PARSON. - We do not know where we got the following, but it is from fair to middling, as the cotton br kers say. A Scotch clergyman by the name of Wetty Morrison, was man of great laughter and humor.

On one occasion a young officer scoffed at the idea that it required so much time and study to write a sermon, as ministers pretended, and offer. ed a bet that he would preach half an hour on amy passage in the Old Testament without any proparation. Mr. Morrison took the bet and the Ass opened his mouth and he spake. The parson won the wager, the officer being rather disinclined to employ his elequence upon that text.

Colors the Hair, and will not not skill?

On another occasion, Morrison entreated an officer to pardon a poor a ildier for some offices he decommitted. The officer agreed to do so, if he would in return grant him the first favor he should ask. Morrison agreed to this.—In a day or two, the officer demanded that the ceremony of baptism should be performed on a young puppy. The clergyman agreed to it; and a party of many genclargyman agreed to it; and a party of many gentlemen assembled to witness the novel babtism.

"Mr. Morrison desired the officer to hold up the dig as was customary in the baptism of children, and said, 4 as I am a minister of the church be Scotland, I must proceed according to the ceremonies of Scotland."

· Certainly, sir, said the Major, I expect all the resemony '

Well, then, M.jor, I begin with the usual question: You acknowledge yourself the father of this puppy! A roar of inughter burst from the crowd, the officer threw the candidate for baptism away. EXTRAORDINARY CASE. Quesec, May 8, 1837. DEAR SIR: —An article called Dr. Hewes "Nerve and Bone Limment," came to my knowledge a-bout two months since, through our friend Mr. Campbout two mantes since a transgriour friend in Camp-bell, and I procured a bottle and had used it for about a week without any material change, until one morn-ing I found myself under the exercise of very uncom-mon feelings, imagining that could I be helped up I could stand and walk, I requested my family to aid me, but they were unwilling I should trust myself on my feet, not having for the last fourteen and a half ears ever even made the attempt to stand; but in years ever even unde the attempt to stand; but my confidence was so great that they consented to assist me from my bed. I found I could use my legs with apparent ease, but could not bear my weight on my feet. With support, however, I could place one foot before the other with a facility that astonished me and all around me. They led me twice across the room; I sat down with feelings of happiness that I never before experienced; the idea was that I was once again to be rostored to the world ran through my frame like an electric shock. My family surrounded me in tears of foy, and the excitement so comdown to sleep, and as quietly died. An hour or so after, it was discovered that he was dead, the boat landed at a wood yard, and the defunct toper was deposited in an extempare coffin, and showelled away. Pannington looked and shooked his head, perhaps in discontent with all liquor because it had killed off one lover of it in this abrupt manner — perhaps dissatisfied with his hasty interment.

The next day a passenger came on board, who had evidently been looking at some one drinking, and whose repeated visitations to the bar had rather incapacitated him for forensic exercises. He taked thickly and stammeringly. Having made have been gazed at in astonishment. I have seen many of my old acquaintances, some of whom did not know me at all, and others would scarcely credit their senses, and would hardly have been more astonished, though one had "risen from the dead." I have now every confidence that I am a well man. I think this article is the most extraordinary of any I ever heard of and if it is not extensively made known to the public, I think the proprietors are very culpable. From the Courier and Enquirer. It would be preparterous in a writer for the readers of such a Journal as the Courier, to address the r ers of such a Journal as the Courter, to address their prejudices, passions or superstitions. Good common sense should at least be possessed by the readers of this paper, and those possessed of such, and those only do we care to attract. We will now assert, in the most unqualified terms, that an innocent remedy has been found, that will absolutely cure Rheumatism, and stiffness of joints, if of twenty years' standing. The assertion is so broad, that it will hardly obtain The assertion is so broad, that it will hardly obtain credence, we are aware, unless supported by uncommon testimony. Now the testimony given to so minny worthless quackeries isso abundant, that to discriminate between such, and real matter of fact testimony, is very difficult. To come at once at a point that can at once be appreciated, the proprietors have resolved to give this remedy to the poor, and to cure those able to pay for it, before they ask pay, and then leave it to the sufferer to pay what he chooses. We entreat, therefore, sufferers to call at 71 Maiden Lane, for some drops (Indian Elizir) to be taken, and a Nerve and Bone Liniment to use outwardly; and if they will not, by one week's use, become more surprised and delighted than they ever expected, we will now suffer for the want of this mild, innocent, and all potent remedy! New York, April 12, 1841.

A Surprising Cure—Mrs. Martha Wilson a poor but highly respectable member of the Mette odist church, was also afflicted with Consumption in its worst forms, and considered past re-covery by all her friends. A bottle of this Balsal was presented to her, which relieved her immediately. This circumstance being made known to the members of the church, they pur chased several bottles for her, which relieved her entirely. The same society have purchased over forty bottles, for persons in indiligent circumstances, and positively assert it has not been used in a single instance where it has not given surprising relief..

