MOST GLORIOUS WHIG TRIUMPR IN BALTImone. -- I send you glorious news this morning, such as will make the hearts of the great Whig cutting.

Such as will make the hearts of the great Whig Pottsville, Oct. 7, 1843. party of the Union beat in joyous exultation, The enclosed extract from the morning edition of the Patriot, tells the story of our triumph in a most intelligible language, the language of figures " which cannot lie."

We claim this victory as decisive of where the great Young Men's National Convention shall be held; and our Philadelphia friends will now scarcely deny that we have gained the laurels, and wish that as we "won it well," so we say wear it long." We have no return from the counties, but the indications in Baltimore point too directly to a Whig triumph, to allow us to be in doubt. This glorious news we sent to Harry of the West, by the western mail this morning. It was forwarded to John Tyler by the cars that left at two o'clock this morning. How different will be the feelings with which it will be received by these two men.

From the Baltimore American.

We have the glorious news to send to our fellow citizens throughout the Union, that the Whigs achieved a great and important victory yesterday having elected four of the five delegates to the Legislaure, by an average maj rity of from 85 to 119. We lose one of our cand dates from local couses, which are well understood here, but which cease to operate with this elec-The importance of this victory cannot be overrated and the indication which it affords of the bent of public opinion, must cheer the heart of every Whig in the land. The signal character of the victory will be apprecisted when it is stated that even in 1840 with and George Rahn, Esquires. Judges of the Court of Q arter Sessions of the Peace, Oyer and Terat the enthusiasm of that exciting period, the Lo cofocos carried this city even against Harrison .-But twice in the history of the present paries, did on Schuylkill—by their precepts to me directed; the Whige ever carry the city, and of late years have ordered a Court of Quarter Sessions of the the majority against them has ranged from 500 to Peace, Over and Terminer, and General Gool 1 . But twice in the history of the present parties, did-1000 votes last year it was over 700. We extend our hearty congratulations on this suspicions victory to the Whigs of the Union .--It is a sign of cuerring to them. It tells them Isinguage not to be misunderstood, that the the said County of Schuylkill, that they are by the Whit spirit, always invincible when arous d, is said precept; commanded to be then and there at thoroughy arpu-ed and only awaits the autumn of 1814, to seal their triumphs by the election of Henry Clay to the Presidential Chair.

ONS, A. BERGER, from the Theatre de la porte Martin, of Paris, thanks the Ladies and Gentlemen of Pottsville, for the patronago. they bestowed on him three and tour years ago, and respectfully informs them that he proposes to form classes in Dancing in which he will teach the city dances in twelve lessons, three lessons a week. One attending the 12 lessons is warranted to dance very well, all the Cotillions in use. The price for the twelve lessons will be Six Hollars, of which $2 00 to be paid the day of the first lesson and the balance to be paid the day of the last lesson: But if any one does not dance well after the 13th lesson is over, he will not be oblidged to pay the balance. The steps taught by Mons. B. are those now fashionable wiz: Walking steps. If desired Mons. B. will form classes for Waltzing, Gallopading, and fancy dances of every description, such as; Cra-Shaw!, Dance, Gavotte, Mennet, Hangarian, Tambarine, Dance, &c., &c. Academys and private families attended to.

Mone. B. having but five or six weeks to spend in this place, as he must be back to New York, before the end of November, thinks proper to add that those desirous to join the class must call within the next week, for no one will be admit ted after the first lesson is over. N B -If musicians can be procured in place, Mons. B. will give a Dancing Soiree, in which his daughter only seven years old, will dance all FANN YELLSLER'S DANCES, and many others, quite unknown in this place. All the members of the school, will be admitted free For particulars apply at the Pennsylvania Hall, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Fredericka Bremer's works.

JAYNE'S HAIR TONIC.—A fine head of hair is an absolute requisition to female beauty. Even St. Paul, who was no flatterer, says that for a woman to have long hair, is a "glory to her." To those of the fair sex, then, who have been shorn of this "glory" by general of local disease, or other caused we recommend as a restorative, Jayne's Hair Tonic. t is a fact established by unimpeachable evidence, that it will reproduce hair upon bald places an effect which although claimed for all preparations for the hair, has been, so far as we know, accomplished by none, except JANNE'S HAIR TONIC.
