The Coal Trade.

The shipments this week are by Rail Road 23,712 14--
by Canal 9,612 07--total for the week 33,385 01 tons.

There is, we learn, some persons abroad fearful that the market will not be supplied this year. This apprehension is groundless. The increase in the consumption last year was about three hundred thousand tons--and the increased supply this year, will exceed the consumption of last year from 375 to 400,000 tons. We are aware that the increased demand for coal, for the last two years, is unexampled, but the supply will without doubt keep pace with the demand -and besides the Rail Road can throw into the market at least 100,000 tons in addition to the above, if required, during the winter months of 1846, before the Canal Navigation to the different regions will open.

The following is a comparative statement of the trade at the present period with last year;

		1844.	1845	Increase.
Schuylkill	Rail-road,	216,811	607,671
	Canal,	398,046	1,508,615
		614,857	796,636	181,779
Lehigh,		256,808	346,215	89,407
Lackawana,		190,000	200,000	10,000
Wilkesbarre,		85,000	126,551	41,551
Pinegrove,		30,333	38,608	8,575
		1,176,998	1,508,210	331,312

We also give below the whole supply of last year, and the probable supply this year from all the regions;

		Supply in 1844.	Probable supply in 1845	Increase.
Schuylkill	Rail road,	441,491	810,000
	Canal	398,443	265,000
		839,934	1,075 000	234,616
Lehigh,		377,822	460,000	82,178
Lackawana,		251,005	271,000	20,000
Wilkesbarre,		114,000	175.000	61,000
Pinegrove,		31,916	50,000	6,084
		1,631,669	2,031,000	413,968

Should winter set in earlier than usual, the supply may be diminished from 50 to 75,000 tons, by the Canals--on the other hand, if the season should be unusually mild, it can be increased, should the market require it.

☞ As these statistics cost us considerable time and trouble, we hope the papers both at home and abroad that copy them, will give the proper credit.

The trade at Pinegrove, we regret to learn, still remains suspended for the want of water in the dam.--This accounts for the slim shipments from that quarter.

The Collector of the Delaware and Raritan Canal at Princeton, gives the following comparative statement of the Coal Trade on the Delaware and Raritan Canal to-date, for the year 1844 and 1845.

	1844.	1845.	Increase.
Tons of Coal,	175,400	245.500	70.100

The following is a comparative statement of the imports of Coal into Boston, from August 15, to September 15, 1844 and for the same period in 1845;

	Tons. Anthracite	Coal. N. Scotia.	Bush. Richm'd.	Tons. Cannel.
1845,	27,155	5457	10,300	2992
1844,	18,657	3191	13,600	758
	8498	2293	3300	2234

Showing in round numbers an increase in a single month of 8,400 tons of Anthracite; 2,300 chaldrons Nova Scotia, and 2,200 tons Cannel, with a falling off of 3,300 bushels, or about 300 chaldrons Richmond.

The Philadelphia Commercial List states that the demand for Coal is brisk, and the prices firm by the cargo, at the following rates;

Schuylkill white ash lump at $3,62½, and broken at $3,75 and $3,87½ per ton; red ash broken at $4 and $4,12½ and small egg at $4,25 and 4311. No Lehigh Coal offering by the cargo--it is in brisk request at $3,87½.

Freights to New York have run up to $2 50, and to Philadelphia to 95 cents.

The following are the rates of freights to Eastern ports from Philadelphia,

To Salem,	$1 62 to 1 65 per ton.
" Boston,	$1 62 to 1 75 "
" Portland,	$1 62 to 1 87 "
" New Bedford,	$1 37 to 1 50 "
" Providence & Fall River,	$1 37 to 1 50 "
" Charleston,	$1 65 to 1 75 "
" Cambridgport & Brighton,	$2 75 to 2 87 "
" Nantucket,	$1 75 "
" New York,	$1 00 to 1 05 "
" Troy,	$1 37 a 1 50 "
" Newark, N. J.	$1 00 "
" Albany,	$1 45 to 1 50 "
" Fredericksburg, Va.	$1 12 to 1 25 "

Freights to Philadelphia by Canal 95 cents--to New York, $2 50

By Rail Road from Pottsville $1 40 and from Schuylkill Haven $1 30--to Philadelphia.

GRAND EXHIBITION!

Unexampled Attraction!!

