MONODY FOR PHAZMA. Down in the green wave lies the wreck of one Whose song was dear to me. Oh, Southern bard! From thy far dwelling in the West, where won

Thy lyre a love, a name we must discard All hope to hear its roundelay once more. · I've seen a cloud in snow and gold upon The summer sky; I've heard upon the shore
The sea's wild hymn, but never yet hath shown

The cloud, nor sung the sea, for sorrow, joy, As of thy lays have done. Thy heart is cold. Thine eyes are darkened, but of life's al'oy, Phazma! the cup thy hand shall never hold. Lighter than weigh the surges of life's sea The ocean billow o'er thy bones shall be.

THE CREDIT STREEM:-In Barre-, says the Gazette, a lady with a sweet face and remarkably tempting pair of lips, entered one of our shops a few days since, and after examining some small articles, inquired the price of a nice pair of mits. -The shopkeeper had almost lost himself in gazing at the ruly portals through which came the little musical voice. "Miss," said he, you may have them for a kiss." "A greed," replied the lady, the blush on her cheek goinged by the sparkle in her eye; fagreed, and as I see you give credit here, you may charge it on your book, and collect it in the best way you can!" Smiling enough on the confused eleck to pay half the debt, she pocketed the purchase and tripped gully

REVOLUTIONARY ANECHOTE. Mr. B. a morchant of Providence, R. L. and a man quite celebrated afterwards for his liberality and public spirit, was the owner of a most fortunate privateer which sailed out of the port of Providence. On one occasion when he had just unshipped a cargo of sugar, &c., taken from a very rich prize, in rolling it into the yard, one of the hogsheads stove. and a quantity of sugar fell out. A poor woman in the neighborhood seeing the disaster, ran and filled her aprom. Mr. B. from the loft of his store called out. 'What are you doing there!'

The poor woman looking upward, answered Privateering, sir.' The retort was so forcible, that the merchant immediately made her a present of the chine hogshead of sugar.

Scone Tex .- A-countryman, not particularly well acquainted with the various names and qualities of the China herb, was taking his breakfast at the St. Charles, when he called upon the waiter for a cup of tea.

"What kind of tea will you have sir?" asked Patrick. "Why tea!-give ma a cup of lea," said the stranger. "Yes, sir-but what kind of tea?"

"Store Tex, confound you!" responded the countryman, in a tone which told that he was a little 'savage.' Do you think I was to drink sassufres when I come to town !"

RATHER VERDANT,-The New Haven Register relates a capital story of on of the members of the Connecticat Legislature, who was present at Gov. Ballwin's swarry' on the evening of election day. Sipping lustily at the first glass of ice cream he had ever seen, he approached a person whom he supposed connected with the family, and with a sort of I'll keep shady air, whispered, your cream here, as you call it. is sweetened first rate but I guess you didn't know it was freze

How TOPACE A CARPET PAG-Punch gives the following directions for packing a curpet bag: -The bag should be packed by placing the clean linen in first, including the frilled shirts. After which, stuff in the coat and boots; garnish with shaving tackle, and ram down with hairbrush-If the packing is not then successful, insert your foot into the bag, and pull fiercely at the handles. It does not matter about the carpet bag being wide opan at both sides, so as it is closed with a pad lock in the middle.

other preparation of arsaparilla that is made.

It is warranted to be stronger than 6 bottles of MOST others—stronger than four of SOME, and stronger than three of the STRONGEST prepared by any other in the United States.

Dr. Leidy's Sarsaparilla is recommended by all respectable physicians in preference to any other. All who have ever used it, have derived MORE BENEFIT from one bottle than three to ten of others; and those who, after having used other's preparations, without benefit, will use Dr. Leidy's, will soon be convinced (as thousands have already been) of the foregoing assertion.

The apparatus with which Dr. Leidy's extracts used in his preparation of Sarsaparilla' as prepared, is the only one in the United States, imperted by Dr. Leidy himself, from the celebrated house of Pelleter & Cavenon, in Paris, at a creat expense, and is capable of extracting the medical virtues of Sarsaparilla and other roots, more effectually than by any other process:

A cure for Rheumatic affections. This article penetrates to every nerve and singly of the person using it, and it has attained a reputation unequalled by any other article in Rheumatic. This will cure the most severe cases—extend contracted junceton, and bring feeling and sensi, lifty to I mibs long paralyzed and users. We only need to fee to some cases below to obtain the condidence of the public for these articles.

The following are two respectable, and the centlement on well known to require conjugent. Let them be read. I have been afflicted most articrously since 1822 with Rheumatism and contraction of the cords of my legs, caused by the cramps of the cholora, which I then had in its most severe form. After trying many remedies my vair, I have found retifer—lad, the cords of my legs relived—the swelling reduced—and am groutly heneful to bothe of Indian Veretable Elisir, used in ernal to get the same time. I can now walk with case in positions that I could not a week ago endure at all.
