No Quackery ! No Deception. The physician may boast of this skill in many discases—the quack may puff his wonderful cares, but of all the remedics ever discovered for diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is universal- ly admitted nothing has ever proved as success ful as that univalled medicine, Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which has effected some of the most astonishing cures ever recorded in the history of medicine. Such indeed are the astonishing healing and restorative properties of this Balsam, that even in the advanced stages of consumption, and in Liper Complaints, disenses which have baffled the skill of the 'imost distinguished physicians, when patients have suff-rea with the most dis- tressing cough, great difficulty in breathing, night supeats, bleeding of the langs, &c. after the most states bleeding of the lungs, &c. after the most dale complaints, it has proved a very superior remedy for diseases of children, such as Group. Whooping Cough, &c., and in those disorders that prevail so extensively throughout the winter season, such as Coughs, Colds, Pleurisy, Influ- enza, and Pains in the Breast, proceeding from neglected Colds, it stands univalled.