LF We, the undersigned, members of the Derbin Benevolent Society of the Methodist church, having examined the above statement of Mrs. Wilson's case, hereby certify it is in all respects true, and carnestly recommend Dr. Wistur's remedy to all who are efflicted.

GROUGE MILLER, MARY GARDVEZ,
THOMAS GOOMS, ELIZABETH JACOBS. Liver Complaint .- Mrs. Eliza Thompson was afflicted with this complaint for nearly five years, during which time she was under the most skil-ful physicians—had tried Mercury, Botanic, and Homospathic remedies, and every thing that alfored her any hopes of relief. She had dull, wandering pains in the side, sometimes in the shoulder and small of the back, a backing cough, frequent pains in the breast, and has been unable to sleep on the right side for three years. By the use of this Balsam, she was cured in a few weeks, and remains well to this day.

ELIZA THOMPSON.

Roxborough, September 12, 1841. Dear Sir-Please send me two bottles more of your Balsam of Wild Cherry, like that you sent me before. I have taken nearly all of the first, and confidently believe this medicine will cure me. I have used a great many remedies within the last year, but have never found any thing that has relieved me so much. It has stopped my cough entirely, checked my night sweats, and I sleep better at night and feel better in every way than I have for many months.

Youse, respectfully, JAMES KELLY.
Holmesburg, September 12, 1041. Friend Wistar-I must again trouble thee to send me two bottles more of thy invaluable Balsam. I have now taken three bottles in all, and can assure thee that it has done me more good than all the medicine I have ever taken before. Send me by the stage as soon as possible, and oblige thy friend. Jacob Holicoway.

Bristol, September 8, 1841.

Dear Doctor;—Hearing so many people talk about the wonderful cures your Balsam of Wild Cherry has made in Consumption, I sent to one of your Agents the other day for a hottle, and have found it to relieve me so much, that I want three buttles more seit soon, as I believe it will cure me too, I have used a great many balsans of different kinds, have tried Javne's Expectarant and other medicines besides, but nothing h. ever done me as much good as yours has. Send the steamboat Bolivar. WILLIAM THOMAS. PAINS IN THE BREAST, DEBILITY, WEAKNESS AND

Cough.-The Rev. Dr. Dunlap has addressed us a letter in which he says two of his daughters had suffered severely with an obstinate cough frequent pains in the breast, &c., and appeared to be going into a rapid decline. By the use of a few bottles of this medicine they have entirely recovered and now enjoy excellent health. Asthma Cured .- Mr. Jacob Snyder has authorized us to say that he was afflicted with this annoying complaint for several years and had constant wheezing, a troublesome Congh, Spitting of Phlegm, Pain in the Chest, and sometimes in the region of the Heart, and nothing else ever gave him relief.

Chronic Cough.—Mr. Isaac Rogers was also afflicted with an obstinate Cough, originating from a disease of the Lungs and Chest, and never found any thing to give him relief but this Bal-

Such in fact is the nature and simplicity of this medicine, and so extraordinary have been many of the cures it has performed, that it has already attained the highest reputation, and although scarce two years have elapsed since it was first made public, we can proudly say, its fame has spread in every direction, and it is tap-idly acquiring a celebrity unequalled by any medicine ever offered to public notice. DRUGGISTS AND DEALERS

In every section of the country, will find this medicine an important and valuable addition to their stock, and should ALWAYS KEEP IT ON HAND,

As it is not in our power to place it within the reach of all those afflicted, and there are doubtless; thousand suffering who would resort to it for relief if they could obtain it conveniently. OF Be particular when you purchase, to ask for Dr. Wistar's Balsan of Wild Cherry, as there is an article called the "Synur or Wild CHERRY" advertised, which is entirely a differ--NATURE'S OWN PRESCRIPTION. A purely vegetable and highly approved Comound preparation of the Prunus Virginiana, or Wild Charry Bark"-approved by the College of Pharmacy, recommended by the medical faculty, and universally acknowledged the most valuable Family Medicine ever discovered.

No Quackery! No Deception. The physician may boast of his skill in many diseases—the quack may pull his wonderful cures, but of all the remedies ever discovered for diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is universally admitted nothing has ever proved as success ful as that unrivalled medicine, Dr. Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which has effected some of the most astonishing cures ever recorded in the history of medicine.

Such indeed are the astonishing healing and restorative properties of this Balsam, that even n the advanced stages of consumption, and in Liver Complaints, diseases which have baffled the skill of the most distinguished physicians, when patients have suffered with the tressing cough, great difficulty in breathing, night sweats, bleeding of the lungs, &c. after the most esteemed remedies of our Pharmacopias have failed, this invaluable remedy has not only given surprising relief but actually effected cures, after all hopes of a recovery had been entirely de-

Besides its surprising efficacy in these formi dable complaints, it has proved a very superior remedy for diseases of children, such as Croup. Whooping Cough. &c., and in those disorders that prevail so extensively throughout the winer season, such as Coughs, Colds, Pleurisy, Inflaenza, and Pains in the Breast, proceeding from neglected Colds, it stands unrivalled.
