Low Pursuits.

'To daily much with subjects mean and low,
Proves that the mind is weak, or makes it so.
Neglected talents rust into decay,
And every effort ends in push-pin play.
The man that means success, should soar above
A soldier's feather, or a lady's glove.
Elect, summoning the muse to such a theme,
The fruit of all her labor is whipp'd cream.
As an eagle flew aloft and then—
Stoop'd from its highest pitch to pounce a wren:
As if the poet, purposing to wed,
Should crave himself a wife in gingerbread."

ROUGH AND TUMBLE.—The N. O. Tropic tells the following story:—A Frenchman who knew very little of our language, unfortunately got into a difficulty with a back countryman, and fight he must, and that too, rough and tumbie. But before he went at it, he was very anxious to know what he should cry out if he found himself whipped. After being informed that when he was satisfied, all that he would have to do would be to cry out enough, at it they went; but poor Monsieur, in his difficulties, forgot the word, and finding his eyes were likely to be removed from their sockets, he began to cry out; but instead of saying what he was told, he commenced bawling lustily, hurrah! hurrah!! hurrah!!! To his astonishment, the countryman kept pounding and gouging the harder, when Monsieur finding there was no use in hallooing, turned and went to work in such good earnest, that it was not long before the countryman sung out in a stentorian voice, enough! Say that again, said the Frenchman.—Enough! enough! cried he again: when the Frenchman in his turn, broke out—"Begar dat is de vare word I was try to say long time ago."

SELLING POTATOES.—A farmer, driving a yoke of fractious oxen before a load of potatoes, proposed to sell his produce in this manner:—Whoa, hush! I say, mister, you don't want to buy any of my—whoa, hush!—taters, duz ye!' 'Suppose we do, what's the price!' 'Well they ought to be worth—whoa, hush!—two and six, hadn't they!' 'That isn't far out of the way; what do you say for ready cash!' 'Why seeing it's you, I'll put them at—whoa, hush!—two shillins, I guess.' 'You havn't a bad pair of cattle.' 'Crotch all bedlam! did ye ever!—whoa, hush!—what in tophet has got into ye!' 'High feed is all the difficulty.'—'Why now, look here, all under the light of the canopy they get to eatin—whoa, Lush!—out straw and that aint more'n half thrashed. But I guess I'll have to—bush!—go, for the tarnal varmints won't—whoa, hush!—stand, no how. Good day.'

WESTERN ELOQUENCE.—The last and best specimen of western eloquence, that we have seen, is given in the Wheeling Gazette, as follows:

The law expressly declares, gentlemen, in the beautiful language of Shakspeare, that where no doubt exists of the guilt of the prisoner, it is your duty to lean upon the side of justice, and fetch him in innocent. If you keep this fact in view in the case of my client, gentlemen, you will have the honor of making a friend of him and all his relations, and you can always look upon this occasion, and reflect with pleasure that you did as you have been done by. But if, on the other hand you disregard this principle of law, and set a naught my eloquent remarks, and fetch him in guilty, the silent twitches of conscience will follow you all over every cornfield, I reckon, and my injured and down trodden client will be pretty apt to light on you one of these dark nights, as my cat lights on a saucer full of new milk!

A GOOD ONE.—Soon after the close of the war of 1812, an American vessel with a crew of green Yankees, moored at St. Catharines Dock, in London. One of the Yankees pitched into a large warehouse, and the proprietor, presuming from his appearance that he was a green one, thus accosted him:

'Fi-fi-ri-rind, ca-can you-t-tell m-m.' Here his stuttering stopped his speech, and his bookkeeper advanced to his assistance, saying:

'He was going to ask you if you knew why Balaam's ass spoke.'

'Well, I guess I do,' replied Jonathan; 'I guess Balaam was a stuttering man, and couldn't speak, so his ass spoke for him.'

BRIGHT YOUTH.—'Daddy, daddy, who pays for the education of fish!'

'Why nobody, you silly boy.'

'Do they get their teachin' for nothin'!'

'They don't get any teachin' nor education, you rumskull you.'

'Well, then the paper lies, dad.'

'How so, sonny!'

'Cause they talk about the fishes in the sea runnin' in schools!'

'Go to bed, you prognosticatious varmint you,' said the wondering daddy.

A FABLE.—A certain crab cast upon the shore by the tide, and eager to regain its native element, was walking, as was his custom, sideways, to the water's edge. By the way, he met with an eel in the same predicament; but he, like most other people, travelled with his head foremost. 'I do not see, sir,' said the eel, 'why you should refuse to conform to the customs of the world and the habits of society, therefore, I will thank you to turn about and walk like other people.' The crab maintained his right to walk as he pleased, more especially as it was the only way he could walk. The eel persisted. A quarrel ensued: meantime the tide went out, and neither party being able to reach the water, backward or forward, they were left to die of thirst upon the sand.

