

POTTSVILLE.

Saturday Morning, Sept. 21, 1844.

Let every citizen bear in mind that it is not only his interest but his duty, to purchase every thing that he can at home.

Those who are compelled to labor, ought to bear in mind that the Tariff is essentially the poor man's friend.

Opinions of James K. Polk on the Tariff. "I AM IN FAVOR OF REDUCING THE DUTIES TO THE RATES OF THE COMPROMISE."

FOR THE CAMPAIGN. In order to place information within the reach of all, the Miners' Journal will be furnished until the Presidential Election, from the 15th of August, the following low rates:

One copy, 25 Cents. Three copies, to one address, 75 Cents. Five copies, do, 1 00. The money must accompany each order.

COUNTY MEETING.—We refer our readers to the proceedings of the County Meeting, held at Schuylkill Haven, on Saturday last, in another column.

Our Congressional District.

It is well known to all who took any interest in the question, with regard to the representation in our Congressional District, that an arrangement had been made by the Conference last year, that Schuylkill County should have the representation this year.

We should have proved recent in our duty to our own citizens, if we had not obeyed the express commands thus promulgated. We did adhere to her views and wishes, and boldly advocated the claims of Schuylkill County, believing, that agreements mutually entered into, ought to be strictly carried out to inspire confidence and ensure the success of the party.

CLAY POLE.—On Monday last, the whigs of Pottsville and vicinity, raised a Pole at Mr. Chas. Kuntz's Hotel, in this Borough, one hundred and thirty-five feet high, bearing the proud inscription of "Clay, Frelinghuysen, Markle, the Whig Tariff of 1842, and no Sub-Treasury."

ANOTHER CLAY POLE.—The boys of Mahanoy Street, under the age of 14, on Monday last, proceeded to the woods, procured a Pole, spiked it and raised it on the lot of Mr. George Patterson, half dozen ladies, which cheered them in their arduous task.

GARLAND'S MAGAZINE.—This beautiful Periodical for October, has been received. It is embellished with three Engravings, representing the Pulaski Monument at Sayannah, a Pic-Nic on Wissahickon, and a well engraved portrait of Joseph R. Chandler, Esq., one of the contributors to the work.

GALLES' LADIES' BOOK for October is out table already. This number is a perfect gem among the contributors to its pages, are Hoffmann, Herbert, Miss Leslie, Mrs. Hale, &c. The embellishments are three in number, "The Surprise," "A Scene from Hamlet," and "Fort Duquesne," being the first plate of the Battle Grounds, which are to appear in this Magazine, it is exquisitely engraved, and presents one of the most beautiful views we have ever seen.

DEMOCRATIC WHIG TOWNSHIP MEETING.—We are authorized to state that a Meeting will be held at the House of Philip Weaver, in McKeanesburg, on Friday afternoon, the 27th inst., at 2 o'clock, P. M.

A Meeting will also be held on Saturday, the 28th inst., at the House of Tobias Wehr, in West Penn Township, at 10 o'clock A. M., and at 2 o'clock, P. M., at the house of David Seidler, on the same day.

The Meetings will be addressed in the German and English languages, by several good speakers.

No. 9 of Harper's Pictorial Bible has been received. This work improves as it progresses. It cannot be surpassed at the low rate at which it is published, 25 cents per number, one issued every three weeks, placing it within the reach of every person in the country.

SENIATOR.—On Tuesday next, the 21st inst., has been fixed upon as the time of the meeting of the Conferees of this Senatorial District at March Chunk, to nominate a candidate for Senator.

ARE YOU ASSURED?—Next Saturday is the last day that voters can be assessed. Those interested had better see it in time.

BETTING.—In Philadelphia, the whigs are snuffing up all the bets they can get at $1000 against $500 on the general result.

THE COUNTY TICKET.—Heretofore no party has presented to the people of Schuylkill county a ticket in all respects, and in all its names so amply meriting their qualified and heart-warm support.

For Coroner, we present the name of Daniel H. Stager, of Schuylkill Haven, a man whose well known to the citizens of the county, as every way competent and worthy of the office.

