Em-pirics boast of their "universal panaceas," warranted to cure every complaint from corns on the toes, to tu-bercles of the lungs. Believe them not; they only wish to relieve the plethon of your purse, and eare not what effect their nostrums have upon your person. If you want medicines rendered by the Gertificates of hundreds of men whose names you, know, and whose simple word is sacred as a thousand oaths, select those prepared by Dr. Jayne-a physician whose skill and whose character are a double guarantee against impo-sition. In the history of pulmonary disease there is no record of cures more astonishing than those per-formed by JANN's EEXERCTOANT. We will not say that it will cure Consumption in its worst stuges; but it unquestionably has restored to health petients who of that disease.
