

|   | of severally, had been and charming Cough and bld useda most distressing and darming Cough and bld usedmany medicenes with hule relation, his been almost   |            | Marchssar Oil.Rose No Salvo                       |                            | 1                                 | ·   1                                 | life he provides forfor $6550 they would   |
|---|---|------------|---|----------------------------|-----------------------------------|---------------------------------------|---|
|   |   |            | Cold Cream aToj et Powder                         | n excellent                | article.                          | ·                                     | one year.                                       |
|   | Syrap-she thinks another bolice will be encycline in the Mariner's Church.  |            | Vundiger de Ri  | ubre.                      | - 142 - E .                       |                                       | THE Managers of ton the 27th Decemb         |
| • | Rev. O. Dompassi for the structure sympleto aPhilada, gave a bottle of use ultransary sympleto alady who was confined to her bed with a Cough,  |            | Roussell's celPaste, for w                        | ebraiet Eihiteming 10  | noileift Saped soffenitig th  | ie skin                               | referred in the originCompany, appropriate  |
|   |   |            | Orri's Touth VGlenn's Supon                       | Mash i                     | 18 A                              | · .                                   | cies for the wholewere issued prior to      |
|   | He also give a bottle to a sanor who was ground find nothing to   |            | Rou-sell's unri                                       | va led Sha                 | ving Ofeam.                       |                                       | of them therefore wiwill be entitled to 10  |
|   | relieve him-after taking which he called to say thatit perfectly cured him. Mr. Honglass, moreoverit perfectly cured him.   |            | O'd Brówn WRog-selitz rele                        | Seater Alu                 | iond Soap.                        |                                       | making an addition of$1100, will be pridy  |
|   |   |            | Onto of Rose.   | Oringe, Lo                 | mon, Musk.                        | andava                                | instead of the $1000 athat were issued in  |
|   | ing under severe Julievil was cared man dately by   |            | riety of otheClothe, Hair,                        | Whisher, T                 | eeth and Na                       | Brush- L                              | or $57.50 on everywill be cutitled to 7    |
|   | monity Narus also that while on a visit to Woods,monity Narus also that while on a visit to Woods,town, N J freently, Mrs S.W. of that village, was   | Ça,        | ll of which w   |                            |                                   | · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · | and in ratable proporprior to 1st of Januar |
|   | and the ablato sit up throng a fir day, not a survey  | by į       |   | · · ·                      | B BANNAI                          | N, Ag't.40—                       | The Bonus will be                               |
|   | Cold, no sent her a buille of my Pulmonary Syrup,which gave her immediate relfcf.   | - 4        | ec. 14,   |                            | i                                 |                                       | books endorsed on pIt is the design of l    |
|   | For sale in Potisville, by JOHN S. C. MARTIN.   | NE         | W CASH DRY  | GOOD, F                    | ANCY AND TI                       | IMMING                                | addition or bonus t                             |
|   | July 13 23-   |            |   | TOR                        |                                   |                                       | JOHN F. JAMES,                                  |
|   | Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills   | 13         | THE ROOM  | IN CENT                    | RESERVEL.                         | IED BY                                | above Institution, at                           |
|   | TOT THE NORTH AMERICAN COLLEGE  | -1         | he subscriber re                                      | spectfuliyaddic in gen | informs the ccral, that he h  | asjust o-                             | Lives, at the publishdesired on the subject |
| • | Of Elealth.   | pen        | ed a fresh assor                                      | tment of the               | e newestkryle.                    | s of goods,                           | Pottsville Feb. 8th                             |
| ĺ |   | SJ         | ks. Lawns, Al   | pacas, and                 | l Balzarines                      |                                       |   |
|   | NO MEDICINE has ever been introduced to the A-merican Public, whose virtues have been moreschearfully and universally acknowleged, than the a-  |            | h a variety of f:style of                         |                            |                                   |                                       | DR  |
| 1 | bove named.   | Pr         | ints, Silk, Theue, and Black                      | bet Alpac                  | a and other s                     | naucis, 1                             | Sarsapa   |
|   | WRIGHT S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS.To descant upon their merits, at this late day, would   | -          | • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •                 |                            |                                   |                                       | THE ONLY, PILLS                                 |
|   | seem to be wholy unnecessary, as very few indeedwho read this article, will be found unaquainted with   | Se         | wing Silk, Spest quality, C                           | pol and I                  | Patent ThreeHosiern Str       | aw Leg-                               | I rilla in their conThey purify the B       |