The candidate for Commissioner, George H. Stichter, is a capable and honest man. His known and uncompromising opposition to the custom of paying high interest upon loans, while large balances lay idle in the hands of the Collectors, will speak for him.

A more competent and better man for Director of the Poor, Levi Miller, of Pottsville, could hardly be found in the county.

Joseph Weaver, Esq., of Minersville, the candidate for Auditor, is in every regard qualified for the office.

The whole ticket can and must be elected.—Schuylkill county must be redeemed. If we are whigs, and really long for this consummation, we will demonstrate our sincerity in action, and carry it out in vigorous and efficient practice.

GRAND PARADE.—On Monday last, the Schuylkill County Regiment of Volunteers, numbering three companies, paraded in this Borough, and made quite a martial display—almost as imposing as the Encampment, held in this place, last year.

ENGLAND AT WORK.—We refer our readers to an article on the first page, headed "British Gold and the Tariff," which discloses the astounding intelligence, that the Manufacturers of England have subscribed a half million dollars, to circulate free trade tracts in this and other countries, to promulgate free trade principles, and also to break down the whig tariff of 1842, by the election of James K. Polk, and the defeat of Henry Clay.

What an Old Soldier says of General Markle. On introducing Colonel CHRISTY to the Whig meeting on Tuesday evening, Mr. Gibbons stated that when the first gun was fired by the enemy at the siege of Fort Mifflin, General Harrison called a young man to him, and ordered him to take the American flag on every battery of the Fort, where they still were, and he, while an enemy's ruinous shells were falling, was promptly obeyed, and in a few moments he was seen to wave the stars and stripes of our country.

CLAY POLE.—On Monday last, the whigs of Pottsville and vicinity, raised a Pole at Mr. Chas. Kuntz's Hotel, in this Borough, one hundred and thirty-five feet high, bearing the proud inscription of "Clay, Frelinghuysen, Markle, the Whig Tariff of 1842, and no Sub-Treasury."

ANOTHER CLAY POLE.—The boys of Mahanoy Street, under the age of 14, on Monday last, proceeded to the woods, procured a Pole, spiked it and raised it on the lot of Mr. George Patterson, half dozen ladies, which cheered them in their arduous task.

GARLAND'S MAGAZINE.—This beautiful Periodical for October, has been received. It is embellished with three Engravings, representing the Pulaski Monument at Sayannah, a Pic-Nic on Wissahickon, and a well engraved portrait of Joseph R. Chandler, Esq., one of the contributors to the work.

GALLES' LADIES' BOOK for October is out table already. This number is a perfect gem among the contributors to its pages, are Hoffmann, Herbert, Miss Leslie, Mrs. Hale, &c. The embellishments are three in number, "The Surprise," "A Scene from Hamlet," and "Fort Duquesne," being the first plate of the Battle Grounds, which are to appear in this Magazine, it is exquisitely engraved, and presents one of the most beautiful views we have ever seen.

DEMOCRATIC WHIG TOWNSHIP MEETING.—We are authorized to state that a Meeting will be held at the House of Philip Weaver, in McKeanesburg, on Friday afternoon, the 27th inst., at 2 o'clock, P. M.

A Meeting will also be held on Saturday, the 28th inst., at the House of Tobias Wehr, in West Penn Township, at 10 o'clock A. M., and at 2 o'clock, P. M., at the house of David Seidler, on the same day.

The Meetings will be addressed in the German and English languages, by several good speakers.

No. 9 of Harper's Pictorial Bible has been received. This work improves as it progresses. It cannot be surpassed at the low rate at which it is published, 25 cents per number, one issued every three weeks, placing it within the reach of every person in the country.

SENIATOR.—On Tuesday next, the 21st inst., has been fixed upon as the time of the meeting of the Conferees of this Senatorial District at March Chunk, to nominate a candidate for Senator.

ARE YOU ASSURED?—Next Saturday is the last day that voters can be assessed. Those interested had better see it in time.

BETTING.—In Philadelphia, the whigs are snuffing up all the bets they can get at $1000 against $500 on the general result.

HO! FOR READING! By the following notice, it will be observed that Old Birds, the mother of Schuylkill, is going to make a glorious demonstration on Friday next, and asks the Whigs of Schuylkill County to turn out and give them a lift on the occasion.

