GETZ'S FORMS, Third Edition.

JUST PUBLISHED a general collection of precedents CONVEYANCING:

In which Examples are given, in sufficient variety, to enable the Scrivener, Conveyancer, and Man of Bu-siness, to draw instruments of writing legally and correctly. Including many forms particularly use-ful to the Farmer, Mechanic, and Trader.

BY GEORGE GETZ 3d edition, revised enlarged & improved. The following Testimonials in favor of Sec. ond Edition, are published, in hope that each Man of Business will procure a copy of the Tunn, just published elegantly printed andfull bound, for his own use and instruction. From the Democratic Press. From the Democratic Press.

We are happy in being able to announce the publication of Major Getz's new edition of his Forms of Conveyancing. In our humble estimation it is decidedly superior to any thing of the kind ever, offered to the public. The lawyer, the Conveyancer and the man of business, will derive such assistance and information from this volume, "splendidly got up," that it must soon find its way into their libray us a valuable acquisition, or fact, no person encaged in business will seek its pages unrequited, for the very small sum he may expend in procuring it.

may expend in procuring it.

From the Commercial Herald.

GETZ'S FORMS.—Second Edition.—This is an excellent 'General Collection of Forms and Precedents in Conveyancing," very handsomely printed. A tegal riend, to whom we handed our copy for an opinion on its merits, sends us this note;—
"A pretty careful examination, induces me "to prefer Mr. Getz's Form Book for general "Conveyancing to any other compilation of "the same size that I have ver seen. The "Precedents are well arranged and clearly "expressed. If a person will do sithout a "lawyers," (a very hazardous operation by the "way)—in the transaction of important concerns, I think that a reference to Mr. Getz "will go far to keep him straight."

From the United States Gazette. From the United States Gazette.

GETZ'S FORMS --Some years since, Mr. George Getz of Reading, prepared a volume of Legal forms, for various Instruments of Conveyancing, Indentures, &c. which was remarkably well received, and gave very general satisfaction. The exhaustion of the edition, intimated to the author theopropriety of preparing to meet the growing demand, and he accordingly set himself down to improve his work--remodelling and rewriting, and adding to the contens. We have not hefore us the result of Mr. Getz's labors, and we arhappy to say, that in our opinion, they do creat credit to his care and attention. The work has been printed with the greatest care, and is creditable, in that respect to the laberality of the author and the mechanical skill of the printer.

From the Pennsylvania Reporter. From the Pennsylvania Reparter.
GETZ'S FORMS.—We accidently omitted to notice in our last, a Volume of Forms, recently published by George Getz, of Reading Pai. The work is the best o
the kind ever presented to the public, and cannot fai
to be in the highest degree useful to conveyancers ecriveners and business men generally. From the Washington Examiner.

From the Washington Examiner.

GETZ'S FORMS.—We have received two copies of this excellent Work—one for the gentleman who entered his name with us as a subscriber some time ago, and one was presented to us by the publisher for our own use. We placed our copy in the hands of the President Judge of this district for examination, who, on returning M, handed us the following, which we take the liberty of publishing, in the expectation that it will recommend the book to many who have not yet proctred copies;—

SIR—I have fooked over the Book of Forms by Mr. (fetz. It is a useful computation, and well arranged. With the aid-it supplies, any man of ordinary qualifications may venture to draw deeds and other instruments without professional assistance. To Magistrates it may be highly valuable. They ought all to have such a manual—and I know, none that would answer the purpose better than this.

May 12, 1537. From the Norristown Register, OFTZ'S FORMS.—The tate edition of Form Bool published by George Getz, Esq. of Reading, is consid-ered the best of the kind ever presented to the public To the conveyancer and scrivener, it is invaluable as reference in drafting the various papers incident to the calling, and to men of business generally it will b calling, and to men of business generally it will be found of great advantage.

Every Farmer, Merchant, Mechanic, and man of business, should procure a copy of this THIRD edition elegantly printed and bound, as by its aid many a doflar may be saved to the owner.

Orders from any part of the United States, will be promptly attended to, if directed (post paid to the subscriber.