|   | the real exclicitly of the medicine. But if furtherproof were wanting to establish the credit of this singu-  | _          | born, Gimp, B   | raid and                   | other styles o                    | of Fancy                              | cleanse the Stomacistances that produce     |
| , | "In routade if might be found in the fact that no ment";  |            | Bonnets, by t   | he case, do                | z. or hingle                      | Bonnet,                               | They are compose                                |
|   | cine in the country has been soSHAMBLESSLY COUNTERFEITED.   | AI         | Men's and Boof whichwill b                        | e sold at the              | iowest cash p                     | rices.                                | (free from mercurythe safest, best, and     |
|   | Ignorant and unprincipled men have at various pla-  | . 1        | Api. 20 10 1y   | -                          | JOSEPH M                          | BRGAN.                                | existence.Several thousand ce               |
|   | completely to dereive the public have brade it in out-  | -          | IMPOR   | TANT I                     | NVENTION                          | ε. ·                                  | tofore been publishannually by thousan      |
|   | These wicked people could never pass on men warned  |            |   |                            | . 11                              | 1                                     | have already been s                             |
|   | storekeepers, who because they can purchase the spin-   | · I        | SUPERIOR  |                            | 11 1                              |                                       | have been sold in F                             |
|   | monstrous system of imposition and crime.   |            | HE undersignproprietor of M                       |                            |                                   |                                       | thus showing that intured they have a r     |
|   | fore be on their guard against every kind of imposi-tion, and remember the only genuine Agents, in Potts-   | Га         | tent Washing A  | lachine, for               | the county ofnes at his shot  | o in Potts-                           | pills-which arises tknown at home as a r    |
|   | ville, are Messars, T. & J. Beatty.The following highly respectable store keepers have  | vi         | le, where he has                                      | a suppiy of                | e of seven dol                    | ara.                                  | consequently emploany other; in addition    |
| • | been appointed Agents for the sale ofWRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS, FOR   | ( e        | This machine foany respect, is w                  | 1.00.200655                | . chicacy and                     | perfection (                          | Quality and not alonging to them; on        |
| , | SCHUYLKILL COUNTY,  |            |   |                            |                                   |                                       | four of others.Be advised, them             |
|   | and of whom it is confidently believed the genuine  | enpo   | ine among the ninced (PERFECrubbing) tearing  | T. It was                  | shes without                      | saucezing                             | take none other tha                             |
|   | edicine can with certainty be obtained:T. & J. Beatty, Pottsville.  | 80         | rubbing) tearing                                      | or wearin                  | the linery wo                     | rk of clean                           | Try them! (they coSo well satisfied         |
|   | Bickel & Hill, Orwigsburg.  |            | ig Hems, Tucksashes clean all                     |                            |                                   |                                       | will never take any                             |
|   | Aron Mattis, Mahantango.J. Weist, Klingerstown.   | l tei      | d clothing of thnth part of soar                  | necessary                  | m, me orume                       | ally way or                           | other kinds, then tryence will soon be di   |
|   | Jacob Kaufinan, Lower Mahantango.Jonas Kaufinan, do   | 1 102      | ashing. A girl oto hours, than ty                 | f twelve ye                | na whole day                      | by hand.                              | straint from occupabe apprehended; yo       |
|   | John Suyder, Friedensburg.Featheroff, Drey &co., Tuscarora.   |            | Pottsville, Augu                                      | ist 3                      | ISAAC S                           | 31                                    | qual safely.                                    |
|   | William Tagert, Tamaqua.John Maurer, Upper Mahantango.  | · -        | Da. Bl  | CKER'S I                   | YE SALVE                          |                                       | Emporium, No. 191(sign of the Golden        |
|   | M. Ferrider, West Penn Township.  |            | fresh supplyremedy for s                          | of Dr. Ba                  | ebor's Ers S:                     | alve, a sur                           | Also, by Kiett &Sons; A. S. & E. Ro         |
|   | P. Schuyler, &co. East Brunswick Township.C. H. DeForest, Liewellyn.  | 21         | nd for sale at  |                            | MARTIN'S D                        | rug Store. 33   -                     | Also by P. Pomp                                 |
|   | E. O. & J. Kauffman, Zimmermantown.Bennett & Taylor, Minersville.   |            | August 17   |                            |                                   |                                       | Lancaster, and mokeepers in the Unit        |
|   | George Reifsnyder, New Castle.Henry Koch & Son, McKeansburg.  |            | New   | Shove                      | 1 Factor                          | y.                                    | Also at J. G. BRCStore, Centre stree        |
| • | Abraham Heepner, Fort Carbon.   | 17         | THE subscribeour Merchan                          | is and other               | s, to the subla                   | you                                   | May 18,   |
|   | Samuel Boyer, Port Clinton,Shoemaker & Kauffman, Schuylkill Haven,  |            |   |                            | nd HOLS                           |                                       | Roussel's                                       |
|   | BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.The only security against imposition is to purchase  |        | anufactured at hhich are equalptained from ab | in quality,                | if not superio                    | or to those                           |   |
| • | The only section against against and in all cases befrom the regular advertised agents, and in all cases beparticular to ask for Weight's Indian Vegetable Pills.   | 1 21       | nariicle equal i                                      | niquality, c               | an ne optimed                     | elsewhere,                            | A new and shien                                 |
| · |   |            | le therefore sollome Industry,                    |                            |                                   | •                                     | United States or C                              |
|   | cine, wholesale and reatil, No. 169 Bace street, Phila-delphia  |            | 65- Messrs: Clein ale of my Shove                     | is in Pottev               | ifle and vicinit                  | y, who will                           | purity, and tragram                             |
| • | 5. Remember, none are genuine except Wright'sfindian Vegetable Pills.   | e          | xecute all orders                                     | 1. :                       | JOSEPH                            | ALLEN.                                | Guerlain's Ambrepounds, it far surp         |
|   | Feb. 21, S-   | ſ.         | New York, Au  | g. 3.                      |                                   | 14-                                   | as to render shav                               |
|   | N-W DRUG STORE.   |            | SVILI   | LAM N                      | IUIRHE                            | i D ,                          | freshly prepared fr                             |
|   | R B FICHHOLTT & CO respectfulle   |            | MERH  | ANT                        | "SHO                              | TEL.                                  | est skill, and is notarticle for shaving    |
|   | informs the citizens of Pottsville, and   |            |   | 1                          | ndt Stree                         |                                       | with splendid giltJust received an          |
|   | Schuylkill county generally, that they haveopened, (in the store formerly occupied by   |            |   | NEW                        |                                   |                                       | Nov., 9, 45-                                    |
|   | Mr. Stater,) a general assortment ofDrugs, Medicines,   | 11         | August 21th   |                            |                                   | 34                                    | ROUSSEL'S                                       |
|   | Drugs, Medicines,Chemicals, Paints,   |            |   | Iron!                      | Tron!!                            | 3                                     | LAUGIER,  |
|   | Oils, Dyes,   | ł . | TUST received   |                            |                                   | and general                           | has been for                                    |
|   | Varnishes, Putty,Glass, Spices,   |            | UST receivedassortment ofton of all sizes.    |                            |                                   |                                       |   |
| • | Patent Medicines, &c., &c.  | i          | nch to 21, rai  | road tongu                 | es. Bledges anse shoes. Junia | ata mail rods,                        | preserving the gu                               |
|   | And solicits a share of public patronage, confidentlyassuring the public, that every article in their line  | , , ,      | nety.   | &., also Sp                | ikes and NailsEDWARD Y        | , in then the                         | sidered a very BE                               |
| • | aball be of the first quality, and purely genuine.  |            | Jan. 4, 1845.   | ·                          |                                   | 1-                                    | yond comparisonaration of the kin           |
|   | Having served a regular apprentices bip to the busness in Philadelphia, those who favour them withcut can rest satisfied that they will guard strictly a  | 1          | Gı  | avdon'                     | s Forms,                          |                                       | has received the inent dental surge             |
|   | gainst all mistakes, and have there medicines pot upwith the greatest carc and nicety.  | P          | A NEW edi   | tion, revis                | ed and cor                        | rected. and                           | The Eau de Laties with spiendid             |
|   | Physicians', prescriptions attended to with particuacare at all hours. Country Physicians and Store   |            | adapted t   | o thè∿pr                   | esent practi                      | ce. Price                             |   |
| - | Seepers, supplied at a small advance on city prices.December 3.   | ľ          | 54 50, just pulJan. 4, 1845                       |                            | B. BANNA                          | N, Ag't.                              | Just received an210v., 9 45                 |
|   |   |            |   | ĺ                          |                                   |                                       |   |
|   | e e station de la construction de la constru |            | 1.  |                            | -                                 |                                       |   |
|   |   |            |   |                            |                                   |                                       |   |

