A STRONG VERDICT .- About the commence ment of the present century, a black fellow, who had lived at the North End of Boston, suddenly disappeared, and it was thought that he had drowned himself. Accordingly diligent search was made, and at the end of two days his body was found in a dock in Charlestown. As is usual in such cases a jury was called; and as the story goes, (which is true for all we know.) they were all men of color. After, some deliberation, they brought in a verdict something as follows: - Dat, going home one berry dark night, he fell from the wharf, and was killed; and the tide coming in strong, it floated him over to Charlestown, and he was drozoned; dat the wedder being berry cold, he froze to death!' The Coroner, who was very waggish, notwithstanding the solemnity of the occasion, said, you may as well add, died in the August 10 to an order in favor of MiwoolP

FROM Dow's SERMON. My worthy friendsit is all nonsense to suppose that you will for a certhinly be happier to morrow than you are to-day. The evening sun that goes down in the midst of glory may rise in the morning surrounded with the darkest of clouds. The path of life is a path of joy and sorrow. The thorns, flowers, thistles and briars, are so intermingled that it is almost impossible to gather the flowers of bliss without undergoing a few scratchings, or run the risk of being poisoned by pernicious plants. In the morning of existence, man commences his pilgrimage full of hope, glee and anticipation. The fragrant June 7 to an order in favor of John dews of youth impart a delightful perfume to his Saylor Saylor June 5 to an order in favor of Fredeward from grove to grove, which he is just fool enough to think he can capture by laying a handful of salt on its tail. The butterflies of fancy and imagination flit before him; but when he thinks he has them safe in his grasp their beautiful wings crumble to dust, and are borne away by the winds of disappointment. Don't, my friends, place any reliance on being happier tomorrow than you are to day; but contrive to m.ke yourselves comfortable for the present, by the exercise of industry, honesty, prudence, sobernces, and piety, and peace will attend you even to the confines of eternity. In mis speech at Rochester, Mr. Adams thus neatly complimented the enterprise and character of its people:

"In what has been accomplished to make your city what it is, the aged have done most. The. middle-aged may say we will improve upon what has been done; and the young, we shall accomplish still more than our fathers. That, fellowcitizens, was the boast in the encient Spartan procossion a procession which was divided into three classes—the old, the middle-aged, and the younger and they had a saying, which each class

The aged said: "We have been in days of old. Wise and gentle, brave and bold." The middle aged said:

"We in our turn your place supply; Who doubt it let him come and try And the boys said:

"Hercafter, at our country's call. We promise to surpass you all."

'And so it will be with you -each in your order." CLERICAL BREVITY .- Dr. Emmons, formerly of Franklin, and Dr. Griffin, once of Andover, and afterwards President of William College, were eminent divines of the orthodox school in this State, and personal friends. The former publ sied a sermon many, years ago, upon some doctri nal point (the Atonement, we believe) which was not well received by many of his brethron; and Dr. Giffin among the rest. The following correspirilence took place between these two, which

Dr. Griffin wrate to Dr. Emmons: Dear Sir-I have read your sermon upon, the Atonement, and wept over it. Truly yours, E. D. Gu FFIS. Dr. Emmans replied instanter:

for its pith and brevity, is worthy of preservation.

Dear Sir-I have received your letter relative to my sermon, and laughed over it. Yours truly, NATR'L EMMONS.

It is not known that the correspondence was con inued any farther - Barre Gazette.

Schuylkill Haven, July 29, JAYNE'S TONIC VERMIFUGE.—Some medicines warranted to "destroy worms in children," are very well calculated to destroy the children too. This is not the case with Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge. It does not contain a single ingredient which can harm the most delicate infant, and yet it expels Worms from the system with a facility, and certainty, perfectly astonishing. Not is this its only sanative property: It is a fine Stomachic, and in remittant and intermittant evers has been administered with most gratifying results.—Obstinate cases of Piles, have yielded to its influence, and its tonic qualities render it an excellent medicine in the convalescent stage of all diseases. It is excedingly pleasant to the taste:

SHERMAN'S COUGH LOZENGERS are the salest, most sure and effectual remedy for Colds, Consumption, Whooping Cougn; Asthma, tight ness of the Lungs or Chest, Ac. &c.

