COUSIN SALLY DILLARD.

BT; HAMILTON C. JONES.

Burne-A Court of Justice in N. Carolina.

A beardless disciple of Themis arises, and thus addresses the court: "May it please your worships, and you gentlemen of the jury, since it has been my fortune (good or bad I will not say) to exercise myself in legal disquisitions, it has never before befallen me to be obliged to prosecute so direful, marked and malicious an assault-a more wilful, violent, dangerous battery, and finally a more diabolical breach of the peace has seldom been your duty to pass upon, one so shocking to benevolent feelings, as this which took place over at Captain Rice's in this county. But you will hear from the witnesses."

The witnesses being sworn, two or three were examined, and deposed-one said that he had beard the noise and did not see the fight another that he saw the row, but did'nt know who struck first-and a third, that he was very drunk and could'nt say much about the skrimmage.

Lawyer Chops-I am very sorry, gentlemen, to have occupied your time with the stupidity of the witnesses examined. It arises, gentlemen, alfogether from misapprehension on my part. Had I known , as I now do, that I had a witness in attendance, who was well acquainted with all the circumstances of the case, and who was able to make himself clearly understood by the court and jury, I should not so long have trespassed on your time and patience. Come forward, Mr. Harvis. and be sworn

So forward came the witness, a fat, chuffy, looking man, a sleetle" corned, and took his corporal oath with an air.

Chops-Harris, we wish you to tell about the riot that happened the other day at Capt. Rice's and as a good deal of time has been already wasted in circumlocution, we wish you to be compendious and at the same time as explicit as possible.

Harris .- Edzactly'--giving the lawyer a knowing wink, and at the same time clearing his throat-Captain Rice, he gin a treat, and cousin Sally Dillard, she came over to our house, and axed me if my wife she moutn't go. I told cousin Sally Dillard that' my wife was poorly, being as how she had a touch of the rheumatics in the hip, and the big swamp was in the road, and the big swamp was up, for there had been a heap of rain ly Dillard, my wife she mount go. Well, cousin Sally Dillard then asked me if Moses he mout nt go. I told cousin Sally Dillard that Moses he was the foreman of the crop, and the crop was smartly in the grass; but homsomever, as it was she, cousin Sally Dillard, Mose he mout go.

Chops-In the name of common sense, Mr. Harris, what do you mean by this rigmarole?-Do say what you know about the riot.

Witness-Captain Rice, he gin a treat, and cousin Sally Dillard she came over to our house and axed me if my wife she mout'nt go. I told cousin Sally Dillard-

Chops.-Stop, sir, if you please; we don't want to hear anything about cousin Sally Dillard and your wife-tell us about the fight at Rice's. Witness-Well, I will, sir, if you will let nd cousin Sally Dillard she came over to our house and axed me if my wife she mout'nt go-Chops-There it is again; witness, witness,

Witness-Well, sir, what do you want? Chons-We want to know about the fight, and you must not proceed in this impertment story.-Do you know anything about the matter before the Court ? Witness-To be sure I do.

Chops,-Well, you go on and tell it; and nothing else. Witness-Well, Captain Rice he gin a treat-Chops-This is intolerable. May it please the court, I move that this witness be committed for a contempt : he seems to be triffing with this · Court - Witness, you are now wefore a Court of Justice, and unless you behave yourself in a more becoming manner, you will be sent to jail; so begin and tell what you know, about the light at Captain Rice's.

Witness-(alarmed.)-Well, gentlemen, Captain Rice he gin a treat, and cousin Sally Dillard--

Chops-I hope this witness may be ordered into custody.

Court -- (after deliberating.) -- Mr. Attorney, the Court is of opinion that we may save time by telling the witness to go on in his own way.-Proceed, Mr. Harris, with your story, but stick to the point.

Witness-Yes, gentlemen; well, Captain Rice he gin a treat, and cousin Sally Dillard she come over to our house and axed me if my wife she mout'nt go. I totd cousin Sally Dillard, that my wife she was poorly, being as how she had the rheumatics in the hip, and the hig swamp was up : but howsomever, as it was she, cousin Sally Dillard, my wife she mout go. Well, cousin Sally Dillard then asked me, if Mose he moutn't co.-I told cousin Sally Dillard as how Mose, he was the foreman of the crop, and the crop was smartly in the grass, but howsomever, as it was she cousin Sally Dillard, Mose he mount go. So they goes on together, Mose, my wife and cousin Sally Dillard, and they come to the hig swamp, and it was up as I was telling you , but being as how there was a log across the big swamp, cousin Sal-Is Dillard and Mose, like gentle folks, they walked the log, but my wife, like a dratted fool, wailed through-and that's all Fknow about the fight.

