Blow on! blow on! we love the howling Of winds that wall us o'er the sea; As fearless as the welf that's prowling Upon our native hills are we. The doem'd in terror fly before us, We've neil'd the black flag to the mast ! It there shall float trinmphant o'er us, We will defend it to the last ! Blow on, &c.

Roll on! roll on! we leave the motion Of waves that bear us on our way ; No swifter bark e'er sailed the ocean, No skiff more lightly skims the bay. The lightning from the sky is flashing ! The thunder's distant roar we hear, But while o'er seas we thus are dashing, We waves, nor winds, nor lightnings feaf ! Roll on, &c.

Flash on! flash on! we love the gleaming, That through the darkness shows our way; The black flag still is proudly streaming As proudly, as it floats by day; The wave's roar with the thunder mingling Is music that we love to hear : The lightning's flash at midnight shining, Bhows us a scene for ever dear. Flash on, &c.

The following capital enecdote we copy from the correspondence of the Charleston, (S. C.) Patriot-

TNDIAN VEGETABLE ELIXER & LINIMEN T-INDIAN VEGETABLE ELIXER & LINIMEN T—A cure for Rheumatic affections. This article penetrates to every nerve and sinew of the person using it, and it has attained a reputation unequalled by any other article in Rheumatism. This will cure the most severe cases—extend contracted muscles, and bring feeling and sensibility to limbs long paralyzed and useless. We only need refer to some cases below to obtain the confidence of the public for these articles.

The following are two respectable, and the gentlemento well known to require comment. Let them be read. I have been afflicted most grievously since 1832 with Rheumatism and contraction of the cords of my legs, caused by the cramps of the cholors, which I then had in its most severe form. After trying many remedies in vain, I have found relief—had the cords of my legs relaxed—the swelling reduced—and am greatly benefitted by the use of one bottle of Liniment, used externally and one bottle of Indian Vegetable Elixir, used internally at the same time.

and one bottle of Indian Vegetable Elixir, used internally at the same time. I can now walk with ease in positions that I could not a week ago endure at all.

JAMES G. REYNOLDS,

144 Chrystie street, corner of Delancey street.
Though this was given more than a year since, Mr. Reynolds, was a few days ago at the office, where this remedy was obtained in full health and perfect possession of his legs and feet, and though over sixty years old, stood up on his toes repeatedly to show the spectators how complete he was cured. This remedy reaches and soothes the nerves, and allays pains most effectually on its first application, and by a few repetitions removes more effectuality and speedily Rheumatic pains, than any other application was ever known to do. Its effects are powerful and immediate. Let those, afflicted try it but once, and they must be convinced.

The Liniment is much counterfeited as to external ooks, and the only test of genuiness is to find the fac simile signature of Comstock & Co. It that cannot be Round it accounterfeit. Buy only at Comstock's Branch House, No. 2, North 5th street, Philadelphia, and in Pottsville of Facts for the Peope. THE constantly increasing popularity and rale of B. A. Fahnestock's Vermitige has induced persons who are envious of its success to palm off upon the public preparations which all medical men know to be inefficacious in expelling worms from the

This Vermiluge has made its way into public favour upon the ground of its own intrinsic merits, more than any other medicine of the kind now used; and while many worm remedies have by dint of juffing been forced into sale, and shortly after gone into the obscurity which their worthlessness justly merited, B. A. Fhanestock's Vermifuge continues to be triumphantly sustained. It has only to be used and its effects will fully sustain all that is said of its Religious Persecution in Madeira Conflict belween Protestant Converts and the Military. The New York San contains the following account of a serious conflict in Madeira sering out of an attempt to control and put down Profesiant

"Our readers are already aware of the fact, that the Portuguese Island of Madeira-where the cotablished religion is the Roman Catholic, none other being tolerated among the common people-has Been the theatre of unpleasant occurrences, owing to a desire of some of the population to become Protestants. A letter from that Island, of date 26th of November, received by us, narrates the particulars of a conflict between the Protestants converts and the Military, which had recently occurred, and of which we had a very brief account by the late English steamer. We shall endeavor to publish it to-morrow. In the mean time, we would state that the Protestants were assailed carly in November; while engaged in religious service, the police broke into the house, knecked down the man who was officiating in the service, and carried off four or five prisoners. The people having pursued them, released the prisoners; and captured the police, except one, who escaped. The populace tied the hands and feet of the pelice and left them on the road. An army of 350 men was then ordered out to put down the converts, and a fatal corflict ensued. Eight soldiers were killed, and a number of Protestants. A large number of the latter were taken prisoners, who are to be sent to Portugal to be tried as rebels." ELECTIONS IN OLDER TIME.—It was the law in Massachusetts, in the year 1643, that "for the yearly choosing of Assisiants, (now Senators) the freemen shall use Indian corn and beans. The Indian corn to manifest election, the beans contrary; and if any freeman shall put in more han one Indian corn or bean for the choice or refusal of any public officer, he shall forfeit, for every such offence, ten pounds, &c.' The usual election cry-to the polls!'-- to the polls!'. which we still preserve, no doubt originated with the party voting beans; and was, be no means, an unappropriate exordium, to preparation for the Expense of Lucomotive Power.-The Stockon and Darlington Railway have contracted to find locomotive power for the transport of coal and coke, on the great North of England Railway, at the extremely low rate of one-eighth of a p nny per ton per mile. I sometime ago mentioned that the Midland was carrying coals at three farthings, or six-eighths of a penny, and making a good profit. The present contract is a fine ilustration of the fact.

Mis Landon says:-I do think that the affection which clings to the home of our childhoodthe early love which lingers round the flowers we have sown, the shrubs we have planted—is, though a simple, a sweet and purifying influence on the character. I cannot help thinking that the drooping bough, the fairy-like rose, lend some of their own grace to one who has loved them and made them her companion.

CONDEMNATION BY WHOLESALE. The ediwhere all persons interested in the distribution of tor of the 'Signs of the Times,' who has been travelling through New England on a religious tour, does not speak in such complimentary terms of the Population of Providence, R. I. as he might. He says-"If there he now residing in the idence a single disciple of Jesus Christ, we could < not learn his name or residence.' JONATHIN SLICK ON BUSTLES.-Inchis colebrated work called High Life in New York, Jonathan thus enlarges on the prominent fashion of the day, while giving an account of a 'swarry' or conversationary' he attended at the splendid mansion of his cousin John. Speaking of his cousin's wife, he thus remarks: "I looked at her putty earnestly, I can tell you, and I do think she would have been a crifter that John might have been proud of, if it wasn't for that stuck up way she's got since she came down here to York. I never seen a critter's back stuck up as her's was, I rally did think she was getting the rickets, and I felt so anxious about it that I turned to Cousin John afore I went to speak to to her, and sez I, sort of low, cousin John, how did your wife hurt her back so! I declare it makes . me feel awfully to see what a hump she's got a growing since she's come away from Connecticut.' With that Cousin John looked at her and laffed a little, but I seen he didn't feel just, right and arter a minute, he said, sez he, ' Hush cousin you must not speak so loud; it's true, Mary, has put on rather too much bustle, but it's the fashion you see.' I looked round and true as you live there wasn't a gal in the room that hadn't her back a sticken out the same way. Such a set of humpbacked critters I never did put my eyes on afore; and yet they all stood about smiling and talking to the fellers as if nothing ailed them, poor things!"