Mr. J.thn Starkey, foot of Gouverneur st., cured of cough of eighteen month's standing, supposed to be a settled Consumption, by these Lozenges, when the obysicians could do nothing for him.

Mr. Charles W. Perkins, 71 Bowery, was cured of a severe cough and cold of three month's standing, by half a box of the Lozenges...

Rev. Mr. Hancock, 197 Pearl st., has used them in his family with invariable success, and recommends them to all who are afflicted with coughs, colds, or ny affections of the lungs.

Mr. M. E. Martin suffered several weeks with a distressing cough, which nothing relieved, till he tried there Lozenges, which cured him in a few hours. Mr. James W. Hale, No 5 Tontine Buildings, Will Mr. James W. Hale. No. 5 Tontine Buildings, Will st., gave some to a friend who had not enjoyed a night's sleep for several weeks, being every few minutes attacked with some distressing cough, as almost to take away his life. The Lozenges made him raise easy, and enabled him to sleep well at nigh. He had tried every thing else he heard of, and nothing else afforded the least relief—another instance of saving a fellow-being from an untimely grave.

SHERMAN'S WORM LOZENGERS Proved in more than 40,000 cases to be infallible the only certain worm-destroying medicine ever dis covered.

Symptoms of Worms.—Pain in the joints or limbs, offensive breath, picking at the nose grinding of the teeth during sleep, and at times a paleness about the lips with flushed cheeks bleeding at the nose, a gnawing sensation at the stomach, flashes of heat over the spriace of he, body, slight chills or shiverings, head-ache, drowsiness, vertigo, torpor, disturbed dreams, sudden starting in sleep with fright and screaming, sometimes a troublesome cough, feverishness, thirs-nialid hue, fits, bad taste in the mouth, difficult breath mailed hue, hits, but juste in the mouth, difficult oreating, pain in the stomach or Bowels, fatigue, nausea, queamishness, voracious appetite, leanness, bloated atomach or limbs, gripings, shooting pains in various parts of the body, a sense of something rising 1a the throat, inching of the anus towards night, a frquent desire to pass something from the bowels, and some-times discharges of slime and mucus.

Dr. Galen Hunter, 108Sixth Avenue, knew a child that was cured of his by these Lozengers, after three year's suffering, and when nothing else would give the least relief. A boy on board of one of the Havre packets, was cured of fits by only one dose of them.

WILLIAM L. DE BORFON

Reading, April 29, 1843. THE POCAHONTAS, OR INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS.

HE remedies prescribed for the core of dis cases, have correctly been divided into classes according to their operation upon the human system. Thus we have one class which causes the stomach to tject its contents, called emotics, another inducing perspiration called dicophoret-ics and a third which evacuates the stomach and bowels, denominated cathartics, &c. Catharties or purging medicines, have in every age and country been the favourities of the physicians for the cure of the mest obstinate and alarming maassigned to them, the important function of digestion, or the conversion of food into blood, that vital fluid intended for the growth and nourish ment of the whole system. It follows that when ever the digestion organs become depraved or disqualified for the healthy performance of their duty (and this occurs daily in civilized society) impure blood, and consequently disease are the

It has been remarked, that whenever the stomach is not oscfully employed it is always at mischief. That individual who would deny that the most tormidable diseases are daily cured by the use of Pills compounded and for sale in almost every hamlet of our country, would certain ly risk his reputation for veracity. The Poca-hontas, or Indian Vegetable Pills cleanse the stomach, purify the blood and remove inflama-tion, and have proved eminently useful in curing bilious fever, bilious cholic, inflammation of the liver, rheumatism, dropsy, jaundice, plenrisy, costiveness, &c. &c. Females of sedentary habits and subject to indigestion, flatulency, headache, depression of spirits and uncasiness, will find relief from the use of these pills. There is not a disease attended with a full pulse, a dry show the benefit derived from these pills in a vecommon disease:
