Elequent i ribute to a r. Clay.

Mr Raymond's memoir of Mr Clay, which accompanies the recent edition of his Life and Speeches, concludes with the following eloquent pasa ges : "

We have thus recorded the prominent public services of Henry Clay, with an historical sketch of his country ju-tauffic out to render them intelligible. His personal bing aphy has been left untouched: but it will readily be seen that these noble qualit a of mind and heart, which have mide so-glorious his tubic life, must hive invested his dom stre relations with the highest charms. He bears about him that surcet mark of gree ness, the power of being "great in little things:" of lending to the most common incidents of life a dignity which sumps them with the heroism of his personal character. In public life, he is the greatest state man, of his ages. He eloquence, with which the mition is most familiat, is in fact. me of the slighter elements of his fame; in a deeper source than this resistless as it is, must be sought the secret of that power which has rested the nation up in his arm and interwoven file principles with the very frame-work of her policy .-All the impulses of his he ru-the instincts of his nature - are those of a stateman. No crisis, however sudden and fearful, surprises or disarms him. In the most perilons emergencies, when upon the council or decision of an hour hange the fate of his country for years, his lufty mind inoves with the same und unted strength as in the most trivial concerns

In all his public life Mr. Clay has evinced a firm reliance upon great and enduring principles; and in this, perhaps, may be four d one chief seand in this, perhaps may be found one chief setownship, including the said township of Schuyl. of voters as the said inspectors or judge, or either cret of his power and foresight. A fundamental kill, and the northwest of said state road to the of them, shall from time to time required. truth is alv aye stronger then any man; and ty place of beginning, shall hereafter be an election building fifth and form reliance upon it, the man district, and the qualified election thereof shall any election, as aforesaid, other than a white Consumption, to be had of the agents.

He feels that the principles to the south of the Mine Hill gop, including the on which our government is based have a high worth, not only of themselves, but for the sake of the superstructure of happines as a glary we have the superstructure of happines as a glary we have erected upon them: and the safety of this he is and willing to pelli in their fruitless defence. He has none of the zeal of that ignorant worshipper who dug beneath the rains of the Ephce'an temple for the fuel on which it re-ted, to feed the flame upon its altare. No Quackery!!! . No Deception. In setting forth the virtues of this truly great medicine, we have no desire to deceive those who are labouring under affliction, nor do we wish to culogize it more than it justly deserves. Yet when we look around and see the vast a. mount of suffering and distress occasioned by many of the diseases in which this medicine has proved so highly successful, we feel that we canot argo its claims too strongly, or say too much n its favour.

Various remedies it is true have been offered. and puffed into notice for the cure of diseases of the Lungs, and some have ro doubt been found ctock in the morning of the second Tuesday in October; in each and every year, and each of said inspectors a all appoint one clerk, who shall be a qualified voter of such district.

THE POCAHONTAS, OR INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS.

THE remedies prescribed for the cure of disnessuccording to their operation upon the human system. Thus we have one class which causes the stomach to eject its contents, called emetics, another inducing perspiration called disophoreiics and a third which evacuates the strunch and bowels, denominated catharties, &c. Cathar. lics or purging medicines, have in everyinge and country been the favourities of the physicians for he cure of the most obstinate and alarming maadies. The wonderful success attending this node of treatment will readily be understood when we reflect that the stomach and bowels have assigned to them, the important function of diges ion, or the conversion of food into blood, that vital fluid intended for the growth and nourist. ment of the whole system. It follows that whenever the digestion organs become deprayed or disqualified for the healthy performance of their duty (and this occurs daily in civilized secrety) impure blood, and consequently disease are the

It has been remarked, that whenever the stomach is not osciully employed it is always at mischief. That individual who would deny that the most formidable diseases are daily cared by the use of Pills compounded and for sale mal nost every hamlet of our country, would certainly risk his reputation for veracity. The Poca-bontas, or Indian Vegetable Puls cleanse the stomech, purify the band and rea we follows-tion, and have proved eminently useful in caring bilious hever, bilious cholic, inflammation of the liver, theninatism, dropsy, jamidice, pleurisy, costiveness, &c. &c. Females of sedentary hanskin, and a coated tongue, that these pills will not relieve. The tollowing simple narrative will show the benefit derived from these pills in a very common disease : CERTIFICATE: Having been cured by the use of the Pocalion. tas Pill of an alarming discase of the liver of several years standing, I deem it a duty to make my case known to the public, for the benefit o thers. I had taken various remedies which afforded only temporary relief, after using two boxes of these pills, my discuse yielded, and I have enjoyed good health for the last six months WILLIAM FOLLMER.