life he provides for them $10 JANUARY 20, 1815. this Company, at a meeting held this tomp into a necessary in the design inal prospectus or circular of the used a Bonus or addition to all poli e of life, remaining in force, that o the last of January, 1812. Thos which were issued in the year 1833 which were issued in the year loco, in of $100 on every $1000. That is d when: the policy becomes a claim originally insured. Those policies in 1537 will be entitled to $1 perfect y $1000. And those issued in 1835 of 74 per cent, or $55 on every 100 portions on all said policies issues into the set of the set of the set of the set of the portions on all said policies issues. be credited to each polocy on the presentation at the Office. f the Company, to continue to make to the policies for fife at stated B. W. RICHARDS, President. Actuary. has been appointed Agent for the nd is prepared effect Insurances on and is prepared effict Insuran shed rates, and give any infor BENJAMIN BANNAN. R. LEIDY'S ariila Blood Pills. s in existence containing Sarsapamposition. Blood and Fluids of the body, and h and Bowels from all noxious sube disease. ed entirely of vegetable Extracts. ry and minerals) which make them d most efficacious of any other pills in certificates of their efficacy have here ed, and their sales are invitasing ids. More than One Million boxes old since their in THAN 100,000 BOXES Philadelphia alone, the past year, in the place where they are manufacin the place where the place where the place is the place ne box doing more good than two to refore, when ne essity requires to DYS BLOOD PILLS. Inc. to DLUGH FILLS. y cost but 25 cents a box.) Try them: d will you be of their good effects, you uny others. After you have tried all try Dr. Leidy's Blood Pills, the differ-discovered. No chance of diet no re-ipation, ör fear of catching cold need young and old may take them with e-Mice and Depot, Dr. Leidy's Health 191 North SECOND street, near VINE, len Ball and Scrpents) Philadelphia. & Co., Wetherill, & Co., W. Dyott & Roberts & Co., and city Druggistagenp and J. Dickson, Easton, J. F. Long, nost respectable Druggists and Store-

