From Hood's (London) Magazine. THE HOUSE OF MOURNING. An extract from a piece in the form of a farce entitled 'The House of Mourning,' in which the establishment of shops in London, exclusively for the sale of mourning attire is exposed to play-ful satire. A shop of this kind painted black outside after the fashion of a Parisian Maison de Devil, attracts the attention of a country squire and his lady, and, influenced by curiosity, they forthwith entered the establishment. Ebony chairs being placed for accommodation, they as addressed by a young man in black who speaks across the counter, with the solemn air and tone of a clergyman at a funeral.

MOST EXTRAORDINARY CURE!-If any have doubts Most Extraordinary Cure!—If any have doubts they may now dismiss them, and the most incredulous may consider Deafness as curable. Numerous cases of cures, and many of them very remarkable—by the use of 'Scarpa's Oil.' have been published, but this 'caps the climax. Young or jold may yet recover hearing. A lady in Smithfield, Pennsylvania, and now about 80 years of are had been gradually getting deaf for more than 40 years, so that it was next to impossible to make her hear conversation in the loudest tones of voice; Last winter she was induced to try 'Scarpa's Oil for Deafness.' It is only necessary to add that she has need two bottles, and that her hearing is perfectly restord—she is cured. ed—she is cured.

DEAFNESS CURED.—The following extract from a letter written by Mr. Johnson of Boston, to a friend in letter written by Mr. Johnson of Boston, to a friend in this city, is important;

The bottle of Scarpa's Oil for Deafness, that you sent me, with the wish that my daughter would try it, has been used, and in its effects, have actonished all; you know how very deaf she has been since she was three years old—she how hears quite well, but as the medicine has all been used, I wish you to send me an other bottle, which I have every reason to believe wi cure her entirely. —[Times.

Beggans IN New Your -- An arrevolute is related in the New York Trilaine, to show the heart-. lesquess of some of the hags who infrag that city, living on charity: A clergyman was frequently called upon for aid by a female, who aniformly twoight in her arms an infant clothed in rags, and so poor and emaciated that, apparently the existence of the little sufferer could not be many days prolonged. After suitable relief had been furnished to the child, in the way of clothing, he clergyman went to another house, to make a call, and there found the living skeleton again be had just relieved. This time it was in the hands of another mother, and clothed in rags as before. He investigated the matter, and found that the child was starved for the purpose of being used as capital in begging; that four different persons used it for this purpose, each using different streets to exhib it it in; and all claimed it as their ownsil hey cleared by the operation about six dollars her week.
