T. Hoon, vs. Guosts .- Ghosts be hanged. No such thing in nature; all laid long age, before the wood pavement. What should they come for ? The colliers may rise for higher wages, and the Chartists may rise for retorm, and Joseph Sturge may rise for his health, and bread may rise, and the rising generation may rise; but that the dead should rise only to make one's hair rise, Eva, by Bulwer, is more than I can credit. Si ppose yourself a ghost. Well, if you come out of your grave to terve a friend, how are you to help him? And if it is an enemy, what's the use of appearing to him if you can't pitch into him."

NEW ORLEANS INCUDATED. The last New Orleans Tropic says, that the New York vessels are vomiting forth their steerage loads of vagrants and ruffians every day, and our city is actually deluged with hundreds of individuals who make a profession of stealing a hyelshood in Orleans in the winter, and returning to the prosecution of their laulable calling in New York and the other Northern-cities in the summer. A most respectable batch of these disciples of Robert Dale Owen-the moral leveller and physical equalizer -were brought before Recorder Bertus yesterday. and sent to jail for further examination.

READ WHAT IT HAS DONE. A Wonderful Recovery - Mrs. S. Es Austin was stracked with this disease in the fall of 1838, originating from a violent cold which settled up on her lungs. Various remedies were resorted yet step by step that fearful disease, consumption began to prey upon her. She became subject to violent fits of coughing, expectorated large quantitles of matter and was evidently sinking very last. In this distressing situation, after all the various remedies had been tried in vain, and when naught but the grave seemed to afford her any prospect of relief, the invaluable Balsava're-stored her to health; and row, in the place of that emaciated form, withering to decay, she is mingling in society, in better health and spirits than she has enjoyed for years. A Surprising Cure—Mrs. Martha Wilson. poor but highly respectable member of the Meth. odist church, was also afflicted with Consumption in its worst forms, and considered past r covery by all her friends. A bottle of this Bal-sal was presented to her, which relieved her immediately. This circumstance being made known to the members of the church, they purchased several bottles for her, which relieved her entirely. The same society have purchased over forty bottles, for persons in indiligent cir. cumstances, and positively assert it has not been deed in a single instance where it has not given surprising relief.

To We, the undersigned, members of the Der bin Benevolent Society of the Methodist church, having examined the above statement of Mrs Wilson's case, hereby certify it is in all respects true, and earnestly recommend Dr. Wistar's romedy to all who are offlicted.

Dear Doctor.—Hearing so many people talk bont the wonderful cures your Balsam of Wild Cherry has made in Consumption, I sent to one of your Agents the other day for a bottle, and have found it to relieve me so much, that I want three bottles more sent soon, as I believe it will cure me too. I have used a great many balsams vne a Expecto rant and other medicines besides, but nothing has ever done me as much good as yours has. Send