ted States. IOWN'S (late W. T. Epting's) Drug 20--unri valled Shaving REPART, endid article, is now universally ack-uperior to any Shaving Cream in the Europe.

In preparation is unequalled for beauty-in preparation is unequalled for beauty-rance; though somewhat analogues to brossial Cream, and other similar com-prasses them all by the emollion the party its lather, which so softens the beard usving pleasant and easy; it presesses exerver the imported article, in being if from the best, but also the cheapest rive. It is elegantly put up in boxes, it labels. t labels. and for sale by B. BANNAN, Ag't-

BALSAMIC ELIXIR, OF , for the Mouth and Teeth.

some and delightful odontalgic Elixe with any generation of the second sec r keeping the observation and con-guns in a healthy condition, and con-nting the decay of the teeth ; it is con-necessary of the second is be-n the most heautiful and perfect prep-ind ever offered to the public, since it e highest approachion of the most emie highest approbation of the most emi-zeons of this city. Laugier, elegantly put up in glass bot-id gill labels, is a beautiful and valuailet, and only needs to be known. and for sale by B. BANNAN, Agent.

on, when a young gentleman, in a very shabby epented of the sin. tilbury, saluted me with, 'Hi! Mister!' and to my What was to be done ? surprise pulled up his horse and descended from his vehicle. The young gentleman was no common personage. There was a violent attempt to smother a native vulgarity under a 'genteei' ward-I had not a friend in London, except my emtobe. The tailor had done his duty, but Nature was stronger than Art, and the wearer's low life showed through the mass of velvet and boadcloth, and gave a brassy appearance to the massive Mosaic chains and rings which encumbered the vest it to me was a diminutive ditto of my captor-the and fingers of the stranger. 'Your name is Joame sinister look-the same sneering tone. "

Sixpence, Mister.' seph Gardener, is n't it, Mister?' said the gentleman. I answered in the affirmative. 'Then "Sixpence! for what ?" you'll be good enough to get in my gig, 'cos I "The paper, pen, and ink, si raus plais."

"Want me, sir? I don't understand you." Few folks does at first ' said the centleman; but boy:

then I always carries that as satisfies 'ear afore I began a letter to my wife, but, as I wrote, the ong. There's a copy, and here's the original;' paper became covered with the faces of my chilpresenting me with a slip of paper, and exhibiting dren, and I could not proceed-I could only rarchment exactly similar in appearance. I glanced at the paper, and saw my name, and I think an hour must have passed before I re-he Queen's, and John Doe's, all jumb ed togethsumed my letter. I finished it, I know not how, er. John Doe was enough: I gues ed something and then rang the bell for a messenger. was wrong, and attempted to stummer out an en-That boy in years-that man in cunningquiry but the words stuck in my throat. Whyagain made his appearance. why—this is—' Well Mister ?'

'An execution,' said the young gentleman; and ou're now in the custody of the Sheriff of Midllesex.' dan's un moment.' Then let it be sent off immediately.

wants you!

What for! I don't owe a shilling. 'Ha! ha! ha! That's very odd, that is. You're he fourth caption I've made this morning, and not one of them owed a farthing. I don't know how it is but people like you must be very ill used. You're at the suit of Dibbins, you are,' said the gentleman.

Dibbins! Dibbins! I don't know such name.'

'And yet it aint such a common 'un as you'd e likely to forget it. But I must trouble you to get in.'

I looked at the gentleman, and saw by the com osure of his manner that I was in his power .--To resist would have been to provoke exposure. I trust, sir,' said I, that you will allow me to re turn to my family, and apprize them of my situa-

"Why, writing will do as well. You'll have every accommodation at father's,' replied the gentleman; pointing with the butt end of his whip to a seat in his tilbury, which a very dirty fellow had just vacated.

