MENAGERIE.

THE PHILADELPHIA ZOOLOGICAL GARDEN,

UNITED WITH THE

NEW YORK INSTITUTE,

FOR THE YEAR 1843.

Under the Direction of Mr. H. Hopkins & Co.,

WILL be exhibited at Pottsville, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 22d, 23d, and 24th. Doors open the 22d, from 7½ to 10 o'clock P. M.; on 23d and 24th, from 2 to 5, and from 7½ to 10 P. M. Admittance 25 cents, children under ten years of age, half price.

New and splendid Scenery, done in oil paintings by one of the best artists in Philadelphia, decorates the sides of 20 waggons, all containing animals of different descriptions, affording one of the most rich and animating displays ever brought forth, all the designs being of to late test finish and most admirable fashion. To enliven this scene, on entering the town a high-toned band will pour forth some of the most fashionable airs.

The celebrated JOHN SCHAFFER, the subduer of the savage denizens of the forest, will appear in a most magnificent series of scenes entitled "The dreadful doom of the Sultan's slave." Among a variety of thrilling situations, the following will be exhibited:—The outcast slave banished to the forest of Fahri, expiring from hunger and fatigue; when a fierce Brazillian Tiger darts like lightning upon him from an upper cavern.

The Eastern despot's most awful sentence! Forfeited life spared on condition of training a wild lion to harness, which is accomplished, and the slave rides across the road in an ancient car.

Also, a variety of other beautiful and striking situations will be presented during the progress of the piece, to conclude with the most bold, grand and daring human display presented among a whole caravan of wild animals let loose at the same time, upon the Indian Slave, who will gradually subdue, and playfully exhibit his remarkable skill in elegantly grouping the matchless zoological exhibition.

For particulars see large bills at the hotels.

The above will be exhibited at Tamaqua on Tuesday, 20th. Minersville on Wednesday, the 21st of June.