GRAND CONVENTION. Of the Whigs of Eastern Pennsylvania, At Reading. The standing committee of Berks county have determined on holding a Grand Convention, on Friday, September 27th, to which they cordially invite a general attendance of all who are in favor of the Tariff of 1842—Sale of the Public Lands, to relieve the State from taxation, which can only be done by the election of Clay, Frelinghuysen, and Markle.

DAVID F. GORDON, JOHN L. RICHARDS, D. W. RUTHERFORD, SAMUEL BELL, Committee.

THE arrangements have been made with the Rail Road Company, to carry passengers from Pottsville and Schuylkill Haven at one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) down and one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) down and one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) down and one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) down.

GREAT CONVENTION. The Whigs of Philadelphia have issued a call for a Grand Convention to be held at Philadelphia, of the Eastern Counties of Pennsylvania, on Tuesday the 1st of October they will be joined by the Whigs of New York, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland.

The following is the official vote in Schuylkill county, at the last Presidential election, which we publish for the information of our friends:

Table with 3 columns: Name, Van Buren, Harrison. Rows include North Ward, South Ward, Pottsville District, Orwigsburg, Port Carbon, Minersville, Schuylkill Haven, McKeanesburg, West Penn, Schuylkill, Rush, Union, Friedensburg, Pinegrove, Lower Mahanoy, Upper Mahanoy, Porter, Barry, Tamany, and Van Buren's majority.

DARING EXPLOIT OF GEN. MARKLE. We find the following account of a daring exploit in the United States Gazette:

What an Old Soldier says of General Markle. On introducing Colonel CHRISTY to the Whig meeting on Tuesday evening, Mr. Gibbons stated that when the first gun was fired by the enemy at the siege of Fort Mifflin, General Harrison called a young man to him, and ordered him to take the American flag on every battery of the Fort, where they still were, and he, while an enemy's ruinous shells were falling, was promptly obeyed, and in a few moments he was seen to wave the stars and stripes of our country.

CLAY POLE.—On Monday last, the whigs of Pottsville and vicinity, raised a Pole at Mr. Chas. Kuntz's Hotel, in this Borough, one hundred and thirty-five feet high, bearing the proud inscription of "Clay, Frelinghuysen, Markle, the Whig Tariff of 1842, and no Sub-Treasury."

ANOTHER CLAY POLE.—The boys of Mahanoy Street, under the age of 14, on Monday last, proceeded to the woods, procured a Pole, spiked it and raised it on the lot of Mr. George Patterson, half dozen ladies, which cheered them in their arduous task.

GARLAND'S MAGAZINE.—This beautiful Periodical for October, has been received. It is embellished with three Engravings, representing the Pulaski Monument at Sayannah, a Pic-Nic on Wissahickon, and a well engraved portrait of Joseph R. Chandler, Esq., one of the contributors to the work.

GALLES' LADIES' BOOK for October is out table already. This number is a perfect gem among the contributors to its pages, are Hoffmann, Herbert, Miss Leslie, Mrs. Hale, &c. The embellishments are three in number, "The Surprise," "A Scene from Hamlet," and "Fort Duquesne," being the first plate of the Battle Grounds, which are to appear in this Magazine, it is exquisitely engraved, and presents one of the most beautiful views we have ever seen.

DEMOCRATIC WHIG TOWNSHIP MEETING.—We are authorized to state that a Meeting will be held at the House of Philip Weaver, in McKeanesburg, on Friday afternoon, the 27th inst., at 2 o'clock, P. M.

A Meeting will also be held on Saturday, the 28th inst., at the House of Tobias Wehr, in West Penn Township, at 10 o'clock A. M., and at 2 o'clock, P. M., at the house of David Seidler, on the same day.

The Meetings will be addressed in the German and English languages, by several good speakers.

No. 9 of Harper's Pictorial Bible has been received. This work improves as it progresses. It cannot be surpassed at the low rate at which it is published, 25 cents per number, one issued every three weeks, placing it within the reach of every person in the country.