SARS APARILLA.

I OR the cure of Scrofula; Chronic Rheumatism, General Debility, Cutaneous Diseases, Scaly Eruptions of the Skin, Tetter, Pinglis or Pustules on the Face, Liver Affections, Mercurial and Syphilcid Diseases, Biles, from an impure habit of body, Ulcerations of the Throat and Leg, Pains and Swelling of the Jones, and all Diseases arising from an impure state of the Blood, Exposures and Imprudences in Life, Excessive use of Mercury, &c.

An immense effort has been lately made to introduce various compounds called "Extracts of Sarsaparilla," as positive and specific cure-alls. If twe were to believe the extravagant assertions of the adventurers who are pushing them, all disease that "flesh is heir fo," can be governed and removed by these wonderful "extracts." Now, we want no customers to our articles but persons of common sense at least; and those, who have that, will find it impossible to believe these extravagant and ridiculous assertions. Depend upon it then, if you get COMSTOCK'S true extract of the real Sarsaparilla, every disease that can be cured by this and various other roots that form the compound, will be cured by it. Such, particularly, as Scrofula, Rheumatism, and all diseases of the blood, and particularly disease and suffering from the abuse of mercury. Comstock's Sanskarantla is warranted as good as any in the city, and lat just half the price of others, and in as large bottles, viz:—50 cents per bottle, or $1 per dozen. Sut yourselves.

GLENN'S UNBIVALLED SAPONACEOUS COMPOUND FOR SHAVING.

TO Gentlemen who shave themselves, this articles offered with the greatest confidence as equal, ea not superior to any other Shaving Soap in use. For delightful and consistent lather, which will not dry pon the face or irritate the most delicate skin, for the ease and comfort it gives to the often troublesome loperation of shaving, rendering it surpassingly easy, this compound can be safely reccommended. It is equally effectual in warm or cold water, and after using it, the face is left softand pleasant, and entirely free from the first in the state of the face is left softand pleasant, and entirely free from the first in a state of the strong alkaline Soaps and Shaving Creams. The compound is pleasantly performed and put up in a neal china box, answering all the purposes of a shaving box, and on trial will be found very economical and convenient, during the few years this article has been before the public, the proprietor has sold 35,000 boxes of it, and the demand is constantly increasing as its meris become known. The agents are authorized to return the purchase money, where it does not give entire satisfaction.

The Saponaceous Compound is composed of incredients, so admirably compounded, that shaving with it, is an absolute pleasure. "U. S. Gazette.

The Saponaceous Compound, is the best preparation extant for shaving purposes. It is extensively patronized, and deserves to be; every gentleman who shaves himself, should buy it. "Philadelphia Gazette." We begto call the attention of the bearded portion of our subscribers, to the Saponaceous Compound, it is, without exception, the best shaving soap, we ever used. "Philadelphia Transcript."

The Saponaceous Compound for shaving, is the best perhaps the very best article in use, for scraping the beard from the human face divine. What with a keen razor and this compound, you may shave your face in half the time, you are pronouncing the word. It is an anomaly in language—it is a very good shave, and yet no s POUND FOR SHAVING.

A compound Balsamic preparation of the Prunus Virginiana or "Wild Cherry Bark," prepared by a new chemical process, approved and recommended by the most distinguished physicians, and universally acknowleged the nost valuable medicine ever discovered. No Quackery!!! No Deception.

In setting forth the virtues of this truly great. medicine, we have no desire to deceive those who are labouring under affliction, nor do we wish to enlogize it more than it justly deserves. Yet when we look around and see the vast amount of suffering and distress occasioned by many of the diseases in which this medicine base proved so highly successful, we feel that we cannot urge its claims too strongly, or say too much in its fayour. Such indeed are the SURPRISING VIRTUES Of this Balsam, that even in the advanced stages? of Con-unierion, after all the most exteemed reinedies of physicians have failed to effect any change, the use of this medicine has been pr ductive of the most astonishing relief, and actually effected cures after all hopes of recovery and been despaired of.

In the first stages of the disease, termed "Caarrhal Consumption," originating from neglected OOLD, it has been used with undeviating success, and hundreds acknowledge they bwe the restoration of their health to this invaluable medicine alone. In that form of Consumption o prevalent amongst delicate young female. commonly termed debility, or "GOING INTO A DECLINE." complaint with which thousands are lingering, it has also proved highly successful, and not only possesses the power of checking the progress of this alarming complaint, but also strength. ensland invigorates the system more effectually than any medicine we have ever possessed.
