The St. Louis Reveille declares the following o be a "well-authenticated fact which occurred at Holton in, Maine."

In old New England long ago, When all creation travelled slow, And nought but trackless deserts lay, Refore the early settlers' way; A youth and damsel, bold and fair, Had cause to take a journey where Through night and day, and day and night No house would greet their wearied sight; And, thinking Hymen's alter should Precede their journey through the wood, They straightway to a Justice went— By love and circumstances sent ! . The justice-good old honest paic-Said it was quite unfortunate, But at that time he rould not bind These two young folks of willing mind, For his commission-sad to say-Had just expired-but yesterday ! Yet, after all, he would not say That single they should go away; And so he made them join their hands In holy wedfock's happy bands, And "just a little" he would marry-Enough perhaps, to safely carry-As they were in connulial mood-"Enough to do them through the wood!"

. Horse Allen.'-J. M. Field, of the St. Louis Reveille, remarks the N. Y. Spirit of the Times, is 'an admirable Crichton' in his way.-On the stage he plays everything from Jeremy Diddler to Hamlet-from Prince in 'Cinderella' to Jein Bags in 'The Wandering Minstrel.'-As a writer of Fourth of July orations, political pasquinades, criticisms upon art, poetry, sketches of men and things, and in all the multifarrous duties of the press-gang, he is equally at home. Ho finds ' sermons in stones,' not only, but really is good in everything he undertakes. The last number of his Dailey Reveille contains the following

· Horse Allen !'-This celebrated gentleman is a recognized 'hoss' certainly, and we are told, rejoices at his cognomination as he did at his nomination for the chair gubernatorial, last election .-He did not run well enough to reach the chair though; it appears, from his own account, that his hoss qualities 'any how' tell considerably below those of the sure enough animal. This is his story-which he is very fond of relating up by

"You see, boys, I came to the river, and found I had to swim. Had best clothes on and didn't know what to do: What River! Why Salt River-our Salt, here in Missouri; thing always full when don't want it! Well, boys, you knows hoss Allen !- no back out in him, any how !-Stripped to the skin, just tied clothes up in a bundle, strapped it on the critter's head, and 'cross we swam together.' Well, don't you think, while I was getting up the brink, the thing got away and started off with my clothes on his head! and the more I run, and hollered, and whoad, the more I couldn't catch the cussed varmint!-Why, he'd go, and I arter-hot as blazes too all the way, and yaller flies about, and when I

all the way, and yaller flies about, and when I did get get to ble near, he'd stop and look, cock his ears, and give a snuff as if he never smelt a man afore, and then streak it off again as if I was an Injun!

We'll, boys, all I had to do was to keep a follerin' on, and keep flies off, and I did, till we came to a slough, and, says I, now old feller, I got you, and I drove him in. We'll, after all, do you know fellers, the critter wouldn't stick! he went in and in, and by 'mby came to a deep place, and swim right across—a fact, true as thunder!

We'll, you see, when I come to the deep place, I swum, too; and do you know that that beast just naturally whited till I got out, and looked at me all over and I could not all least him left. Though this was given more than a year since, Mr. Though this was given more than a year since, Mr. Though this was given more than a year since, Mr. Though this was given more than a year since, Mr. Though this was given more than a year since, Mr. Though this was given more than a year since, Mr. Though this was given more than a year since, where this me all over, and I could act'lly see him laffin' !. and I was nasty enough to make a horse laugh, any how!

"Well, thinks I old feller, reckon you have had fun enough with me now, so I gets some sticks and scrapes myself all over, and got tol'ble white again, and then begins to coax the varmint. Well I 'whoa'd and we boy'd' and came up right civil to ,him, I tell ye, and he took it mighty condescendin' too; and just when I had him sure-cussed if he didn't right back into the slough again, swum the -deep place, walked out and stood on the other side watin' for me.

"Well, by this time, the yaller flies came at me again, and I just nat'rally went in after the blasted beast, and stood before him, on t'other side just as nasty as before did by thunder boys! Wellhe laffed agin till he nearly shook the bundle off and away he went, back again, three miles to the river, and then he just stopped dead and waited till I came up to him, and just kind a axed me to come and take hold of the bridle, and then gave a kick and a ruction and went in again, laffin' all the time and, right in the middle, heng me, if he didn't shake my clothes off, and away they went, down stream, while he swam ashore and Pjust nat'rally lay down on the bank and cussed all creation.

Well, you see, boys, there I lays 'hove an hour, when I see a feller pullin' up stream in a skiff, a tiyin' on a coat and says I, stranger, see here, when you're done gettin' my coat on I'll thank you for my shirt ! and the feller sees how it was and pulls ashure and helps me. I tell you what, boys, you may talk of horse laughs, but when you want a good one, just think of Horse Allen!

WHITE-WASH .- Take 11 gailons of well-burnt lime, slack the same with hot water in a tub, (covered to keep in the steam) pass it in the fluid form through a fine seive; add one pint of common salt, one fourth of a pound of whitening pulverized, one pound of brown sugar, three pints of rice flour, made into a thin and well-boiled paste, and one pound of glue well dissolved; add five gallons To Dyers, Bleachers, Paper Makers, Steam of hot water to the whole mixture. Apply with a painter's brush, warm, if upon the outside of the building; if within dours, cold. The above forms an excellent white wash, and will retain its brilliancy for years.

A Hoosier and mesmerism .- Were you ever in the mesmeric state?' said a believer in the science to a fiat-boat Hoosier. 'I never was, stranger' said the Hoosier. 'I came from the state of Indianny myself, but I've lived in the Iowa Territory.'

Genuine Poetry -I sing her praise in poetry, For her at mourn and eve;

I cries whole pints of bitter tears, And vipes them off with my sleeve.' I wish you had been Eve, said an urchin to a etingy old aunt, proverbial for her meanness.

'Why so!' Because, said he, you would have eaten all the apple, instead of dividing it with Adam!'

MEDICINES.

It cannot be Denied (For Truth is mighty/) that TT DR. LEIDY'S SARSAPARILLA LD Is the purest, strongest, and most efficacious of any other proparation of arsapare a that is made.

It is warranted to be stronger than 6 bottles of MOST others—stronger than four of SOME, and stronger than three of the STEONGEST prepared by any other in the United States.

Dr. Leidy's Barsaparilla is recommended by all respectable physiciane in preference to any other. All who have ever used it, have derived MORB EEN EFIT from the present of the present of the physicane in preference to any other. All who have ever used it, have derived MORB EEN EFIT from the present of the pres pectane physicians in preference to any dinet. All who have ever used it, have derived MORE BENEFIT from one bottle than three to ten of others; and those who, after having used other's preparations, without benefit, will use Dr. Leidy's, will soon be convinced (as thousands have already been) of the foregoing assertion. The apparatus with which Dr. Leidy's extracts used in his preparation of Sarsaparilla as prepared, is the only one in the United States, imported by Dr. Leidy himself, from the celebrated house of Pelleter & Cavenon, in Paris, at a great expense, and is capable of extracting the medical virtues of Sarsaparilla and other roots, more effectually than by any other process.

Deafness Cured—The following extract from a letter written by Mr. Johnson of Boston, to a friend in this city, is important.

The boulle of Scarpa's Oil for Deafness, that you sent me, with the wish that my daughter would try it, has been used, and in its: effects, have astonished all; you know how very deaf she has been since she was three years old—she now hears quite well, but, as the medicine has all been used, I wish you to send me an other bottle, which I have every reason to believe wis cure her entirely.—[Times.