ASTHE Fakir of Ava has ceased to amuse our citizens, we think it will be gratifying to the Public to learn that amusements equally as attractive and more profitable than those given by the Fakir are now open at the store of the subscriber. The amusements are however of a different character. The Fakir's method of amusing his audience was humbug and nothing but humbug, and the undersigned's system of amusing his audience consists of bargains and nothing but bargains; being a grand display of seasonable merchandize, which for cheapness is unparalled in Ancient or Modern times. His stock of goods is larger and he feels quite certain that he can in the space of a month by scientific experiments reduce them to the little end of nothing, which will be a beautiful and unprecedented feat, and he doubts not will result quite profitably to his customers and most certainly agreeable to himself. The philosophy of this magical operation consists in the following grand secret, viz:—Goods are offered at such exceedingly low rates that the mind becoming excited, the fancy amused, and before the exercises are over, the purse will be considerably relieved. Admission free and no charge for showing goods.

GEO W. SLATER.

P. S.—In addition to the above exhibition, there can be seen Twelve Thousand Shingles—they are quite attractive, being very cheap and good.

GREAT CENTRAL PHILADELPHIA CLOTHING ESTABLISHMENT

Corner of Market and Decatur street,

No. 210.

THE MOST EXTENSIVE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE KIND IN THE UNITED STATES.

DANIEL CRETH,

NO. 210 MARKET STREET, COR. OF DECATUR

HAS now finished the most extensive assortment of FASHIONABLE CLOTHING ever offered in the City of Philadelphia.

I am warranted in making this extensive preparation, in the fact that I have a larger custom than any two stores in the city, and importing my own Goods direct in large quantities, of the choicest, and most fashionable styles, before the other tailors, who buy in small quantities, have commenced making up for sales, which warrant me in making the assertion that I can sell a suit of Fashionable Clothing at a lower price to the customer than it costs at some stores to get the goods made.

I wish the public to understand distinctly, that this establishment is conducted on the principle that I can and do offer better terms to my customers than can possibly be afforded by any other in the business. The reason of this is plain—I conduct my business entirely on the CASH principle, buy and sell entirely for Cash, keep no books of credit, and of course do not have to keep Clerks to attend to the bad debts. Thus much for the principle on which I conduct business.

I have now finished, and ready for FALL and WINTER SALES, about 35,000 garments, of the newest style, the cut and make of which is universally acknowledged to be unequalled.

Super super Dress and Frock Coats, in every variety of shade and color.

Newest styles superlative French and American Cassimere Pants.

A large and most splendid assortment of rich style Silk Velvet, Merino and Cashmere d'Ecosse Vestings, of my own importation, the style of some of which cannot be had elsewhere in the city.

The most extensive assortment of super Cloth Cloaks ever seen in Philadelphia, with every variety of new-style Woolen, Plaid and Striped Lining.

Aspahum, Beaver, Bangup Coats—a large variety, with different style Trimmings—Waved Beaver Bangup Coats, Plain Beaver do, Adelaide Sack do., a new and beautiful article for an easy and pleasant Overcoat

I have the largest display of Cloaks ever offered in the city, with every other article in my line of business, which I am determined to sell lower than can be offered by any others in the trade,

LAUCKS'

RHEUMATIC PRESERVATIVE:

FOR SALE, WHOLESALE AND RETAIL, BY

SAMUEL LAUCKS, Proprietor,

East King st. Lancaster city.

MUCH need not be said in relation to this wonderful remedy, as the proprietor feels confident that when applied, it will, as can be proven by a number of respectable persons, effect an entire cure of the Rheumatic and other pains. It had not, until lately, been his intention to make it public, but by the frequent applications of his neighbors, and the wonderful cures it has effected, he feels it a duty he owes to society, as well as himself, to make it more generally known, and at the same time, have it put as near as he can, within the reach of all who may be afflicted with diseases.

☞ Thousands of names could be published of persons who have been cured by this celebrated medicine, but it is not deemed necessary.

☞ The above medicine is an invaluable cure, for Rheumatic pains, Rickets, Scrofula, Chronic diseases, Pain in the Head and Breast, Cramp, White Swelling, Mumps, Toothache, Stagnation of the Blood, Pain in the Back, Pleurisy, Sick Headache, Cramp in the Stomach, Soreness and Swelling of the Throat, Coughs, Colds and Stoppages in the Head. In fact it removes the whole system.

DIRECTIONS FOR USING THE PRESERVATIVE.

The medicine should be thoroughly rubbed into the parts affected; in very obstinate cases it should be applied by flannel and the application of a warm smoothing-iron; in this case it acts as a powerful counter-irritant.

N. B. The above medicine is not sold by any Druggist: and the public should be particularly cautious not to purchase from itinerant pedlars as all such offered are counterfeit. The only places to procure the genuine medicine are from the proprietor, or the regular stationary agents who show their authority by the Proprietor's certificate.

☞ Testimonials of its efficacy can be had at the Proprietor's and from the regular agents.

☞ Messrs. BRIGHT & POTT, are the authorised agents for Schuylkill county.
