On motion of Major James H. Campbell, Committee of seven was appointed to draft a preamble and resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the meeting, whereupon one President appointed Major James H. Cap poell, Col. C. F. Jackson Lieut. J. K. Fernsle, Lieut. D. J. Ridgway, Lieut. M. Mortimer Theut. B. Keiser and Lieut. E. El Bland, in after retiring for a short time reported the following:

WHEREAS, It is the part of a sound National policy to preserve in complete organization an efficient Mulitia force for the purpose of securing the prosperity and liberty of our country, and to pre serve he high standing amid the nations of the her untarnished Mig. And wetens as our only firm dependence in case of insurrection within, or nyasion from without, must be in four citizen oidiery, and believing that a large standing army form of government, and knowing that in time of cial benefit of the National Blues peace we should prepare for war. And wHEREAS. he Militia laws of this Commonwealth have been butchered by frequent and careless amendments so as to be in danger of falling into complete con empt, and are almost inoperative-and wHEREAS we believe that the Militia of Pennsylvania should be completely organized and thoroughly drilled therefore be it Resolved. That the present Militia laws are only alculated to bring the system into disrepute, and are totally inadequate to the organization and dril of our citizen soldiery.

Resolved. That our Senators and Represents ives are hereby respectfully requested to revise our Militia laws so that there may be at least four lays of training in each year, that the present fines are useless and totally inadequate to the support of he system; they form no inducement to parade and are not worth collecting, and we therefore re quest our law making power to correct this grossly defective part of the Militia laws, to be at least two dollars per day.

Resolved. That the spirit of our free institution ecognizes no privile ged laws and no exemptions from a reasonable share of public duties, and that every man is bound by his implied compact with Government to assist in supporting her laws, and system of public defence.

Resolved, That the Militia laws recognize so many mivileged classes and so many exemptions from fines that prima facia no man is liable to do Militia duty, and that these exemptions are odious partial and unfair, and with only a very few exceptions should be abelished altogether-

Resolved, That we have learned with surprise that an attempt will be made to confine alterations and amendments in the militia code to a section of this Commonwealth, thereby rendering the reform proposed in these laws local and partial.

Resolved, That the alterations demanded should be general and impartial, altered as one system, and the reform intended wherever it is necessary over the whole State.

Resolved, That in order to encourage the Volunteer system), that the number of privates required in Volunteer Companies by reduced to thirty-two, and that every able bodied white male person between the age of eighteen and forty-five be liable to do Militia duty.

Resolved, That Col. Daniel Krebs, Licut. Thos Johnson and Sergt. J. H. Campbell, } Henry Struceh, } Mit. CLAY.-Gen. Duff Green says:-It is as sumed by the partizans of Mr. Van Buren that he will be nominated by the Baltimore Convention. If so, no sane person can doubt the election of Mr. Clay, and he will be elected because it is impossible to rally the Democratic party in support of Mr. Van Buren, whose nomination will have been produced by a combination of political managers, organized in the large states of New York, Pennsylannia, Ohio and Virginia, for the purpose of seizing upon, and distributing among themselves the patronage of the Government."

FOR THE MINERS' JOURNAL.

Ma. Entron :- Our little busy village was all life and gaiety last evening, and its goodly citizens seemed to commemorate the anniversary that gave birth to our immortal Washington, with that heartfelt joy and gaiety that is peculiar to the millions of free hearts that revelled upon this glorious

It has long been the established custom that we should hall the coming morn of this day by the loud peals of artillery, and the bright orb of day was saluted by 26 rounds of cannon.

The Minersville Artillerists together with the National Blues, made a fine display during the day; the former looked remarkably well, and was commanded by Dr. R., who was during the day elected to the command of this well drilled and soldier-like company. Much credit is also due to Capt. W., whose perseverance and energy has raised and sustained, with great credit, the company of Blues; they are quite a new Co., but are fast increasing and bid fair to become an additional ornament and strength to our county-

In the evening a Military and Civic Ball was given by the National Blues which was an exccedingly pleasant affair. Here was presented a scene that caused the stout heart of the soldier to yield, whose gay and glittering uniform was confy by the "real good natured fellows," the pracclipsed by those bright orbs of the fair of creation. hose presence gave life, gaicty, and enchantment complete sway during the evening. It would be folly to attempt to describe how angelic Miss R appeared, or how sylph-like floated by the form of danced or was dressed, or how enrapturing was the giddy waltz; suffice it to say that our village has not presented so gay a scene for many a day. And then our kend host, Mr. J. F. G. Kum sius, served pa most sumptuous supper of which near one hundred guests partook. Much credit is due Mr. K. for the kind attention which every one in his house received, showing himself he most worthy of hosts, and sparing to make those about him comfortable and happy

The dancing was but up until a late hour, and really we were afraid morning would peep in upon us before we should separate. Our music, the Yager Band, from your place acquitted themselves with a deal of credit, and added much to the gaicy of the evening.

"And all went off happy as a marriage bell," When the hour arrived all went away, well pleasis justly odious to the people, and hostile to our ed, and wishing a snug sum realized for the espe-

Only in Joke. BT J. HASTINGS WELD.

Only in joke. We have no patience with such fellows. If they lived in countries where the bow-string is fashionable, or where a head may be sliced off, or a woman bagged for the asking, they would have your brother strangled, or your wife launched into the Bosphorus, done up in a bag, like a kitten for transportation, and when you complained, the ready answer would be, that it was only a joke!' Or they might do some similar good turn for yourself, and tell your executors the same story.-They think that a joke will answer as an apology for any thing, even to the smashing of furniture, breaking of glass, and fracturing of bones, and are particularly hard and rough, upon any who happen to be tormented with their friendship. There is no getting angry with them, until you are actually ruined, past a joke in body, purse or chattles. To complain of any such small matter, as the dislocation of a limb, is only to make the joke richer; for the more you lament, the riper is the fun. Say nothing, and bear these injuries without remonstrance or resistance, and half their amusement is lost. True friendship this enjoyment of your neighbor's iniscry, and appreciable tical jokers-jolly companions-confusion to them and their like!

As he madly plunged, unaward what course to pursue, or whither to look, the whole life, the whole love of the gentle Edith passed through his mind.