THE SOLDIER'S DUTIES.—Let us learn the soldier's duties (!) from Suwarrow's Catechism, a sort of Military Manual, a series of directions by that great general to his soldiers. 'Push hard with the bayonet. The ball will lose its way—the bayonet never. Stab once—and off with the Turk from the bayonet. Stab the second. Stab the third. A hero will stab half a dozen. If three attack you, stab the first, fire on the second, and bayonet the third.'

What business this for a Christian—for any human being! No wonder that it so inures even boys to the foulest crimes, and makes them murderers, pirates, villains of every name and degree!

Macintosh, the inventor of the water-proof cloth, whose name is dead.

FOR

CONSUMPTION OF THE LUNGS,

Affections of the Liver, Asthma, Bronchitis, Pain or Weakness of the Breast or Lungs, Chronic Coughs, Pleurisy, Hemorrhage of the Lungs, and all affections of the Pulmonary Organs.

NATURE'S OWN PRESCRIPTION.

A compound Balsamic preparation of the Prunus Virginiana or "Wild Cherry Bark," combined with the Extract of Tar, prepared by a new chemical process, approved and recommended by the most distinguished physicians, and universally acknowleged the most valuable medicine ever discovered.

No Quackery!!! No Deception.

In setting forth the virtues of this truly great medicine, we have no desire to deceive those who are labouring under affliction, nor do we wish to eulogize it more than it justly deserves. Yet when we look around and see the vast amount of suffering and distress occasioned by many of the diseases in which this medicine has proved so highly successful, we feel that we cannot urge its claims too strongly, or say too much in its favour.

Various remedies it is true have been offered, and puffed into notice for the cure of diseases of the Lungs, and some have no doubt been found very useful, but of all that have yet been discovered, it is admitted by physicians and all who have witnessed its effects, that none has proved as successful as this. Such indeed, are the

SURPRISING VIRTUES

Of this Balsam, that even in the advanced stages of CONSUMPTION, after all the most esteemed remedies of physicians have failed to effect any change; the use of this medicine has been productive of the most astonishing relief, and actually effected cures after all hopes of recovery had been despaired of.

In the first stages of the disease, termed "Catarrhal Consumption," originating from neglected COLD, it has been used with undeviating success, and hundreds acknowledge they owe the restoration of their health to this invaluable medicine alone. In that form of Consumption so prevalent amongst delicate young females, commonly termed debility, or

"GOING INTO A DECLINE,"

A complaint with which thousands are lingering, it has also proved highly successful, and not only possesses the power of checking the progress of this alarming complaint, but also strengthens and invigorates the system more effectually than any medicine we have ever possessed.

Besides its surprising efficacy in Consumption, it is equally efficacious in Liver Complaints, Asthma, Bronchitis, and all affections of the Lungs, and has cured many of the most obstinate cases, after every other remedy had failed. ☞ For particulars see Dr. Wistar's Treatise on Consumption, to be had of the agents.

The Extraordinary Success

Attending the use of this medicine in diseases of the Lungs, and the many singular cures it has effected, having fully established its efficacy, and as we have already published numerous certificates from the highest authority, which prove its virtues beyond all doubt, we consider it unnecessary to exhibit a long list of them in this place, and will only mention a few cases to show what it has done.

WHILE LIFE REMAINS
WE HAVE STILL SOME HOPE.

A SURPRISING CURE.—Among the many singular cures which this medicine has effected, there is perhaps none in which its powers are so fully shown as in the case of Mrs. Austin.

This lady had been consumptive for several years, and during the greater part of this time had received the best medical attention, and tried all the most valuable remedies, yet nothing could be found to arrest its progress. She became subject to violent fits of coughing, expectorated large quantities of matter occasionally tinged with blood, and step by step this fearful disease continued its course, until all hopes of a recovery was entirely despaired of. While in this distressing situation, lingering upon the very verge of the grave, she commenced the use of this Balsam, which to use her own expression, operated almost like a charm. In a few days she expectorated freely, the cough was gradually suppressed, and every day appeared to add fresh vigour to her looks, and now, in the place of that emaciated form withering to decay, she is seen mingling in society, in better health than she has enjoyed for years.

DISINTERESTED TESTIMONY.—Having witnessed the surprising efficacy of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, in the case of Mrs. Austin, I cheerfully acknowledge the above statement to be true and correct.

J. N. WALTERS, M. D.

LIVER COMPLAINT.—Mrs. Eliza Thompson was afflicted with this complaint for nearly five years, during which time she was under the most skilful physicians—had tried Mercury, Botanic, and Homœopathic remedies, and every thing that offered her any hopes of relief. She had dull, wandering pains in the side, sometimes in the shoulder and small of the back, a hacking cough, frequent pains in the breast, and had been unable to sleep on the right side for three years.—By the use of this Balsam, she was cured in a few weeks, and remains well to this day.

