OF THE NORTH AMERICAN COLLEGE of llealth.

No MEDICINE has everybeen introduced to the A-merican Public, whose virities have been more cheerfaily and universally acknowleged; than the a-bove named WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS. To descant upon their merits, at this late day, would seem to be wholly unnecessary, as very few indeed who read this article, will be found unacquainted with the real excellence of the indefine – But if further proof were wanting to establish the credit of this singu-tar remedy, it might be found in the fact that no medi-cine in the country has been.so SHAMELESSLY COUNTERFEITED.

SHAMELESSLY COUNTERFEITED. BHAMELESSLY COUNTERFEITED. Ignorant and unprincipled men have at various pla-cre, mannfactured a spurious pill; and is no oder more completely to deceive the public have inde it in out-ward appearance to resemble the true medicine.— These wicked people could never pass of their worth-ess trash, but for the assistance of certain misguided storkeepers, who because they can purchase the spu-rious article at a reduced rate; lend themselves to this monstrous system of imposition and crime. The patrons of the above excellent Pills, will there-fore be on their guard asainst every kind of imposi-tion, and remember the only genuine Agents in Potts-ville, are Messra. T. & J. Beatty. Childhood. BT. H. W. LONGFELLOW. There was a time when I was very small.

When my whole frame was but an ell in height, sweetly; as I recall it tears do fall, And therefore I recall it with delight .sported in my tender mother's arms.

And rode on horseback on best father's knee ; like were sorrows, passions, and alarms, And Gold, and Greek and love, unknown to me

Then seemed to me this World far less in size, Likewise it seemed to me less wicked far; Like points in Heaven, I 'saw the stars arise, And longed for wings that I might catch a star. | was eaten, a portion by the reval family of France,

I saw the moon behind the island fade, And thought, 'O were I on that "island there I could find out of syhat the moon is made, Find out how large it is, how round, how fair !'

Wandering, I saw God's sun, through western skies.

Sink in the ocean's golden lap at night, And yet upon the morrow, carly rise And paint the castern heaven with esimson light.

And thought of God, the gracious, Heavenly Father, Who made me and that lovely sun on high, And all those pearls of Heaven, thick strung together, Dropped, clustering from his hand o'er all the sky.

With childish reverence my young lips did say, The prayer my pious mother taught to me; 'Oh, gentle God ! O let me strive always Still to be wise, and good, and follow thee !

So prayed I for my father and my mother. And for my sister, and for all the town ; The king I knew not, and the beggar brother, Who, bent with uge, went sighing, up and down. They perished, the blythe days of boyhood perished and all the gladness, all the peace I knew ! Now have I but their memory, fondly cherished-God! may I never, never loose that too.

The Carnival with all its pleasures, extravagan-The ces and absurdities, is finally finished. numerous crowds of joyous beings no longer throng the theatres and other dancing saloons. The refer of Musard the Great,' the distinguished comporer of quadrilles and dances, is at an end. At the of the last balls at the Grand Opera, where he officiates as conductor of the two hundred musicians there collected together, a number of the iddy dancers, making their way through their midst, penctrated to his throne, and taking him thence, bore him in triumph around the theatre, which rung with the voices of some six thousand persons, shouting vive Musard, the King of the Dance. The greatest excitement prevailed for some length of time in spite of the efforts of the soldiers and municipal guards, slwavs present in all public assemblies to prevent disturbance.-'Fardi Gras,' or the 4th of February being the last day of the Carnival, was the great holiday of the serted, the more especially as it was snowing fast.
