Song and Chorns.

TUNE-Old Tip'sthe Boy. Comeone and all, obey the call,
Hurrah, hurrah; hurrah,
And rally round on freedom's ground,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah.
Renouncing all the Tyler truck,
Once more we mean to try our luck,
With Harry Clay of Old Kentuck,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah!

A Western star that shines afar, Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah; A ray of light that quivers bright, Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah. Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah.
Then place him proudly on your crest,
A man with truth and wisdom blest,
The lion Statesman of the West,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah!

While Harry's there let none despair,
Hurrab, hurrah, hurrah;
For when he spoke the Tyrants shook,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah,
Who in a dark and dolelul hour,
His voice in thunder tones did pour
Against that fatal reto power,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah!

The Battle fights of all State Rights, Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah;
With Union too, he's firm and true,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah.
And looking to our rights alone,
Strict justice he would not postpone,
But give to every State her own,
Ifurrah, hurrah, hurrah!

The sterling friend of Old North Bend, Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah,
The ladies, too, believe him true,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah,
The Father of Columbia's cause, Whose measures must demand applause.

A Tariff and Protecting laws,

Ilurrah, hurrah, hurrah

With Benton's gold he can't be fool'd,
Hurrah, hurrah, burrah;
Kor Tyler's plan, Calhoun, nor Van,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah;
But dauniless he will face the storm, Our currency he will reform, And make it sound and uniform, Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah

Our cause is just, and thrive it must,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah.
Then let's be wise and seize the prize,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah. Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah.
Let every Whig go hand in hand,
And form one patriotic band,
To save this blest and happy land,
Hurrah, hurrah hurrah!

NATURAL ATTRACTION .-- I don't like to be left alone with a gal, it's plagy apt to set me a soft sawderin' and a courtin': There is sort of natural attraction like in this world. Two ships in a calm are sure to get along side of each other if there is no wind, and they have nothing to do but to look at each other; natur does it .--Well, even the tongs and the shovel won't stand alone long; they are sure to get on the same side of the fire, and be sociable; one of 'em has load together with the appurtenances, consisting of a stone, and draws t'other, that's certain. If that's the case with hard-hearted things, like oak and · iron, what is it with tender hearted things like humans? Shut me up in a sarvatory with a handsum gal of a rainy day, see if I don't think she is the prettiest flower in it. sir,—I have given a careful perusal to the Geography of Pennsylvania, by Charles B. Trego, Esq., which you have lately published, and find it to contain a vast mount of useful and interesting information relative to the History, Geography, Geology, Government, Internal Improvement, Productions, & &c., of our Commonwealth, admirably condensed and arranged. As a book of reference it is invaluable, and should be in the possession of every one who desires to become acquainted with the character and resources of Pennsylvania:

The work will also be most eminently useful as a text book, both in the Common Schools and in the Seminaries of a higher order, throughout

GREENFIELD, Pa., Oct, 10, 1842.

Dear Sir: you doubtless remember my calling at your establishment about two weeks since, and ob-taining from you one dollar's worth of Da. RIECH-TER'S VEGETABLE PURGATIVE PILLS, for ty common disease one of my neighbors who requested me to procure the article for them. This being done and my own business transacted; I started for home. After travel. ling all day, I was taken with a sudden chill, which ling all day, I was make the work and considerable pair, throughout my whole system, with great sickness at my stomach, which so completely discreabled me that I was compelled to stap at a small I months of the continuous contents of the content of the cont and retired to bed. My pain here ceased in a measure; and I soon fell sound asteep. In the morning I awoke much better, and allow the pills had operated I was quite a different person; took another dose of four pills, remained there al. Hednesday, and on Thursday started for home as well as ever, and I still Thursday started for home as well as ever, and I still enjoy good health—the persons for whom I bought them, informs me that they have experienced more benefit from your pills than a whole cart load of the quacks which they had fo merly used. Surely if they used them with as good an effect upon themselves as I have, they have good reason for extoling their virtues; and if you take my advice, you will persevere, go on and recommend them to all who are laboring under disease and my word for it, they will become so popular as a general remedy that you will find it difficult in supplying the demand.

THE POUAHONTAS, OR INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS.

THE remedies prescribed for the cure of discusses, have correctly been divided into classes according to their operation upon the suman system. Thus we have one class which gauses the stomach to eject its contents, called eractics, another inducing perspiration called dishipioreties and a third which evacuates the stomach and bowels, denominated catharties, &c. Catharand bowels, cenominated cathartics, &c. 18 starties or purging medicines, have in every fige and country been the favourites of the physicians for the cure of the most obstinate and alarming maladies. The wonderful success attending this mode of treatment will readily be understood when we reflect that the stomach and howeld have when we reflect that the stomach and bowels have assigned to them, the important function of di-gestion or the conversion of food into blood, that vital flipid intended for the growth and mourish-ment of the whole system. It follows that whenever the digestion organs become depraced or disqualified for the healthy performance of their duty (and this occurs daily in civilized society) impute blood, and consequently, disease are the