ELIZA THOMPSON.
Woodstown, Sept. 4, 1841.

Dear Sir:—Although your invaluable medicine has already found hundreds of powerful advocates, it may still be gratifying to you to receive a communication from any one that has been relieved by it. Such, Sir, is truly my case. I have been a victim to that terrible disease Consumption, for many months, and have suffered so much, that I had become almost weary of my life. Hearing your Balsam so highly praised, I began taking it a few weeks back, and can assure you it has relieved me more than any thing I have ever used before, and I confidently believe it will cure me effectually. Please give the bearer the worth of the enclosed, and oblige,

Yours Respectfully,
JOHN PEARSON.
Chester County, Sept. 6, 1841.

Friend Wistar:—It gives me much pleasure to inform thee that my wife's health has improved very much since she has been using thy Balsam of Wild Cherry, and we think there is no doubt but it will cure her. She has taken the two bottles I purchased from thee a short time since, and her cough is much better, she also sleeps well at night, and says she has found nothing to give her so much relief. Thee will please give the bearer two bottles more for

Thy Friend, EDWARD HOLMES.
Lancaster County, July, 18, 1841.

Dear Sir:—Please send me two bottles of your genuine Balsam of Wild Cherry. I have been afflicted with Consumption for the last two years and suffered very much with a severe cough, pains in my breast, difficulty of breathing, night sweats, &c., and having tried numerous remedies, and also been under several doctors, yet I could not find any thing to relieve me until I used some of your Balsam. I got one bottle from a neighbor, of mine who is using it, and have found such wonderful relief from it that I have no doubt it will cure me effectually.

Very respectfully yours, &c,
ROBERT HOMMAN.

☞ Read the following from Dr. Jacob Hoffman, a physician of extensive practice in Huntingdon county.

Dear Sir,—I procured one bottle of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, from Thomas Reed, Esq., of this place, and tried it in a case of obstinate Asthma, on a child of Paul Schwebie, in which many other remedies had been tried without any relief. The Balsam gave sudden relief, and in my opinion, the child is effectually cured by its use. Yours, &c.,

JACOB HOFFMAN, M. D.
December 23d, 1841.

Dear Sir,—Your Balsam of Wild Cherry has effected some astonishing cures here. One of which is an old lady, Mrs. Russell, who had been suffering for a long time with shortness of breathing, and general weakness, until she was finally obliged to keep her bed. After various other remedies had been resorted to in vain, she commenced using your Balsam, and after taking two bottles, was so far recovered as to be able to attend to all the duties of her house, and on taking two bottles more was entirely cured.

Respectfully &c,
JOHN S. C. MARTIN.

A NEW FOUNTAIN OF LIFE HAS OPENED.

AND its healing streams now gushing forth. A brilliant star has arisen in the East, and now cheering thousands with RENEWED HEALTH, LONG LIFE, AND HAPPINESS.

That Star is
DR. REICHTER'S VEGETABLE PURGATIVE PILLS.

These pills, let all understand, cure disease by a power peculiar only to itself, which instantly checks the action and progress of disease, for their commencement is much alike (which is when the

BLOOD AND JUICES

are so far depraved, as to produce obstructions and sores) that one medicine, provided it be competent to produce sickness, will be all that is necessary for removing disease, and restoring to mankind. Let it likewise be remembered, that there is no medicine now in existence possessing equal healing powers; and that no vegetable, or any other kind of physic can so soon restore health, when lost, even in cases the most inveterate.

HEALTH AND HAPPINESS

The action of these pills upon the bowels, are mild; producing no griping pains or debility, but on the contrary, after they have operated, you feel that a load of irritating and corrupt humors have been taken from you, and the buoyant feelings of health spring up in their place; and what is another great object in these pills, they are always safe, they may be taken on all occasions, and under any circumstances, without regard to the name of the disease, for they operate upon every part of the body, and expel disease from whatever part it may be seated. Every person who possesses a box of these pills for in them he can find a cure, and confidently rely upon a speedy restoration to health,

In Germany, the land of their origin, millions of persons have experienced their beneficial effects, and the thousands who have used them here, speak of them in the highest of terms, on account of their curative properties.

The joyful news of health and comfort, spreads from those who have happily used

DR. REICHTER'S
VEGETABLE PURGATIVE PILLS.

and they now prevail by their own excellence, and the Power of Truth.