SENIATOR.—On Tuesday next, the 21st inst., has been fixed upon as the time of the meeting of the Conferees of this Senatorial District at March Chunk, to nominate a candidate for Senator.

ARE YOU ASSURED?—Next Saturday is the last day that voters can be assessed. Those interested had better see it in time.

BETTING.—In Philadelphia, the whigs are snuffing up all the bets they can get at $1000 against $500 on the general result.

Democratic Whig COUNTY MEETING.

A large and respectable meeting of the Democratic Whigs of Schuylkill county, convened at the house of George Kauffman, on Saturday the 14th inst., in pursuance of a call by the county committee, for the purpose of adopting a county ticket to be supported at the ensuing election.

President, A. W. LEYBURN, Esq. Vice Presidents, Peter Filbert, Joel Youmt, C. B. De Forest, William Klandale, Henry Berger, Jacob Heiser, Jacob Faust, Leonard Shup, John Huggins.

Assembly, NICHOLAS JONES, of West Brunswick, DANIEL R. BENNETT, of Minersville, Coroner, DANIEL H. STAGER, of Schuylkill Haven.

Committee, GEORGE H. STICHTER, of Pottsville, Director of the Poor, LEVI MILLER, of Pinegrove, Auditor, JOSEPH WEAVER, of Minersville, Trustees, BERNARD YEAGER, SOLOMON LEBENGOOD.

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to every exertion to secure the election of the Ticket nominated this day. Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the officers and published in all the Whig papers in this county, and in the Congressional District.

(Signed by the Officers.) LATEST FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE. The arrival of the Packet Ship Emerald at New York brings intelligence a few days later from England.

The hostile aspect of affairs between England and France is not in the least changed, but rather confirmed. The Morocco affair was the congressing topic of interest. James Haggerty, Esq., American Consul, at Liverpool, writes to each of the children of the Queen's visit to Ireland.

The Queen's visit to Ireland.—The report gains strength daily, that the Queen will visit Ireland in the course of the present autumn; and it is also generally believed, that her visit will be signified by a gracious and generous act, namely, that of the liberation of Mr. O'Connell and his companions in imprisonment, (supposing that the decision of the Judges should not have done it previously.) Several of the papers in this country, and we have also heard it from a quarter generally possessed of correct and early information.—Liverpool Times, Aug. 27.

The Countess of Surville, at Florence, and accompanied her to Rome, where she intends to reside in future. A letter from Vienna, in the Cologne Gazette, states that the publication of the Juif Errant has caused several journals, in which it had been given, to be seized.

The will of the Count de Surville contains, besides the legacies to his nine grand children, bequests of 200,000 francs to each of the children of the Prince de Canino. His widow has the whole of the residue of his property for life, and at her death it goes to the eldest son of the Prince de Canino, who, it is said, is about to be married to the wealthy Countess Barones, whose journey to Vienna is conceived to be connected with this project.

The Princess de Canino is gone to her mother, the Countess de Surville, at Florence, and will accompany her to Rome, where she intends to reside in future. A letter from Vienna, in the Cologne Gazette, states that the publication of the Juif Errant has caused several journals, in which it had been given, to be seized.

The will of the Count de Surville contains, besides the legacies to his nine grand children, bequests of 200,000 francs to each of the children of the Prince de Canino. His widow has the whole of the residue of his property for life, and at her death it goes to the eldest son of the Prince de Canino, who, it is said, is about to be married to the wealthy Countess Barones, whose journey to Vienna is conceived to be connected with this project.

The Princess de Canino is gone to her mother, the Countess de Surville, at Florence, and will accompany her to Rome, where she intends to reside in future. A letter from Vienna, in the Cologne Gazette, states that the publication of the Juif Errant has caused several journals, in which it had been given, to be seized.

The will of the Count de Surville contains, besides the legacies to his nine grand children, bequests of 200,000 francs to each of the children of the Prince de Canino. His widow has the whole of the residue of his property for life, and at her death it goes to the eldest son of the Prince de Canino, who, it is said, is about to be married to the wealthy Countess Barones, whose journey to Vienna is conceived to be connected with this project.

