AUTHENTIC ANECHOTE .- As such, a correspondent of the Utica Gospel Messenger communicates to it the following : A stranger in passing through a rural village of New England, many years ago, was attracted to the tub of a cider-press by accidently discovering the face of a child projecting over its top. He had procured a straw sucker, and was in the act of sipping from the tub, when ha fell in-his head being entirely submerged. He was immediately taken out, and carried by the stranger to the farm house of his parents, a faw rods distant, where effor's were commenced to restore the child, now apparently lifeless. After about one hour, signs of returning life were visible, and ultimately an entire resoration was effected-and the child itved --- hacame s man-become a minister-become a bishop-and ultimately the second presiding Bishop of the American Protestant Episcopal Church.