But my wife, sir, will-Now, pray don't do the sentiment, sir. Ours rowed. Davis, you'll catch that old 'un to night in Brook street; he's sure to come home for his hudden to-morrow. Now. sir, if convenient.' I obeyed, as he continued --- You see this is usy day with us (that's a rum title for a panto-

you let things stand over till the turn of the year. chaps manage to settle, and then wot's to become of us? Live and let live, ch! Mister;' and with such pleasant remarks did he beguile away the time until we arrived at Mr. Jacobs' residence in - street. N-

"Here we arrive " said the gentleman;" "it don't look so bad as you thought it would, eh!--Mister?' I should have lied if I had said it did not; for

My fellow-prisoner answered my query clearly -laconically. If you can't get bail or can't pay ou hust go to auod.'

eyes upon each other; the one with an expression ployers, and I feared to acquaint them of my posiof develish triumph-the other with that of abject tion. I had not more than 10%, in the world, and fear. hat was in the savings bank. I rang the bell and Ten-eleven o'clock, and no wife. My anzie ordered a sheet of paper. The boy who brought doomed to pass the eve preceding that day which brought the promise of peace and good will to man; was I to see that day surrounded by evidences of man's revenge and avarice ?

The hour for returing to bed arrived, and the I paid the money, and would have given doucaptain volunteered to act as groom of the chamble to have freed myself from the presence of that ber. As I was entering the sleeping apartment I felt my arm clutched violen'ly, and on turning > round, found I was held by the tailest of the new comers. . For heaven's sake, sir, tell me, are we all to sleep in the same room ?'

"It appears so," I replied. "I will not trust myself in a room with that man; he has sworn to be my death, and I will not lie down where he is .' The poor wretch shook  $\sim$ with terror. 🤹

"Be easy,' said the captain, who had over-heard "Can I have this letter taken to my house ?" him; I have a private room, ha! ha! a cup. "Oui, Mousieur,' suid the imp, "certainement board ; that's at your service ; there is no bolt but I'll tell you how to fasten it with the bootjack."-

'Hallo !' exclaimed the boy with a grin, 'you The man seemed to be relieved by this whimnderstand French! Will you give ussa lesson sical promise of security, and entered the sleepingif I bring a book inn presently ? I know a good room. bit, which I've got ' Captions to teach me.'

·Capital !' exclaimed the captain, that's learn lock shot heavily home. The sound produced an ng French without a master ! as costs anything,' said the boy, with wink-I got the alphabet from an old chap as togs Scotch snuff, and died in the Fleet ; and the and revellings were uttered loudly and fiercely, first conjugation from a banker's clerk that lost and it was sometime before the captain and myhis place 'cos we wouldn't let him out till he'd paid his bill-ha ! ha ! I went to take him, I did,' was Christmas-eve ! added the imp, with a fiendish chuckle. As the captain conducted the tallor combatant

sed them.

numbered with the . things that were."

You!' The announcement evidently surprised Captain Cool.

"Yes! Mo let me go as a treat-and it was ne tou-it was at Pentonville. . We've got him.' wife, and-John Knight. My poor girl threw said Mo. 'How do you know ?' said I; and herself on my neck, and cried heartily. John then Mo laughed, and showed me a cob-web that Knight spoke as though his throat were full of spider had spun in the night from the door-post tears. to the key-hole-ha! ha! We had him safe continued the boy, addressing me.

that it gave the lad-great offence for a few moments. The captain, however, restored him to good humor, and then desired him to see that my letter was forwarded.

. Well, where's the half crown ?' said the boy 'hallo !' holding the letter at arm's length, . Is lington, is it ! three and six.'

the power to dispute. I sat down moodily by the fire, and though would day to him when freed from the filthy cen of Mr. Jacobs.

lasses,' and was doubtlessly recalling some Bas. I run out in the idleness of enspense. . . . . .