The Princess de Canino is gone to her mother, the Countess de Surville, at Florence, and will accompany her to Rome, where she intends to reside in future. A letter from Vienna, in the Cologne Gazette, states that the publication of the Juif Errant has caused several journals, in which it had been given, to be seized.

The will of the Count de Surville contains, besides the legacies to his nine grand children, bequests of 200,000 francs to each of the children of the Prince de Canino. His widow has the whole of the residue of his property for life, and at her death it goes to the eldest son of the Prince de Canino, who, it is said, is about to be married to the wealthy Countess Barones, whose journey to Vienna is conceived to be connected with this project.

The Princess de Canino is gone to her mother, the Countess de Surville, at Florence, and will accompany her to Rome, where she intends to reside in future. A letter from Vienna, in the Cologne Gazette, states that the publication of the Juif Errant has caused several journals, in which it had been given, to be seized.

The will of the Count de Surville contains, besides the legacies to his nine grand children, bequests of 200,000 francs to each of the children of the Prince de Canino. His widow has the whole of the residue of his property for life, and at her death it goes to the eldest son of the Prince de Canino, who, it is said, is about to be married to the wealthy Countess Barones, whose journey to Vienna is conceived to be connected with this project.

The Princess de Canino is gone to her mother, the Countess de Surville, at Florence, and will accompany her to Rome, where she intends to reside in future. A letter from Vienna, in the Cologne Gazette, states that the publication of the Juif Errant has caused several journals, in which it had been given, to be seized.

IMPORTANT MOVEMENT IN CUMBERLAND COUNTY.

A whole public meeting despatching James K. Polk, on account of his hostility to the Tariff. From the Carlisle (Pa.) Statesman. Some weeks ago we published the proceedings of a meeting held in Dickinson township by General Miller and others, where resolutions were passed in favor of the odious whig tariff of 1842, and the distribution of the proceeds of the public lands, messrs. Nicholas and his associates, who were present, were not only present, but they were also present.

Resolved, That we will give our cordial and undivided support to our candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, Henry Clay and Theodore Frelinghuysen. Resolved, That from the results of the different State elections, from April last to the present time, the Whigs have abundant cause for congratulation as they prognosticate the success of their candidates, Henry Clay and Theodore Frelinghuysen.

Resolved, That we look with confidence to the election of Gen. Joseph Markle, as Governor of Pennsylvania to redeem the State from the domination of Locofoco corruption. That having full assurance of his sterling qualifications, his honesty and capacity, we think this confidence well founded, and we know that his life is identified with the history of his country, as the active, efficient and brave co-operative with the late and lamented President Harrison, in the tented field against our enemies in the late war, as a man who perilled his life, and pledged his property for the safety of his native land, we therefore regard him as entitled to the support of every honest man.

Resolved, That we are in favor of the sale of the public works, to pay, as far as the proceeds thereof will reach, the debt of Pennsylvania; regarding the sale of the public works as one of the most effectual means of reducing our taxation, and lightening the burdens of our citizens. Resolved, That we have a sincere and brotherly feeling of sympathy for our fellow-citizens of Pennsylvania, who are made the dupes of designing politicians when they are induced by them to believe that James K. Polk is in favor of a protective tariff, which has at all times when called on declared himself its decided and bitter enemy.

A resolution pledging the Whigs of Schuylkill County to support the Hon. Alexander Ramsey for Congress, without any explanation, was voted down, and the following preamble and resolution was offered as a substitute by John Bannan, and adopted: Whereas, In the opinion of this meeting the County of Schuylkill has been unfairly dealt with by the other Counties composing this Congressional District in disregarding the rights of Schuylkill County in the selection of the present nominee for Congress: That it was the agreement and general understanding of the party that the nominee was to have been made from Schuylkill County this fall, this meeting entertains no doubt, but inasmuch as at this peculiar juncture, more perhaps than at any other which may again occur, the interests of the whole country demand that the Whigs with great unanimity should stand up to the support of the Tariff of 1842 and the distribution of the proceeds of the public lands—so unjustly encroached thereon, that in the opinion of this meeting, the one language of James K. Polk, in his published address to the people of Tennessee, dated the 25th of March, 1843, and reiterated by him in his letter to George W. Smith and others, dated Columbia, May 15th, 1843, he says: "The proposed distribution is in truth but a branch of Mr. Clay's famed American System. Mr. Clay is the author of the measure, as he was of the American system. In every view of the measure, it is an auxiliary to the protective policy. The manufacturing States so understand it, and hence the Legislatures of Pennsylvania, New York, Delaware, Vermont, Rhode Island, Connecticut and some others, have during the past and present year passed Legislative resolves, instructing their Senators, and requesting their Representatives in Congress to advocate the measure."