And why, we may reasonably inquire, have they become so endeared to the hearts of those who have used them, and by them gained such a popularity? Simply because their action upon the

HUMAN BODY,

was as the sun and rain upon vegetation, giving new life to all who partook of its happy influence. As the health of the plant depends upon the sap which circulates through its branches, so the life and health of mankind depends upon the blood which flows through his veins. And when this vital fluid, which is most necessary to the growth and support of the body, by some unknown cause becomes loaded with morbid and

CORRUPT HUMORS,

so that instead of nourishing and strengthening the body, it labors to produce obstructions in the system, which engenders disease, have recourse to a medicine that is perfectly safe in every disease, and that will produce a favorable termination, if given early in the complaint, frequently in a few hours and most always in a few days, that medicine is

Dr. Reichter's Vegetable Pills, which so throughly cleanses the blood and system at large, that disease of any kind cannot, possibly exist, where

We find their Presence, provided nature is not beyond all human assistance. The price of these pills is 25 cents per box, with full directions, and can be had at the

GREENFIELD, Pa., Oct, 10, 1842.

Dear Sir: you doubtless remember my calling at your establishment about two weeks since, and obtaining from you one dollar's worth of DR. RIECHTER'S VEGETABLE PURGATIVE PILLS, for one of my neighbors who requested me to procure the article for them. This being done and my own business transacted, I started for home. After travelling all day, I was taken with a sudden chill, which left me with a violent fever, head-ache, and considerable pain throughout my whole system, with great sickness at my stomach, which so completely disenabled me that I was compelled to stop at a small Inn on the road for relief and rest. Upon inquiry, they had nothing that could possibly afford me relief. While yet in misery, for I never was so ill in all my life, I happily thought of your pills, and resolved to open one box upon my own account and seek relief in them. I took six of them drank a warm cup of tea, and retired to bed. My pain here ceased in a measure, and I soon fell sound asleep. In the morning I awoke much better, and after the pills had operated I was quite a different person; took another dose of four pills, remained there all Wednesday, and on Thursday started for home as well as ever, and I still enjoy good health—the persons for whom I bought them, informs me that they have experienced more benefit from your pills than a whole cart load of the quacks which they had formerly used. Surely if they used them with as good an effect upon themselves as I have, they have good reason for extoling their virtues; and if you take my advice, you will persevere, go on and recommend them to all who are laboring under disease, and my word for it, they will become so popular as a general remedy that you will find it difficult in supplying the demand.

THE POCAHONTAS, OR INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS.

THE remedies prescribed for the cure of diseases, have correctly been divided into classes according to their operation upon the human system. Thus we have one class which causes the stomach to eject its contents, called emetics, another inducing perspiration called diaphoretics and a third which evacuates the stomach and bowels, denominated cathartics, &c. Cathartics or purging medicines, have in every age and country been the favourites of the physicians for the cure of the most obstinate and alarming maladies. The wonderful success attending this mode of treatment will readily be understood when we reflect that the stomach and bowels have assigned to them, the important function of digestion, or the conversion of food into blood, that vital fluid intended for the growth and nourishment of the whole system. It follows that whenever the digestion organs become depraved or disqualified for the healthy performance of their duty (and this occurs daily in civilized society) impure blood, and consequently disease are the results.

It has been remarked, that whenever the stomach is not usefully employed it is always at mischief. That individual who would deny that the most formidable diseases are daily cured by the use of Pills compounded and for sale in almost every hamlet of our country, would certainly risk his reputation for veracity. The Pocahontas, or Indian Vegetable Pills cleanse the stomach, purify the blood and remove inflamation, and have proved eminently useful in curing bilious fever, bilious cholic, inflammation of the liver, rheumatism, dropsy, jaundice, pleurisy, costiveness, &c. &c. Females of sedentary habits and subject to indigestion, flatulency, headache, depression of spirits and uneasiness, will find relief from the use of these pills. There is not a disease attended with a full pulse, a dry skin, and a coated tongue, that these pills will not relieve. The following simple narrative will show the benefit derived from these pills in a very common disease:

CERTIFICATE.

Having been cured by the use of the Pocahontas Pill of an alarming disease of the liver of several years standing, I deem it a duty to make my case known to the public, for the benefit of others. I had taken various remedies which afforded only temporary relief, after using two boxes of these pills, my disease yielded, and I have enjoyed good health for the last six months.

PURE WHITE LEAD.

WETHERILL & BROTHER, manufacturers, No 65 north Front street, Philadelphia, have now a good supply of their warranted pure white lead, and those customers who have been sparingly supplied in consequence of a run on the article, shall now have their orders filled.

No known substance possesses those preservative and beautifying properies so desirable in a paint, to an equal extent with unadulterated white lead; hence any admixture of other materials only mars its value. It has therefore been the steady aim of the manufacturers, for many years, to supply to the public a perfectly pure white lead; and the unceasing demand for the article is proof that it has met with favor. It is invariably branded on one head—WETHERILL & BROTHER'S, in full, and on the other, WARRANTED PURE—all in red letters.