New Year. I had just passed the Angel at Isling- but I did curse John Knight, and bitterly have I As I turned from the door my eyes fell on the person has to sail down the river nearly a mile, face of the new comer; I never haw such an expression of demoniacle joy in my life. The door | the river to the opposite side ; for there is no shore or landing place between the point that is Lelow and opened, and a tall hazgard young man entered the other, for the river fills the whale width of onethe toom. There was no mistaking who he was avenue of the cave, and is several feet deep where -the partners were together ! Not a word was spoken, but they fixed their the side wall descends into the water .- This party halascended the liver, visited the cave beyond, and had enbarked on the water for their return homewards. After they had ascended the river about half-way a number of the party, who were in high ty became agonising. And was it thus that I was glee, got into a room and overturned the boat. Their lights were all extinguished, their matches wet, the boat filled with water and sunk immediately, and they were in the blackness of darkness,' up to their chins in water. No doubt they would have all been lost, had it not been for the guide's great presence of mind. He charged them to remain perfectly still, for if they moved a single step, they might get out of their depth of water. and swimming would not avail them, for they could not see where to swim to. He knew that if they could hear the coldness of the water any length of time they would be safe, for another, guide would lie sent from the cave house to see what had become of them And in this perilous condition, up to their mouths in water, in the midst of darkness more than night, four miles under ground they remained for upwards of five hours at the end of which time another guile came to to their relief. Mathew, or Mat the guide who. rescued them, told me that when he got where they were, his fellow guide, Stephen, (the Columbus of the cuve) was swimming around the rest of the party, cheering them, and directing his' movements, while swimming, by the sound of their voices, which were raised one and all, in

The door was closed, and the bolt of the huge prayer and supplication for deliverance."

MARHIAGE,-How differently do youth and utter silence in the room; then came a rushing are argue on that matter, and how very opposite ioise, and the partners were rolling and struggling are the circumstances which it throws into the, upon the floor. The contest was frighful. Oaths scale of immaginary nappiness. Both may be er-and revellings were uttered loudly and fiercely. roneous; but when the path of life has been trodden, and all its early blandishments and bloom self could separate the infuriated men. And this are fallen into the sear and withered leaf, how few they are who now how to recal the time when their bosoms be at with other aspirations than o his 'cupboard,' I heard my name called from those of wealth or title, or any of the items which the bottom of the stairs. . Mr. Gardner ! Come make up a marriage of convenience, If the angel down, sir, will you ?' I descended, and saw my could be less dry and hard, the young might, perhpas, become lass impetuous and headstrong .-

FIRST EFFECTS OF LOVE .--- Somebody once said-it makes no odds whom-for it is a pretty smile, and perhaps quite true-that he had often remarked that young ladies take love as they take At twelve o'clock on Christmas eve, John and I drank a merry Christmas and a happy new year sea-bathing; sone timidly put in one foot, and o each other, and as the clock struck one the with a shiver and look of apprehension, put in a children came down stairs in their night gowns to second, and then do no more than make a trenibhave the game of snap-dragon which I had promi- ling courtesy in the water, the element sometimes scarcely reaching the region of the heart, and then with a squeal they run to dry land as soon as pos-Thank God ! the Sponging House will soon be ible, and slivering cry, "How cold it is ?" Others again, shulting their seraphic eyes to the dangers When guilt once kindles within the human of the deep souse, plunge in licad over cars, and heart, all that is noble in our nature becomes parrising with a Neteid's glow upon their faces, de-ched and arid; the blush of modesty fades be clare the sea "delicious." fore its glare, the sighs of virtue fan its lurid flame, and every divine essence of our being but swells "Reverence thyself'--was one of the noblest precepts of the excellent Pythegoras. The first The story of Melancthon affords a striking lec- and leading disposition to engage us on the side of ture on the value of time. Whenever he made an virtue is, to preserve above all things a constant appointment, he expected not only the hour, but everence towards our own mind, and to dread He began to hum, 'Here's a health to all good the minute, to be fixed, that the day might not nothing so much as to offend against its native dignity.

enough at 20 minutes to 9.' 'You will give us a lesson, won't you, Mister? I cannot recollect my reply, but I remember and exasperates its internal conflagration. what ascoundrel was Jack Knight, and what I

Again I submitted to imposition, for I had no bad enough without having our feelings harmime they've got at the Lane, nodding his head at a huge pos ing bill on a boarding;) but you see if