Resolved, That we have a sincere and brotherly feeling of sympathy for our fellow-citizens of Pennsylvania, who are made the dupes of designing politicians when they are induced by them to believe that James K. Polk is in favor of a protective tariff, which has at all times when called on declared himself its decided and bitter enemy. A resolution pledging the Whigs of Schuylkill County to support the Hon. Alexander Ramsey for Congress, without any explanation, was voted down, and the following preamble and resolution was offered as a substitute by John Bannan, and adopted:

Whereas, In the opinion of this meeting the County of Schuylkill has been unfairly dealt with by the other Counties composing this Congressional District in disregarding the rights of Schuylkill County in the selection of the present nominee for Congress: That it was the agreement and general understanding of the party that the nominee was to have been made from Schuylkill County this fall, this meeting entertains no doubt, but inasmuch as at this peculiar juncture, more perhaps than at any other which may again occur, the interests of the whole country demand that the Whigs with great unanimity should stand up to the support of the Tariff of 1842 and the distribution of the proceeds of the public lands—so unjustly encroached thereon, that in the opinion of this meeting, the one language of James K. Polk, in his published address to the people of Tennessee, dated the 25th of March, 1843, and reiterated by him in his letter to George W. Smith and others, dated Columbia, May 15th, 1843, he says: "The proposed distribution is in truth but a branch of Mr. Clay's famed American System. Mr. Clay is the author of the measure, as he was of the American system. In every view of the measure, it is an auxiliary to the protective policy. The manufacturing States so understand it, and hence the Legislatures of Pennsylvania, New York, Delaware, Vermont, Rhode Island, Connecticut and some others, have during the past and present year passed Legislative resolves, instructing their Senators, and requesting their Representatives in Congress to advocate the measure."

Resolved, That we have a sincere and brotherly feeling of sympathy for our fellow-citizens of Pennsylvania, who are made the dupes of designing politicians when they are induced by them to believe that James K. Polk is in favor of a protective tariff, which has at all times when called on declared himself its decided and bitter enemy. A resolution pledging the Whigs of Schuylkill County to support the Hon. Alexander Ramsey for Congress, without any explanation, was voted down, and the following preamble and resolution was offered as a substitute by John Bannan, and adopted:

Whereas, In the opinion of this meeting the County of Schuylkill has been unfairly dealt with by the other Counties composing this Congressional District in disregarding the rights of Schuylkill County in the selection of the present nominee for Congress: That it was the agreement and general understanding of the party that the nominee was to have been made from Schuylkill County this fall, this meeting entertains no doubt, but inasmuch as at this peculiar juncture, more perhaps than at any other which may again occur, the interests of the whole country demand that the Whigs with great unanimity should stand up to the support of the Tariff of 1842 and the distribution of the proceeds of the public lands—so unjustly encroached thereon, that in the opinion of this meeting, the one language of James K. Polk, in his published address to the people of Tennessee, dated the 25th of March, 1843, and reiterated by him in his letter to George W. Smith and others, dated Columbia, May 15th, 1843, he says: "The proposed distribution is in truth but a branch of Mr. Clay's famed American System. Mr. Clay is the author of the measure, as he was of the American system. In every view of the measure, it is an auxiliary to the protective policy. The manufacturing States so understand it, and hence the Legislatures of Pennsylvania, New York, Delaware, Vermont, Rhode Island, Connecticut and some others, have during the past and present year passed Legislative resolves, instructing their Senators, and requesting their Representatives in Congress to advocate the measure."

Resolved, That we have a sincere and brotherly feeling of sympathy for our fellow-citizens of Pennsylvania, who are made the dupes of designing politicians when they are induced by them to believe that James K. Polk is in favor of a protective tariff, which has at all times when called on declared himself its decided and bitter enemy. A resolution pledging the Whigs of Schuylkill County to support the Hon. Alexander Ramsey for Congress, without any explanation, was voted down, and the following preamble and resolution was offered as a substitute by John Bannan, and adopted:

Whereas, In the opinion of this meeting the County of Schuylkill has been unfairly dealt with by the other Counties composing this Congressional District in disregarding the rights of Schuylkill County in the selection of the present nominee for Congress: That it was the agreement and general understanding of the party that the nominee was to have been made from Schuylkill County this fall, this meeting entertains no doubt, but inasmuch as at this peculiar juncture, more perhaps than at any other which may again occur, the interests of the whole country demand that the Whigs with great unanimity should stand up to the support of the Tariff of 1842 and the distribution of the proceeds of the public lands—so unjustly encroached thereon, that in the opinion of this meeting, the one language of James K. Polk, in his published address to the people of Tennessee, dated the 25th of March, 1843, and reiterated by him in his letter to George W. Smith and others, dated Columbia, May 15th, 1843, he says: "The proposed distribution is in truth but a branch of Mr. Clay's famed American System. Mr. Clay is the author of the measure, as he was of the American system. In every view of the measure, it is an auxiliary to the protective policy. The manufacturing States so understand it, and hence the Legislatures of Pennsylvania, New York, Delaware, Vermont, Rhode Island, Connecticut and some others, have during the past and present year passed Legislative resolves, instructing their Senators, and requesting their Representatives in Congress to advocate the measure."

Resolved, That we have a sincere and brotherly feeling of sympathy for our fellow-citizens of Pennsylvania, who are made the dupes of designing politicians when they are induced by them to believe that James K. Polk is in favor of a protective tariff, which has at all times when called on declared himself its decided and bitter enemy. A resolution pledging the Whigs of Schuylkill County to support the Hon. Alexander Ramsey for Congress, without any explanation, was voted down, and the following preamble and resolution was offered as a substitute by John Bannan, and adopted:

Whereas, In the opinion of this meeting the County of Schuylkill has been unfairly dealt with by the other Counties composing this Congressional District in disregarding the rights of Schuylkill County in the selection of the present nominee for Congress: That it was the agreement and general understanding of the party that the nominee was to have been made from Schuylkill County this fall, this meeting entertains no doubt, but inasmuch as at this peculiar juncture, more perhaps than at any other which may again occur, the interests of the whole country demand that the Whigs with great unanimity should stand up to the support of the Tariff of 1842 and the distribution of the proceeds of the public lands—so unjustly encroached thereon, that in the opinion of this meeting, the one language of James K. Polk, in his published address to the people of Tennessee, dated the 25th of March, 1843, and reiterated by him in his letter to George W. Smith and others, dated Columbia, May 15th, 1843, he says: "The proposed distribution is in truth but a branch of Mr. Clay's famed American System. Mr. Clay is the author of the measure, as he was of the American system. In every view of the measure, it is an auxiliary to the protective policy. The manufacturing States so understand it, and hence the Legislatures of Pennsylvania, New York, Delaware, Vermont, Rhode Island, Connecticut and some others, have during the past and present year passed Legislative resolves, instructing their Senators, and requesting their Representatives in Congress to advocate the measure."

Resolved, That we have a sincere and brotherly feeling of sympathy for our fellow-citizens of Pennsylvania, who are made the dupes of designing politicians when they are induced by them to believe that James K. Polk is in favor of a protective tariff, which has at all times when called on declared himself its decided and bitter enemy. A resolution pledging the Whigs of Schuylkill County to support the Hon. Alexander Ramsey for Congress, without any explanation, was voted down, and the following preamble and resolution was offered as a substitute by John Bannan, and adopted:

Whereas, In the opinion of this meeting the County of Schuylkill has been unfairly dealt with by the other Counties composing this Congressional District in disregarding the rights of Schuylkill County in the selection of the present nominee for Congress: That it was the agreement and general understanding of the party that the nominee was to have been made from Schuylkill County this fall, this meeting entertains no doubt, but inasmuch as at this peculiar juncture, more perhaps than at any other which may again occur, the interests of the whole country demand that the Whigs with great unanimity should stand up to the support of the Tariff of 1842 and the distribution of the proceeds of the public lands—so unjustly encroached thereon, that in the opinion of this meeting, the one language of James K. Polk, in his published address to the people of Tennessee, dated the 25th of March, 1843, and reiterated by him in his letter to George W. Smith and others, dated Columbia, May 15th, 1843, he says: "The proposed distribution is in truth but a branch of Mr. Clay's famed American System. Mr. Clay is the author of the measure, as he was of the American system. In every view of the measure, it is an auxiliary to the protective policy. The manufacturing States so understand it, and hence the Legislatures of Pennsylvania, New York, Delaware, Vermont, Rhode Island, Connecticut and some others, have during the past and present year passed Legislative resolves, instructing their Senators, and requesting their Representatives in Congress to advocate the measure."

Resolved, That we have a sincere and brotherly feeling of sympathy for our fellow-citizens of Pennsylvania, who are made the dupes of designing politicians when they are induced by them to believe that James K. Polk is in favor of a protective tariff, which has at all times when called on declared himself its decided and bitter enemy. A resolution pledging the Whigs of Schuylkill County to support the Hon. Alexander Ramsey for Congress, without any explanation, was voted down, and the following preamble and resolution was offered as a substitute by John Bannan, and adopted:

Whereas, In the opinion of this meeting the County of Schuylkill has been unfairly dealt with by the other Counties composing this Congressional District in disregarding the rights of Schuylkill County in the selection of the present nominee for Congress: That it was the agreement and general understanding of the party that the nominee was to have been made from Schuylkill County this fall, this meeting entertains no doubt, but inasmuch as at this peculiar juncture, more perhaps than at any other which may again occur, the interests of the whole country demand that the Whigs with great unanimity should stand up to the support of the Tariff of 1842 and the distribution of the proceeds of the public lands—so unjustly encroached thereon, that in the opinion of this meeting, the one language of James K. Polk, in his published address to the people of Tennessee, dated the 25th of March, 1843, and reiterated by him in his letter to George W. Smith and others, dated Columbia, May 15th, 1843, he says: "The proposed distribution is in truth but a branch of Mr. Clay's famed American System. Mr. Clay is the author of the measure, as he was of the American system. In every view of the measure, it is an auxiliary to the protective policy. The manufacturing States so understand it, and hence the Legislatures of Pennsylvania, New York, Delaware, Vermont, Rhode Island, Connecticut and some others, have during the past and present year passed Legislative resolves, instructing their Senators, and requesting their Representatives in Congress to advocate the measure."

Democratic Tariff Meeting.

At a large and respectable meeting of the Democrats of Dickinson township, friendly to the Tariff of 1842, held pursuant to notice, at Trege's Tavern, on Saturday the 31st of August, James Moore, President—Capt. Jacob Chenell, Henry Lanch, Jacob Plyler, Peter Uz, Philip Turd, John McKinney, and Henry Smith, Vice Presidents—Martin Snyder, Secretary—the following proceedings were had:

The Committee appointed at a former meeting to address a letter to the Hon. Jas. K. Polk, made report that they had addressed the following communication to him; that five weeks have since elapsed, and that no reply has been received.

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to every exertion to secure the election of the Ticket nominated this day. Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the officers and published in all the Whig papers in this county, and in the Congressional District.

(Signed by the Officers.) LATEST FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE. The arrival of the Packet Ship Emerald at New York brings intelligence a few days later from England.

The hostile aspect of affairs between England and France is not in the least changed, but rather confirmed. The Morocco affair was the congressing topic of interest. James Haggerty, Esq., American Consul, at Liverpool, writes to each of the children of the Queen's visit to Ireland.

The Queen's visit to Ireland.—The report gains strength daily, that the Queen will visit Ireland in the course of the present autumn; and it is also generally believed, that her visit will be signified by a gracious and generous act, namely, that of the liberation of Mr. O'Connell and his companions